

The Montrose Democrat.

HAWLEY & CRUSER, Editors and Proprietors.

"Stand by the Right though the Heavens fall!"

TERMS—Two Dollars Per Year in Advance.

VOLUME 32.

MONTROSE, SUSQA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1875.

NUMBER 47.

Montrose Democrat

Published every Wednesday morning.
At Montrose, Susquehanna County, Pa.
Office—West side of Public Avenue.

Contains all the Local and General News, Poetry, Stories, Anecdotes, Miscellaneous Reading, Correspondence, and a reliable class advertisement.

Advertising Rates:
One square (10 lines) for one week, or less, 10 cents. For one month, $1.00. For three months, $2.50. For six months, $4.50. For one year, $8.00. A liberal discount on advertisements of a long term.

FINE JOB PRINTING
SPECIALTY!
Quick Work—Try Us.
E. B. HAWLEY, WM. C. CRUSER.

Business Cards.
H. D. BALDWIN, M. D.
HOMOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, has located himself at Montrose, where he will practice his profession in connection with the late Dr. J. H. Baldwin's office.

LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE.
W. W. WATSON, Attorney at Law, Montrose, Pa.
Special Attention Given to the Collection of Accounts, and to the Enforcement of Judgments, and to the Prosecution of Suits.

DR. H. W. SMITH,
Dentist, has removed his office from Dr. J. H. Baldwin's office to the corner of the Public Avenue and the Hotel Building.

TALLEY HOUSE.
GREAT BEND, PA. Situated near the Erie Railway Depot, is a large and commodious house, has undergone a thorough repair, and is now ready to receive guests.

THE PEOPLE'S MARKET.
FRESH AND DRY GOODS, Groceries, and other articles of the season, constantly on hand, at prices to suit the times.

BILLINGSBROOK.
FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE AGENT. Also Real Estate Broker, and Guarantor of Mortgages.

CHARLEY MOHRIS
Has moved his shop to the building opposite to the Hotel Building, where he will continue to receive his customers.

EDGAR A. TURRELL,
No. 170 Broadway, New York City.
May 12, '75. (Feb. 11, 1874-75.)

LITTLE & BLANKENBEE,
Attorneys at Law, Montrose, Pa.
Office, opposite the Hotel Building.

W. B. DEANE,
Dealer in Books, Stationery, Wall Paper, News papers, Pocket Cutlery, Stereoscopic Views, Yankee Notions, etc.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.
N. J. BARRINGTON, Proprietor, has moved his hotel to the Exchange Hotel building in Montrose.

H. BURRITT,
Dealer in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Crockery, Hardware, Iron, Stoves, Druggs, Oils, and Paints, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Trunks, and other articles.

JOHN GROVES,
FASHIONABLE TAILOR, Pa. Shop over Chamber's Store. All orders filled in first-class style.

DR. D. A. LATHROP,
Dentist, has removed his office to the corner of the Public Avenue and the Hotel Building.

LEWIS KENOLL,
SHAVING AND HAIR DRESSING.
Shop in the new Postoffice building, where he will continue to receive his customers.

CHARLES N. STODDARD,
Dealer in Books, Stationery, and other articles.

DR. W. L. RICHARDSON,
Physician and Surgeon, has moved his office to the corner of the Public Avenue and the Hotel Building.

SCOVILL & DEWITT,
Attorneys at Law, Montrose, Pa.
Office, opposite the Hotel Building.

EAGLE DRUG STORE,
A. B. BURNS, Proprietor, has moved his store to the corner of the Public Avenue and the Hotel Building.

M. L. LYON,
Successor to Abel Turrell, dealer in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Oils, Druggs, Teas, Spices, etc.

L. F. FITCH,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office over C. H. House, Montrose, Pa.
Office, opposite the Hotel Building.

A. G. WARREN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office over C. H. House, Montrose, Pa.
Office, opposite the Hotel Building.

