

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

AWAY WITH RATS.

From my own experience I estimate that the damage done by rats upon any one farm is equal to what would be consumed by a pair of hogs. That this damage is not prevented simply shows that a man knows less than a rat. I found it so, and gave up attempts to trap or poison them, in consequence of repeated defeats. But in self-defense I was obliged to discover some means of getting rid of them, and finally concluded that to destroy their haunts was my best plan. I therefore "carried the war into Africa," as a might say. My first movement was to open all the underpinning of my buildings, and where they were less than a foot from the ground, I dug them to at least 18 inches. Instead of leaving the floors of my sheds and pens laid upon sleepers, which rested upon the ground, and thus furnished the most secure hiding places for the vermin, I placed them upon sills and joists, which rested upon stout posts. In short, I let daylight in everywhere. The granary was made so that I could pass around the bins, and the barn was arranged so that the driveways and everything about was open to daylight and the cats. That most vulnerable point, the corn crib, I raised upon posts, and of course the rats were less than a foot from the ground, and removed it three feet from the fence, within a foot of which it formerly stood. Then the long familiar squeak beneath the floor was heard no more, and the rats which formerly came out when the pigs were fed, and in the feast, had gone; their little game was up. As for the mice, a few of them remained about the barn; but as soon as they left their hiding places they were picked up even by the fowls, and it was not long before some of my light Bramas became excellent mousers. In short, by removing every hiding place, permitting no rubbish to lie around, and by preserving perfect cleanliness everywhere, I soon got rid of every rat which formerly infested my premises. Where they went I do not know exactly, but expect they found plenty of room and agreeable darkness around my neighbors barns and sheds.—Tribune.

Coal Ashes for Pear Trees.

As the real value of coal ashes is just being ascertained, I will mention a fact that came under my own observation the past summer. A friend of mine near Le Roy, has a large number of pear trees, both standard and dwarf. Last spring he gathered all his coal ashes, and placed around his pear trees, taking extra pains that the poorest trees should be attended to. Now for the consequences. Every tree that had ashes around showed unmistakable signs of improvement by being loaded with fruit. And another thing, he did not lose a single tree from blight, although a great many were struck with it in the same locality. Now I cannot say the ashes saved the trees from the blight, but he thinks they did. At any rate it is worth trying. I think coal ashes just the thing for pear trees.—Rural Home.

Honey Bees.

Professor Agassiz said, in reference to honey bees: "The beehive consists when in full activity, of one queen, several hundred drones, and many thousand working bees. These constitute a community by which a combined system of labor is carried on transcending in many respects the most complicated actions of man himself. Their structure shows no organ similar to those by which the mental functions are manifested in the higher animals and in man. They have no brain proper, nor does their nervous system correspond in any way to that of the vertebrates."

Weed Seeding.

Passing by the garden of a careless farmer the other day, I remarked that I thought it would be as well to pull up a large coil of millinery and, and willing to produce another and greatly enlarged quantity of plants next year. "But I will pull them up when I have time, if not, I guess they won't hurt anything," was the reply. If that man would calculate the effect next year I believe the figures would scare him into immediate action. Dr. Lindley says that a plant of the common Sow Thistle will produce 11,040 seeds in a single season, and the millin is not far behind as a cropper. "Never put off until to-morrow what can be done to-day" in the case of troublesome weeds.

Low vs. High Fruit Trees.

An Illinois fruit-grower, who has 12,000 apple and from 4,000 to 6,000 pear trees, finds that those with low heads, of the same varieties, show at least two-thirds more fruit, as large or larger, and as high colored as those with high tops. "My dear, the matter is cut off in certain rows all the limbs from four to six feet from the ground, and others he encouraged the limbs to start close to the surface, and in the latter case neither thinned nor pruned, except occasionally to lop away too luscious shoots in order to preserve a symmetrical appearance or evenly balanced head, and the above is the result."

Egg Cake.—Two cups of sugar, one egg, piece of butter the size of a large egg, one cup of sour milk, one teaspoonful of soda, a little salt and nutmeg, one teaspoonful of lemon, three cups of flour; beat the whites of egg separately, the sugar and salt and butter together; bake in a thoroughly heated oven.

Minute Sponge Cake.—Beat three eggs two minutes; add one cup of flour and one teaspoonful of cream tartar; one teaspoonful of soda; add half a teaspoonful of soda and a spoonful of extract of lemon; beat one minute; add one cup of flour; beat one minute. Splendid.

Delicious Cake.—One cup of white sugar; five teaspoonfuls of butter; whites of six eggs; one cup of sweet milk; one teaspoonful of soda; two teaspoonfuls cream tartar; three cups of flour; lemon extract to flavor.

Excellent Sausage.—To ten pounds of meat take three ounces of salt one of black pepper, one-half ounce sage, if desired; mix the seasoning well, and sprinkle it over the meat before it is chopped, so as after mixing will blend the whole so nicely.

Where might you expect to find a cow's pedigree? In a cattle log.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Drummer in a Scrape.

At Big Creek, Arkansas, they have a peculiar fashion which sometimes proves embarrassing. As there is no preacher within thirty miles, the way for marrying is by kissing across a table. Recently a New York drummer was out there. He put up at a private house, and became quite intimate. One evening he was fooling around one of the girls, generally trying the extent of her sweet temper, when she gave his whiskers a pull and ran. He followed. She got the table between them. He chased her around it several times. When out of breath he stopped on the other side, making a wild plunge caught her in his arms and gave her a hearty kiss. She then sat down on the sofa, and she talked pleasantly for a couple of hours—he thinking it singular that she should sit up so late. At last she said, "Don't you think it about time we went to bed?" "I guess you're right."

