The Montrose Cornet Band gave a fine open ar concert on Public Avenue, on Friday evening last and also during that evening they played a few very fine pieces in front of the residence of the senior editor of this paper, for which our greatest obligations are due. By this demonstration we are led to conclude that they are convinced that we have a personal interest in their success, as well as a common one with every other cluizen of our borough. If anything we have said, either privately or through the columns of the DENOCRAT, has led election. This is the same provision that prethem to form this opinion our object has been attained. We have never expected any such marked manifestation of their respect b nev entheless it is duly appreciated. We believe it to be unselfish in them, and we know that what we have done is so on our part.

The experience of the last few ) cars proves that such a house is needed, for many each year have been compelled to seek other less desirable places of summer resort for lack of accommodations here. It is thought that at least 150 persons from the cities would have spent the sultry season in Montrose this year if they could have found suitable accommodations. We hope the proposed hotel will soon be built. It will benefit Montrose as well as those who seen the pure bracing air of our breezy hills .--Montrove Republican.
