

Farm and Household.

Set the Hens. Early chickens pay the best because you can get more money for less bread...

Much corn lies under the straw that is not seen. Wherever a fire has been you will find the ashes.

Moral Gems. Ignorance has no light; error follows a false one. Pleasures come like oxen, and go away like post-horses.

Those who know the least of others think the most of themselves. A man in earnest finds means; or, if he cannot find, creates them.

It is better to learn lessons in love, for the cold wind from penetrating, and they were hungry, as it took time to set them at liberty...

There are truths that apply to all soils. But there are also—and they are many—that differ according to locality.