W. A. CROSSON,
Attorney at Law, Office at the C. H. House, in the Montrose, Pa.
Office, opposite the Hotel Building.

WILSON J. TUBBIE,
SURVEYOR, having had 30 years experience in the profession, will continue to receive his customers.

County Business Directory.

Twelve in this Directory, one year, $1.50; each additional line, 50 cents.

MONTROSE.
WM. HAUGHWORTH, Slater, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in all kinds of Groceries, etc.

NEW MILFORD.
SAYINGS BANK, NEW MILFORD, Pa. per cent. interest on deposits. Does a general business.

GREAT BEND.
H. W. DORAN, Merchant Tailor and dealer in Ready-made Clothing, Dry Goods, Groceries and Provision.

Banking, Etc.

BANKING HOUSE
OF
WM. H. COOPER & CO.,
MONTROSE, PA.

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS DONE.
COLLECTIONS MADE ON ALL PARTS AND PROMPTLY ACCOUNTED FOR AS HERETOFORE.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE FOR SALE.

UNITED STATES & OTHER BONDS BOUGHT AND SOLD.

COUPONS AND CITY AND COUNTY BANK CHECKS CASHED AS USUAL.

OCEAN STEAMER PASSAGE TICKETS TO AND FROM EUROPE.

INTEREST ALLOWED ON SPECIAL TIME DEPOSITS, AS PER AGREEMENT WHEN THE DEPOSIT IS MADE.

WM. H. COOPER & CO.,
Montrose, March 10 '75. Bankers.

Authorized Capital, $500,000.00
Present Capital, 100,000.00

FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
MONTROSE, PA.

WILLIAM J. TURRELL, President.
D. D. SEAR, Vice President.
N. L. LENHEIM, Cashier.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

W. M. J. TULL, D. D. SEAR, G. B. EDWARDS, A. B. BENTLEY, A. J. GERRITSON,
Directors.

Select Poetry.

A DEED AND A WORD.
BY CHARLES MACKAY.
A little spring had lost its way
Among the grass and fern,
And passing stirrings scooped it well,
Where steady rain might turn it
He walled it in, and hung with care
A lidle at the brink;
He thought not of the deed he did,
But judged that toll might drink.
He passed again, and lo! the well,
The summer never dried,
The cooled ten thousand parched tongues,
And saved a life beside.

DIVORCE.
BY GEORGE EDGAR MONTROSE.
The law has spoken,
The law is broken,
And men have hearkened its stern decree;
The great world wondered:
"No more!" he said, "I have known them
Two streams have flowed to the union sea.
The past is in ashes,
And memory doth weep;
The hours that were born with the birth
Of the years;
Life's dream is extinguished,
Love's lamp is extinguished,
The future is laden with curses and tears.

Selected Story.
A THANKSGIVING STORY.
It was the evening before Thanksgiving.
The sun had gone down behind the hills of Greenville leaving them cold and bare against the dull sky. The equine cracks, cracking out for their Thanksgiving dinner.
The trees ward their tall, bare branches in the bitter cold, but they knew that their roots were sheltered by the kind earth. The cold winter wind whistled merrily over the frozen ground, as he rushed over the frozen ground.
He raced over the bare hills; the squirrels drew closer together, and exulted in their crowded storehouses; the trees bowed their heads to the wind as he whistled away; but he calmed down as he met a little figure on the frozen road, and gave her time to draw her faded cloak tighter over her blue hands, before he rushed on again.
"That's a sharp traveler!" half laughed the policeman, under his breath. "This sort of thing is going on here all the time. Nothing is safe for a moment."
The little figure stopped, and she turned to the policeman, who was standing in front of her. "Why, there's lots of Marys," said the child.
"Yes, I know," he said, "I had a little Mary last Thanksgiving. I don't like to see any named Mary in trouble."
"I can't cry," she said, "I'm in trouble, but I can't cry. I ought to be in trouble, but I can't cry," said the child smiling.

