The Senate finally passed the Judges salary bill as follows: Chief Justice $8,500 Associates on the Supreme bench $8,000, Philadelphia and Allegheny Judges $7,-000, Dauphin county $5,900, other county Judges $5,000, per year. It is hoped (almost against hope) that the Democratic House will materially reduce these enormus salaries. But governmental extravagance is the order of the day. The object of the Radicals is to exhibit the Democratic House as extravagant as themselves. Will not the Democrats of that body take heed that this slander be not perpetrated ?-Bloomsburg Col.

On Wednesday some fifteen hours before the final close of the XLIII Congress, two new members were admitted to seats. The one was Mr. George A Sheridan, who contested the claim of Mr. Pinchback to have been elected Congressman at Large for Louisiana, and the other was Mr. Effigham Lawrence, who claimed the seat for the first Louisiana District, which has been occupied, though hardly adorned, by Mr. Sypher. Mr. Lawrence, who is one of the largest plantters of Louisiana, and a man fairly representative of the best class of men of property in that state, took the iron-clad oath and entered upon the duties from which he will be very shortly released .-salary for the two years' session, they ought to feel that the money was easily whether the above is true or false, on account of the source from which it emanates. But we will grant the truth of it and then add, that Governor Tilden does all of this on a salary from the people of $4.000. Whereas Governor clartranft of this etate seems to require $10,000. We are glad that there is one governor, and a Democrat also, that is admitted by Homer to be spending his own money instead of the people's. Wouldn't it be well for us if we had such a President?

by many physicians; also those suffering from ne disease as afficted the son of the Rev E. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is the about the curative power of VEGETINE. MR. H. /R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir-We have good reason for regarding your VEGENTENE a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now, seventeen years of age; for the last two years he has suffertion, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible; A counsed of table physicians could give as but the faintest hope of his seer rallying; two of the number declaring that the was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even ampetation could not save him say he had not vigor chough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the fallest condence the for a N'tte time be will be perfectly cired.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGR.
