The floods in Louisiana have left the enbmerged districts in a far better condition as regards augar and rice plantations than could have been looked for by the most sanguine. While in some districts the sugar crop is hopelessly lost, this is made up by a large acreage in cultivation and large proportionate yield elsewhere. In addition to this the weather since the flood has been unusually favorable for laying by crops, and the season is nearly a month ahead of last year's. The rice districts are in a still more promising condition. The crevasses in Plannemines Parish, by far the most important rice growing district, were closed early, and the prospects are excellent. Altogether 6,000 acres more than last year are cultivated While, therefore, the floods have caused immense suffering in the South, the disastrous consequences have guishes, manufactories are paralyzed, and not been as deplorable as was at first sup-

Scathing Review of Radicalism.

Our readers well know the corruptions, the Republican party, its President and its leaders, but to have the more important of these rascalities condensed into one thing that we could write would so well arraign the Radical party, as the letter of Hon. F. A. Conkling, a Liberal Republican, and brother of Senator Roscoe Conkling, written in answer to an invitation to be present at the annual Fourth of July celebration at Tammany Hall. As a former eminent Republican, his words have unusual significance, and coming from an honest true leader of the Liberal Republican element of New York, it poltical office seekers who left the Radicman, engineer of the United States Cen- Democracy, fighting for good, honest pure goverment, and intend to continue building, and the plans prepared by Mr. the battle let the reverses be as frequent Henry Pettit, consulting engineer to the as they may, until victory shall at last Commission, for the temporary or main crown their efforts, and a glorious united, peaceful, happy, prosperous people make up the States of this union. We cannot do better than give the following letter of Hon. F. A. Conkling, in full, hoping that all of our readers may carefully peruse it:

NEW YORK, July, 1, 1874.

The Hop. Augustus Schell. SIR: As a Republican I thank you for the invitation with which you have honored me to sit in conference with the Tammany Society on the anniversary of American Independence. Give Us More of It.

Since his induction into office, Secretary of the Treasury Bristow, has at least attracted the public attention with the promptness and decision of his acts. So far this public attention has not been unfavorable to the Secretary, but the reverse. He seems to be imbued with the idea that the statesmen of the past generation and ante-war times were not altogether fools, and that the old-time public virtue to which we are wont to refer as a people, is not wholly a myth and ought to be encouraged in high places even in this day.

After Secretary Bristow had prepared the required advertisment, he learned that a Ring had been formed in New York, Boston, Baltimore and at other places, for the purpose of first securing the contracts and sub-letting them to other parties, the Ring pocketing the difference.

Upon being made aware of this fact, the Secretary inserted a proviso in the advertisement to the effect that no bid would be considered, unless the bidder should personally stipulate to superintend and be himself responsible for the execution of the contract. The time has come for honest men to waive their personal interests and preferance, and to unite against this Administration. The great Roman orator defined true public virtue to consist in the steady sacrifice of private interests and passions to the public good. We have reached a crisis in our history which loudly calls for such devotion. The Grant party hopes to continue its ascendancy by placing the representatives of two new rotten-borough States in the Senate; and to retain its duration and extent since the year 1840, tion will be set in motion by these as-

Let us then with a single purpose, from this time forth, advance in concert for the overthrow of venality, usurpation, and despotism. The Centenary of our National Independence approaches. Let us here highly resolve that it shall be signalized by a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

St. Paul, Minn. July 9.—Since the ap-eal of Governor Davis of this State to peal of Governor Davis of this State to the War Department, mentioned in tonight's Associated Press dispatches, is likely to be denied because of insufficiency of the law, it is time for the people of the United States to be informed that utter wide-spread destitution exists in the south western counties of this State among the new settlers, whose crops have been dis-troyed for two years, and that urgent appeals must be made to the benevolent everywhere for contributions in aid of starving people, who own farms under homestead and pre-emption laws, but are unable to obtain subsistence from their farms because of the destruction caused by grasshoppers. Contributions of mon-ey or clothing should be addressed to Gen-eral H. H. Sibley or Governor C. K. Davis, St. Paul. Provisions or their equivalent are most needed.
