If Connecticut is lost to Grant he doubtless derives comfort from the reflection that Louisians still remains, and cannot be taken from him by any such device as the ballot as long as the bayonet is kept at the throats of her people. The superiority of the bayonet over the ballot is thue made apparent to the dullest comprehension.

The returns from the state of Michigan as they straggle in are not of an assuring kind for the republican party,-It is now believed that the democrats have elected ten of the twenty one circuit judges who were voted for and that the general vote in the state shows a democratic gain on the remarkable election of November, 1874.

All is quiet in the Schuylkill region, rance, we still hope for a final solution of the problem within the month.

We are fully determined now to smoke the editor of the Montrose Republican ont of his den on the "third term" question, or else make him dig deeper than he is undertaking the senatorial Local Option tactics by trying to be on both side of the question at once, but the people have had about all the political clowns of that character that they will patronize.

The Democrats of Connecticut did well on Monday; but not as well as they could. There were tie votes in three assembly districts-East Haddam, Columbia and Redding. Special elections were held on Tuesday which resulted in the choice of democrats in all three districts-in East Haddam by 30 majority. Columbia 14. and Redding 11. This makes the house of representatives stand 136 democrats; 106 republicans and 2 independents.

Here is a mild estimate of the President's qualifications for a third term. It is from the Boston Courier: "A Presidreams of an indefinite axtension of his lease of power through the continuance of anarchy in the Southern half of the Union, should be ineligible even to a second term. Freedom itself is worthless without order and an honest inteligent National administration. Grant has on, to an extent as yet unknown. But never had a Cabinet capable of administering the affairs of a great government. He has had an unconquerable aversion to any body bigger than a head clerk .-The personnel of the Government of the smallest State in Europe would put ours to blush."

It has been a hard fight and a long one, but it's of no use, and Mr. Tweed may as well surrender unconditionally at once. He went to prison to save several millions of real estate, hoping for a pardon after things would blow over; but matters have grown worse and worse, the toils have grown thicker instead of relax ing, and now he is likely to be stripped of his stolen wealth and die in jail. SPRAGUES' FARM. In the state which was long known as sive property of their business rivals, Brown and Ives, an election for governor was held the other day in which the world at large seems to have taken little interest. It would be no honor for the democrats to win a political victory in a state whose laws surround the voter with the most odious tests and whose elections are marked with flagrant and undisguised had no other form of government than ony by King Charles H. The constitution which succeeded was little improvement on the royal charter. It makes a property qualification for voting and a property as well as a nativity test for office. No foreign born citizen is eligible but all native negroes can hold office if his cunning he will come down, like they possess the property qualification.— Scott's coon, without waiting for the fire. The contest on Wednesday was mainly between the liquor and anti-liquor factions of the republican party. The vote we used to hear about President Grant for governor was nearly equally divided between the candidates of these rival factions, but the democratic candidate receiving enough votes to prevent an elecion by the people, there will be a new trial in which the lowest candidate will be dropped. This narrows the contest between the liquor and anti-liquor factions of the republican party, the result all that is said as to their power of enda- three and a half millions since the last depending altogether on the orders which may be given by Brown and Ives to their obedient subjects.

The special friends of Grant say the result is that work is at a stand still. that the best possible result for the Republican party is to loose the elections generally this year, as it will prove the absolute necessity of taking him as the candidate in 1876. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and new-rounds on unch relief as from the Vzzetink. It strengthens and lavigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintenances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended. Yours trily,

I have faithfully tried most of the popular remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of, the most skilling lipyticians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incurable. This was my condition when I was advised by a friend to try the Vzurtura, and I could see the good effects from the first deer I took, and from that moment I kept on improving until I was entirely cared, taking in all. I should think, about six bottles.

It is indeed a valvable medicing and I I should be afflicted grain in the same ware.

PRONOUNCED INCURABLE,

It is indeed a valuable medicine and if I should be afficted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a doze, if I could not get it without.

Lat Summer I was, from some cause, weak in my spine and kidneys, and it was at times very haad to retain the urine. Seeing your advertisement in the Commercial. I bought a bottle of VEGETINE, and commenced using according to directions. In two or three days I obtained great relief. After using tour or five bottles I noticed it had wouderial effect on the rough, scaly blotches on my body and legs. I still used vaorations and the bumorous sores one after another disappeared antil they were all gone, and I attribute the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing of the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing of the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing of the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing the cure of the F Bronson
