What Has Happened?

We have a right to rejoice over the result of the election in this county on Tuesday November second. We do not rejoite as a sectarian partizan, neither do we claim the victory strictly as a partizan victory, for it was impossible for 3.-500 Democrats to out vote 4,500 Republicaus but for the aid of the tearless, honest, and independent voters of the latter party, who dured to swell the columns of Democratic reform by their votes and their influence. Neither can the Demcorney of old Susquehanna be robbed of the honor as the pioneers of Retrenchment and Reform in the Keystone State, by first putting in practice every fea-able principle of retrenchment that could be reached by them under Radical legislation, and this, together with the exposure of Ring management through the columos of the DEMOCRAT, has brought the masses to our support, and right, in a good measure, has triumphed under the Democratic banner, a credit both to Republicans and Democrats, who enlisted under its folds. This is the true field for opposition parties to labor in and upon this principle. Republican institutions shall be mantained if minority parties shall he placed in the majority when cor ruption is abroad in the dominent ranks

PENNSYLVANIA.

The election in the state of Pennsylva nia has gone Republican by about 10,000 majority on governor, and Rawle, state Trensurer, is elected by a much less major ity, Col. Piollet running largely ahead of Pershing. We are not among those journalists who are attempting at the present time to excuse or account for this defeat and charge it upon "Rag bubics" or any other babies, but we simply accept the result because the majority of the viters of this old commonwealth have so decided, and the only "babies" that we now recognize are those who are now crying for "spilled milk" and attempting to criminate some one because their dish is overturned. - Those who have acted houestly in the matter, have nothing to be ashumed of and those who acted dishoncestly ought to have been descated if they majority. It is as easy for newspaper philosophers to now explain why we are defeated in this state and Ohio, as it used to be for "cornfield" generals in the late war to tell after the liattle just how we were ratic candidate for Treasurer, is whipped, and these same journals displayed just as much pluck before election by keeping at a sale distance from an opinion, so as to be able to take either norn afterward, as those, "cornfield" generuls did in keeping from the front of the army. These "I told you so" men and journals may be useful but we confess that we are at a dead loss to sum up their usefulness. We prefer the man who. when he finds that he has made a mistake honestly goes to work to rectify it. to ten others who sour up things by their everlasting "I told you so."

John F. Hartranft is reelected and were that all, we should not feel like entering any very great complaint, but that the "Mackey Ring," who have been plundering and debauching the people's treasury and prostituting its use to retain power, should have obtained another lease of power, is lamentable, and no more so to us than to every taxpayer in the commonwealth, Republican as well as Democrate We fought John F.