THE SNUFF-COLORED SUIT.
I scarcely knew how it happened, but a snuff-colored suit had struck me on the head.
The first thing that I realized after it was that I was straight and still on something hard, and when I tried to move I felt as if I had a great weight upon me. I lay there for some time, not knowing where I was, and I felt as if I had a great weight upon me. I lay there for some time, not knowing where I was, and I felt as if I had a great weight upon me.

Home Reading.
THE TRANSCIENT GUEST.
AN ANECDOTE.
Once to a peasant's cottage came
A beautiful, young, shining frame
And joyous features, angel bright,
Seen to the peasant's dazzled sight
Some being of celestial birth,
Come down to bless the sons of earth,
Blissed by her presence there,
All things around her bright and fair;
Nay, to the man's enchanted view
His very hair a palace grew;
And he—was in a royal hall—
Moved like a monarch, lord of all!
On some mysterious errand bent,
The wondrous being came and went
As by duty or caprice;
Soon she entered all was peace;
Her presence there, however brief,
Was sure to banish care and grief;
When she came, by day or night,
The peasant's soul was all delight;
When she went, what a gloom!
"O hide with me, thou beautiful maid!"
(Thus on his knees the peasant prayed)
"When thou art here the moments pass
Full joyfully; but when I see
Thou art gone, my heart is all in pain
Return to me my snuff-colored suit!"

THE LOWER DRAWER.
I never like to be about when my wife views the contents of the Lower Drawer.
We have something put away there which is very dear to both of us, and although I have never seen them since they were laid aside, I remember every article.
There are two worn shoes—very small—yet I had planned great journeys for those tiny feet—a number of dainty dresses—a little hood and so many more things, all picked away with my wife's tears in the Lower Drawer.
There is something gone to us from our home which can never return to us. There is a child, his young ones hushed which I long to hear. I want some one to love me for my wife. I want a little child to love me for my wife. I want a child's eyes to look up lovingly at me. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.
The public meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Montrose was held in the Baptist church on Friday evening, November 19th, 1875.
The Rev. A. J. Post, the President of the Union, after the opening exercises, gave an interesting report on the State Convention held at Williamsport on the 19th and 20th of October. Mrs. Weston of Brooklyn, gave some exceedingly interesting and appropriate readings, which were listened to by a very large and highly appreciative audience. Mrs. Weeks, of Montrose, read a very thrilling account from a recent number of the New York Observer, of the resignation of a clergyman who had fallen a victim to the habit of intemperance, and had been driven to the verge of total ruin by the use of alcohol.

Home Reading.

THE TRANSCIENT GUEST.
AN ANECDOTE.
Once to a peasant's cottage came
A beautiful, young, shining frame
And joyous features, angel bright,
Seen to the peasant's dazzled sight
Some being of celestial birth,
Come down to bless the sons of earth,
Blissed by her presence there,
All things around her bright and fair;
Nay, to the man's enchanted view
His very hair a palace grew;
And he—was in a royal hall—
Moved like a monarch, lord of all!
On some mysterious errand bent,
The wondrous being came and went
As by duty or caprice;
Soon she entered all was peace;
Her presence there, however brief,
Was sure to banish care and grief;
When she came, by day or night,
The peasant's soul was all delight;
When she went, what a gloom!
"O hide with me, thou beautiful maid!"
(Thus on his knees the peasant prayed)
"When thou art here the moments pass
Full joyfully; but when I see
Thou art gone, my heart is all in pain
Return to me my snuff-colored suit!"