"Let's go," she would make an effort to do the same, when she said, "I reckon one's enough. One candle will light two folks to bed."

Undoubtedly it would when those two persons occupy the same room. But your candle, says the romantic member? "Ain't we married?" "Ain't we what?" shouted the gentleman. "Married! Didn't you kiss me across the table? That married us."

A cold spread over the drummer who knew that if he said his wife was married, she would make an outcry, and then her loving and much tobacco-consuming father would arise in his wrath and carve him into curls, and his brothers would bring down their shot-guns and empty the contents into him; he must be strategic. He must put her off, so he said:

"Patience of your sex, permit me to remark that I did not know that kissing across the table constituted a marriage ceremony. But I am content, I have never seen one that so completely filled my ideal of a beautiful, sweet, loving and modest woman. However I would never think of holding you to this marriage, until I had asked the permission of your father to pay my addresses to you. Tomorrow, at dinner, when the entire family are present, I will propose for your fair hand."

This satisfied the lady, and, after bestowing upon him a fervent kiss, she went to her room and took another candle and went to his. He packed his carpet-bag, took off his boots and made tracks for the nearest railroad station. He didn't feel entirely safe until he reached St. Louis. He hasn't informed his wife of his little adventure. He's afraid she might write out to Arkansas for the facts in the case, and then he might get arrested for bigamy. Women sometimes won't listen to reason, you know.

A few days ago, a very handsome lady entered a dry goods house and inquired for a bean. The polite clerk drew himself back and remarked that he was at her service. "Yes, but I want a buff not green one," was the reply. The young man went on measuring goods immediately.

A country editor recently saved this to his readers: "If anything will revive a sinner's hope and give him a realizing sense that he may be saved, it is to gaze into the stars. A pair of black eyes and bear an eighteen year old girl murtherer the words, 'I love you.'"

The next day a superintendent of a lunatic asylum came along and scooped him in. A poor fellow!

A strong-minded woman made the following gentle reply to a politician who called at her house, to get her husband to go and vote: "No sir he can't go. He's washing to-day and he's got to iron to-morrow, and if he wasn't doing anything he couldn't go. I run this 'ere house, I do, and if any one votes it'll be this same Mary Jane."

A sailor dropped out of the rigging of a ship of war, some fifteen or twenty feet and fell plump on the head of the first lieutenant. "Wretch!" said the officer, after he had gathered himself up, "Where the deuce did you come from?" "An' I cum from the north of Ireland, yer honor."

"How old is your mother?" asked a love-smitten old bachelor of the daughter of the widow who had enchanted him. "I don't know sir; ma's age varies from about forty-three to twenty-five," was the artless reply, and the bachelor was disenchanted.

A Green Bay woman, whose husband kicks her down stairs every second night says she likes to boot over his old letters commencing with: "My dearest, darling little angel Minnie, heaven alone knows the depth of my love for you."

A lady had her dress trimmed with bugles before going to a ball. Her little daughter wanted to know if the bugles would blow when she danced? "Oh no," said the mother, "papa will do that when he sees the bit."

A newspaper published the following note:—Lord or grade from the s-r-iber a shepe all over white one leg was black and half his body—all persons shall receive five dollars to bring him. He was a she goat."

An Indiana paper thus politely expresses an opinion of a judge: "He knows just as much of law as a mule does of mineralogy—the chances being in favor of the mule."

"Napkins, sir! napkins!" roared a Green Bay landlady; no, sir, we haven't got any, but if you want to wipe your nose I'll lend you my handkerchief!"

Some thoughtful person says: "It is unkind to ridicule those items in the papers about centenarians. It is no easy thing to become a centenarian; several have failed."

What is the earliest financial transaction on record? When Pharaoh received a check on the bank of the Red Sea, crossed by "Moses & Co."

A man named Vovell was murdered in a cow blood near Franklin, Tenn., last Tuesday. We are all glad it was neither U nor I.

Drugs and Medicines.

WINEGAR BITTERS. PURELY VEGETABLE. FREE FROM ALCOHOL. Dr. J. Walker's California Winegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California.

Dr. J. Walker's California Winegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California. The medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Winegar Bitters in curing the most obstinate cases of Biliousness, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are the most common causes of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator, Invigorator, and Tonic. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of Winegar Bitters in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases."

If men will enjoy good health, let them use Winegar Bitters as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form. No Person can take these Bitters without feeling their effects, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair. Great Thousands proclaim Winegar Bitters the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system. Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the great West, throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, and other rivers, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera, and are attended by a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon the various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Winegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dropsical Swellings, and Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Region of the Kidneys, and a host of other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement. Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swelling, Ulcers, Eruptions, and Scald Head, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Swollen Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, and all other eruptions of the skin, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S WINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and inveterate cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood. Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Painting and Minerals, such as Gunners, Typographers, Gun and Boiler makers, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally. For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blisters, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are liberally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible. Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, rest assured that your liver is not doing its work. The only remedy is to promote the secretion of the bile and favor its removal. For this purpose use Winegar Bitters.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impure by bathing through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is full of your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
