the coal trade have announced their diction for April. Prices are to be advanced five cents per ton. Production is to be curtailed fifteen per cent.

The imposing demonstration on last week of the merchants and business men of New York against the currency inflation swindle is one of the gratitying signa that the reign of such financiers as Hen' Ty Clubs and Jay Cookeis ended.

It is claimed on the part of republican journals in Connecticut, and conceded by the democracy, that if the republicans carry the state, it is in despite of the administration, and on account of some occult merit ju republicanism itself, now hidden from the eye of understanding,

It may alleviate the dignity of men bers of the house to delay the passage of bers of the honse to delay the passage of the bill authorizing the payment of the printing bills of the state, but it does no credit to their sense of justice. After a morning seasion spint in refusing to abate a cent on legislative salaries, it was ap a cont on legislative salaries, it was ap propriate to devote the alternoon to econ omy. So weg ..

The Legi Liture Home on a Visit. The Legislature adjourned on Friday last to meet sgain on Tuesday next. Some opposition to the adjournment was hulked by a few of the members who said they could finish all the business necessa-to the fegistration at washington, harris-burg, Albany and in all the states, east, west, north and south, has been, and now is, in favor of monopolies. How is it that these men, without work, without toil, Some opposition to the adjournment was ry to be done by the 16th of April withwith hands unaccustomed to labor, living in brows stone fronts, in palaces, famil ou an edje urnment, but they were overrnied by others who argued, that the tal-ies furnished with the luturies of every e it for legislation under the new Consti-clime, can spend fortunes every year e it for legislation under the new Constitution would die with the present body Surely these immense sums, these enoras there would be two hundred and fifty (ignoran us) uso members elected this fall and they would not be competent for | inil.
