 North Jackson, January 17th, 1874.
 To the Editor of the Montrose Republican : A tew weeks since there appeared a notice in the Binghamton Times, also in the Montrose Republican, of the trial of Rev. A. F. Harding, the frusting, and also, that of the g, andson, 21 of that of his grandfather, making it in fact, a HARPORD AORICULTURAL SOCIETT. The annual meeting of the "Harford Agri-cultural Society" will be held at the School nore reminded of this, when we came around the table doubly spread and haded with all the substantials and dainties which the senson af-fords. We noticed a birth lay cake, made by age of her father, 75 years, neatly arranged on the firsting, and also, that of the g, andson, 21
