A large number of new buildings are already occupied and many others nearly completed. We no-ticed another public improvement that transcends all others, and that is, the new water works. The water is being brought from a spring owned by Gaylord, Curtis. Mr. C., inormed us that the spring, in this dry time, will continually supply a three inch pipe which is water enough for ten thousand individuals. The fall is abundent for all practical purposes. One of the notable events of the year is to take place at Easton. At the most propitious season of our usually bright autumns the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold its twenty cond annual exhibition

The display gives truitful promise that it will one of the very best ever held under the auspices of the society. The entries are free to all. The society have wisely determined that the books of entries shall be closed a week be ore the opening, so that complete arrangments may be made of the entries made for prizes. The time is at that period in which good weather may almost be counted a certainty.

The arrangments for meetings each evening of the Fair are a new and excellent feature. In these meetings farmers may learn from one another, to the benefit of the great economics interest which the society is so anxious to for

A large display of improved farm stock will be on exhibition—of fine horses and all the best breeds of cattle. One of the most atrocio us crimes ever committed was perpetrated at a point near Henryville, Ind., about 20 miles back from Jefferso ville, on Saturday night, the 29th ult. A brief account of the affair was given by telegraph, but the following details from the Jefferson ville correspondence of the Louisville Courier Journal will be found interesting:

As freight train No. 10, coming south on the J. M., and L. Railroad, due at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in charge of Conductor Waterse, had reached a point about one mile this side of Henryville, the train was hailed and stopped. A number of men probably a dozen, were gathered around a man, and Conductor Waterhouse was told that a man had been run over by a previous train, and was dving. The conductor had the injured man taken on board the train, in company with Dr. Ferguson, of Henryville, who had been called to render medical services. The intered man had his left less torn off by the train, and was weak from the shoard was unable to talk. He however, revived for a time, and told the following horrible

MANHOOD! How Lost. How Restored! MANHOOD: How Lost, How Restored!

Just Published, a new edition of Dr. Culver well's Celebrated Sessy on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermstorhea or seminal weakness. Involuntary Seminal Losses. Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, etc., sinc, Consumption, Epicpey, and Pits, induced by sell-indupence or sexual sextrayagnee, etc.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay clearing demonstrates, from a thirty year's successful practice, that the slarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerons use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
