Arrangement of Mills. Via Railroad. Through Depot. To the Mill. To the Mill. To the Mill.

Montrose Railway. Arrangement of Trains. To take effect Monday, Nov. 1st, 1874.

New Arrivals. First National Bank of Montrose. What You Should Know.

Notes About Town. Where is the grand old? A Council of Sovereigns of Industry was organized in Montrose last Saturday evening.

John W. Scott, who learned the printers trade in the Democrat office, called upon us last week. He was a very faithful and efficient man in our office, and we are glad to learn of his continued success in his present position.

At an election held Monday evening last, the following persons were elected officers of the Ready Fire Company: Foreman, C. C. Forthman; Secretary, A. A. Warren; and Treasurer, H. C. Jessup.

When a person is passing through our streets, upon a clear, bright, cold night, he will witness with great fervor upon the lips of his neighbors, kindness, and exclaims in surprise, that mankind is not quite so bad after all.

Husband your Potatoes. Think your potatoes, if you would eat any of them in the spring. Farmers generally state that the potatoes in their cellars are nearly all rotten, and that if any are buried there is no hope for them, as the frost is several feet under ground.

Reading a Catholic Diocese. The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph states that Reading has been created a Catholic diocese, and states that it is enabled to confirm the report that Bishop Wood has accepted the appointment of archbishop at the hand of the Pope.

From Friendsville. Mr. Fitzgerald who was badly injured by falling from a load of hay, is slowly recovering. Dr. Handrick is attending him instead of Dr. Lines, as your correspondent from Middletown said last week.

An Important Law Suit. Last week a suit was tried before Judge Dean in this county, which promises to eclipse anything in the way of land trials that has ever been presented for judgment in the history of this county.

Anniversary Celebration. By invitation from Mr. E. J. Rogers of Montrose, some of the children, grand children and great-grand children, of one of our pioneers Mr. John Fancher, met at his house, where he has been residing for the last few years.

Query. Mr. Elton—As the annual statement of the Board of the Trustees of Susquehanna County for 1874, and published to the world, I suppose they are open to criticism.

Springville and Dimock. The Key-Stone wagon shop is again in the hands of the late owner, Mr. A. Warren. S. O. Culver has just organized a large singing class at Strickland school house.

From Hopbottle. Hay is selling for $12 per ton. Dr. N. W. Green is very busy these sickly times.

FINANCIAL. RECEIPTS FOR THE LAST SIX DAYS, 5,203.30. The demand is not so brisk as a few days ago, but the market does not present as favorable an appearance. In Western butter we hear of a sale of 100 barrels of sound early packed Iowa butter, to go to San Francisco, at the rate of 17 1/2 cents per pound. This will relieve the market a trifle, and causes a shade firmer feeling in the market packed Western.
