OFFORITE THE COURT HOUSE,

The following paragraph has been going the round of our exchanges for some time.

"Pat Irvin, confined in the county jail at Mon-"Pat Irvin, confined in the county jail at Mon-trosc, under sentence of death, for aiding Daniel O'Mara in killing Daniel O'Mara's mother and sister, made an ineffectual attempt to commit suicide on Thursday night last, by cutting his throat in three places, with a case knife, which he managed to get in his posses-sion."

Sheriff Helme says he thought his own counly papers were good at lying, but he thinks outsiders can beat them.

During the contest between the ball clubs of Yale and Harvard Colleges at Saratoga last week, Frank Bently, son of Geo. V. Bentley, esq. of this place, Catcher of the Yale club, was struck on the nose by a foul ball with such force as to break it.—Moutrose Benublican.

We remember Frank when a sudent at the Academy and we then considered him a good healthy boy, but we did not expect, his nose would "break" a "foul ball." Can it be poss ble that the editor of the Republican has made a grammatical blunder and that Frank's nose got broken instead of the "foul ball?" The latter is the most rational to us. We were a member of a B. B Club, in New Milford, just three months by the watch and we could not shut either hand during the time, for the stiff ingers. Base Ball is not our forte.

The animal will do more work and do it much easier without it and it was certainly invented to gratify the owner and not to promote the comfort of the animal.

Unvailing Father O'Reilley's Monument.

The unveiling of the magnificent mon erected over the tomb of Rev. J. V. O'Beilley at Susquehanua Depoi, icok place Sunday July 12th. Although the weather was threatning, and rain occasionally sell, it is essentiated that over 8,000 persons were present, to do honor to the beloved dead. The procession was headed by the Father Mathew Temperance and Benovolent Society, of which the veteran priest was the consistent and excest leader The Catholic Literary Society followed and nembers of the congregation and such citizens as had not already gatuered at the cemetery brought up the rear and marched irom the church to the tomb. The monument was then unvelled,and Rev. N. J. Quinn of Binghamton, susisted by Fathers Slattery and Fitzmaurice of that per.sh, blessed it and the tomb, with the usual Catholic rites.

Father Quinn then delivered his address way. which was a most complete biog.aphy of the lile and good works of Father O'Reilley, clothed in most eloquent language, and highly and fittingly eutogistic of the pure and holy priest whose thread of life was so suddenly snapped one year ago, and whose memory is so sacred to all who knew bim. The address was deliverwith a nathos that touched the string of every tender heart, and voiled the scene with an boly