THE LOWER DRAWER.
I never like to be about when my wife views the contents of the Lower Drawer.
We have something put away there which is very dear to both of us, and although I have never seen them since they were laid aside, I remember every article.
There are two worn shoes—very small—yet I had planned great journeys for those tiny feet—a number of dainty dresses—a little hood and so many more things, all picked away with my wife's tears in the Lower Drawer.
There is something gone to us from our home which can never return to us. There is a child, his young ones hushed which I long to hear. I want some one to love me for my wife. I want a little child to love me for my wife. I want a child's eyes to look up lovingly at me. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.
The public meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Montrose was held in the Baptist church on Friday evening, November 19th, 1875.
The Rev. A. J. Post, the President of the Union, after the opening exercises, gave an interesting report on the State Convention held at Williamsport on the 19th and 20th of October. Mrs. Weston of Brooklyn, gave some exceedingly interesting and appropriate readings, which were listened to by a very large and highly appreciative audience. Mrs. Weeks, of Montrose, read a very thrilling account from a recent number of the New York Observer, of the resignation of a clergyman who had fallen a victim to the habit of intemperance, and had been driven to the verge of total ruin by the use of alcohol.

Home Reading.
THE TRANSCIENT GUEST.
AN ANECDOTE.
Once to a peasant's cottage came
A beautiful, young, shining frame
And joyous features, angel bright,
Seen to the peasant's dazzled sight
Some being of celestial birth,
Come down to bless the sons of earth,
Blissed by her presence there,
All things around her bright and fair;
Nay, to the man's enchanted view
His very hair a palace grew;
And he—was in a royal hall—
Moved like a monarch, lord of all!
On some mysterious errand bent,
The wondrous being came and went
As by duty or caprice;
Soon she entered all was peace;
Her presence there, however brief,
Was sure to banish care and grief;
When she came, by day or night,
The peasant's soul was all delight;
When she went, what a gloom!
"O hide with me, thou beautiful maid!"
(Thus on his knees the peasant prayed)
"When thou art here the moments pass
Full joyfully; but when I see
Thou art gone, my heart is all in pain
Return to me my snuff-colored suit!"

THE LOWER DRAWER.
I never like to be about when my wife views the contents of the Lower Drawer.
We have something put away there which is very dear to both of us, and although I have never seen them since they were laid aside, I remember every article.
There are two worn shoes—very small—yet I had planned great journeys for those tiny feet—a number of dainty dresses—a little hood and so many more things, all picked away with my wife's tears in the Lower Drawer.
There is something gone to us from our home which can never return to us. There is a child, his young ones hushed which I long to hear. I want some one to love me for my wife. I want a little child to love me for my wife. I want a child's eyes to look up lovingly at me. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face. I want to hear a child's voice, and to see a child's face.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.
The public meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Montrose was held in the Baptist church on Friday evening, November 19th, 1875.
The Rev. A. J. Post, the President of the Union, after the opening exercises, gave an interesting report on the State Convention held at Williamsport on the 19th and 20th of October. Mrs. Weston of Brooklyn, gave some exceedingly interesting and appropriate readings, which were listened to by a very large and highly appreciative audience. Mrs. Weeks, of Montrose, read a very thrilling account from a recent number of the New York Observer, of the resignation of a clergyman who had fallen a victim to the habit of intemperance, and had been driven to the verge of total ruin by the use of alcohol.

Home Reading.
THE TRANSCIENT GUEST.
AN ANECDOTE.
Once to a peasant's cottage came
A beautiful, young, shining frame
And joyous features, angel bright,
Seen to the peasant's dazzled sight
Some being of celestial birth,
Come down to bless the sons of earth,
Blissed by her presence there,
All things around her bright and fair;
Nay, to the man's enchanted view
His very hair a palace grew;
And he—was in a royal hall—
Moved like a monarch, lord of all!
On some mysterious errand bent,
The wondrous being came and went
As by duty or caprice;
Soon she entered all was peace;
Her presence there, however brief,
Was sure to banish care and grief;
When she came, by day or night,
The peasant's soul was all delight;
When she went, what a gloom!
"O hide with me, thou beautiful maid!"
(Thus on his knees the peasant prayed)
"When thou art here the moments pass
Full joyfully; but when I see
Thou art gone, my heart is all in pain
Return to me my snuff-colored suit!"