The Courier Journal fails to see in the Beecher affair the ingredients for an ordinary domestic drama, because there will be no shooting. It says;

"A buxom preacher a bit to oprevious a little too conceited and garrulous; a wretched sly puss of a sentimentalist, with a turn for theology and taste for intrigue; a mother-in-law and a kitchen a dozen religious pimps for jurors, make up the sum and substance of the Brooklyn scandal. The with other men's wives; an inspired fool, army is under murching orders, and the attorney general at his wit's end, and yet, if we except Louisiana, there is no point to wedge in a soldier. In the meantime the market for "outrages" is growing maid, both destitute of honor, with half stale and flat. Even Kellogg, who has proved himself the Napoleon of carpetbaggers, begins to pall upon the palate of the eyer credulous masses of the republican party. Added to what was preve-ensity in, it bears down the scale against Saturday night the officers of the attorney general, in the building used as a State house in New Orleans, were broken into, all the public records were piled in a heap, saturated with coal oil and set on fire. It would be a good thing if all the Kellbgg government could be got rid of by the same means. Evidently the authorities attempted on Saturday night to destroy some of the evidences of their manifold wrongs against the people, but nt appears that the records did not burn, and were only rendered illegible by the free use of kerosene. We speak more particularly of the hotels on Broadway and Fifth avenue—the Grand Central being the largest most centrally located, and elegantly furnished. Of these four or five leading hotels, the fare are covered with the names of most lux-uriant viands of the season. The bill of the Grand Central especially deserves set ting apart as a notable specimen modern culinary skill in number, variety and richness of its dishes. It contains no less than eleven (11) courses for dinner and gives the hours for no less than six (6) meals every day, for the moderate sum of from $3 to $4 per day, including of course, an elegantly furnished room for each guest. It would seem from this that the tours of our travelers and the visits of our business men become rounds of pleasure as well as of business.
