at 116. Homer intimates this week that he is not the candidate for Judge in the Democratic ring, but that it is J. B. McColfor if the ring can't have Homer, McCol something to say about it.

In fixing the salary of courty superintendent of common schools the school directors of M'Kean county have abused the option reposed in them by the law and made the salary in that county $2,000.— M'Kcan is one of the most sparsely settled counties in the state, where the labors of the county superintendent are restricted to a comparatively small number of schools and the salary should bear some proportion to the work to be done.

A party in the Republican lately from the "senate chamber," who calls himself "De-pot," or any other vessel, says "it is enough to make a sick dog laugh" to read the DEMOCRAT these days. Well, he is right. The "sick dogs" of the rank and file of the Republican party are laughing at the truthful exposure of the "clique" but the "sick dogs" of the "Court House Ring" seem to howl, on account ot their sure heads and ears.

It must be perplexing indeed to the "Court House Ring" that while they are attempting to defend against the DEMO-CRAT, they should also receive hot shot from their own organ like the following from "Paxon" in the last issue.

I repeat, the delegates should not be controlled by old office-holders. Combinations, should be broken down by a con vention composed of independent who will make a ticket for the good of the party more than for the candidate: It is not right or just that one section or one set of men, should receive all the benefits of office.

How does that seem to "Ring?"

We heard an old hunter say that he had many a time loaded up a musket nearly to the muzzle with double "B" shot and fired it into a flock of pigeons where they completely covered the ground and rejoiced to see the feathers fly and the dead carcasses lie around after the smoke had cleared away, but he never saw such fluttering in all his life as that of the "Court House Ring" in the organ this week, from the effects of the few discharges of the old flint-lock carbine of the DEMOCRAT. He advises us, for the good of the masses of this county, to "pick our flint and try 'em again,"

In this state it has been held that the benalty for usury, as against national banks, is that prescribed by the national which has been tried in the court of appeals, it is decided that a national bank, when it lends money to a customer, does the act in its private capacity, and the loan being thus a private transaction between the bank and its dealer, there is no ground on which to set up any claim to exemption from state law. The usury laws of the state of New York apply to all loans made by national banks within its limits, and the usury provisions of the national bank act can have force in those states only where there is no usury law enacted by the state government,

Amongst more than 50,000 striking miners it would be strange if there were not some fools and desperadors. These commit outrages and then the whole body is blamed. On this point the Harrisburg Patriot remarks in a very sensible way: The news from the mining regions shows that some desperate men are doing their best to bring discredit upon the whole body of miners by flagrant outrages upon persons and property. These occurances are telegraphed far and wide, and read by thousands who never give a moment's consideration to the fact that a patient and enduring army of fifty thousand men, who are out of employment, and some of them out of bread, takes no part in these vile demonstrations. It is to be hoped the miners' organiza2 tions will do their utmost to defend the reputation they have obtained by their assisting to bring all marauders to jus-

But while we are on "the ragged edge" of remorse for our transgressions, we are unable to see how this will relieve the "Court House Ring" from its sina. It simply exposes a second ring and doubles the necessity and responsibility of the masses to increase their vigilance and put them both down.
