

We refer our readers to this week's Democrat for a striking pictorial illustration of its dirty, lying editor running after his "Patterson Cook." Her name is thought to be, Bartle.

If you want to see a lot of pleasant, cheerful, jolly, jovial, jubilant fellows go to the three Democratic lawyer's offices in town, and to the Democrat printing office; Old Jake and the Doctor are laughing at the time, and there has been a smile playing on Doty's countenance as radiant as a sunbeam ever since the election.

THANKSGIVING.—Governor A. G. Curtin has appointed Thursday, 24th inst. as day of thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the numerous blessings bestowed upon us as a people, during the past year. It is hoped that the day will be properly observed by the citizens of Pennsylvania. Let all business be suspended, in order that all the people may assemble in their respective places of worship, and return thanks.

PASTORAL OFFENSE.—Not content with their dirty scandalous outrage on George Francis Train in Patterson on Monday, the Democrats on that night went to Red Bank School House where Prof. David Wilson was speaking, and cut the reins of his horse and those of two others and turned them loose. When the copperheads heard that Wilson was to speak, they got up a meeting to keep their men away—and as they returned some of them did the dastardly, devilish mean trick mentioned above. We presume the devils thought that one of the horses belonged to the Senior Editor, as he was announced to speak; thus showing what infernal enmities they were.

The skunk in the Democrat Office. The dirty, lying, hypocritical, leech, sycophant, cowardly skunk who figures as the fifth-and-lar Editor of the Democrat sneaking under the influence of the awful defeat of his favorite coward Gauz host General, comes out this week in his stinking, rotten paper, in the capacity of one of the "Patterson Cooks," and in this cowardly, dastardly, skulking manner tries to let off his post-political mortification and personal spleen by charging us with "fornication" while at Gettysburg and with being dismissed from our last pastoral charge for too much familiarity with cooks. We pronounce these charges as FALSE and UNTRUE in every particular, and the mean, dirty, low-lived, scoundrel who wrote them, and who has been guilty of more low drunkenness and debauchery, taking silly women into the bridge at night, and sleeping with negro wenches in his own wife's bed, stealing, lying, begging whiskey, reforming and backsliding, a meaner leech, rascal and libertine than any man in town, is, and he knows it full well as black and infernal a liar, as ever obtained his filthy earnings into decent society or blackguard respectable families.

We resigned our last charge of our own free will and accord and any man that asserts that we were dismissed is as unmitigated, unwarranted liar as anywhere walks undaunted above ground. No power could ever have forced us to resign, and why we did so is no body's business. But we are not ashamed of the reason—it was just because the principal congregation was chiefly officered and controlled by just such wretched hypocrites as the filthy, editor, who loves to hear slavery and rebellion commended in the pulpit and object to prayers for the Union, the President and our soldiers.—God has cursed that congregation—contumacious, repeated pastoral changes, smaller audiences, and the loss of the base and ruin of church from the time we left to this day.

The Sentinel said nothing about "Patterson Cooks." It said the Patterson women were accompanied with a few cooks from this town. And we leave it to all decency whether, a set of women who will parade the streets at a late hour, calling the citizens "niggers" as they pass by, are not deserving ten fold more than they get? Had the Union ladies dared to do so unholily-like a trick, they would have been branded by this adamant dirt-eater with all the power of his Billingsgate.

The threat of a "raw-hiding from one of the Patterson Cooks," shows that he would incite others to do what the dirty coward has neither the courage, manliness, honor or ability to do himself. No man or other creature, who was not a blatant coward would ever spread such an assertion before the public. We court no personal encounter, but we do recognize the right of self-defence. We have been way-laid, stoned in the bridge, assaulted and insulted by just such cowards as this Editor, and always found rapid skedaddling when they were made conscious of danger.

If the filthy beast is not satisfied with this, and assaults our personal character again, we will skin and dissect him from crown to foot. We regret that necessity compels this notice, but some things can be done as well as others.

The People's Edition of the Chicago Platform. Resolved, That it is explicitly declared as the sense of the American People, that after four years of failure to destroy the Union by the experiment of war against the Administration and Government, waged by the Democratic party, during which time under the pretense of Democracy, Union and State's Rights, the Rebels have been aided and encouraged, justice, humanity liberty, and the public weal demand an immediate cessation of our hostilities, with a view to a return to the principles of pure patriotism and common decency, to the end that at the earliest practicable moment the old Democratic party, which has just been pretty well wiped out, may regain some of its former character and the Union be saved.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—Owing to the inability of the Senior Editor to attend to his duties, being principally confined to his house by an attack of pleurisy and general nervous exhaustion, and owing to a press of job work, and the unusual lateness at which we go to press this week no paper will be issued from this office next week. We will however, publish an humorous, illustrated sheet in regard to the election. Extra copies can be had if orders are sent early. Price 5 cents free to subscribers.

RETURNED.—We were pleased to see in our return the other day that faithful Union soldier JOB SHINNE of Co. I, 53rd.—His time has expired having served over three years. He returns pretty well cured of democracy alias copperheadism. He resides at Peru Mills.

We were pleased also to see JOHN QUAY of Co. F 16th Pa. Cavalry. He is home on sick leave.

The Result. We are enabled briefly to state that the indications are that Honest Father Alabama has carried every State except Kentucky, Delaware and New Jersey.

McClellan is the worst licked man that ever run for President. An Irishman who spent several years in the South as a laborer but made his escape North since the war, says he worked for months by the side of "nagurs" but never knew the democratic party was opposed to the like till he came North, for in the South men have to work side by side with "nagurs" whether they like it or not. James O'Nare, the man alluded to, now resides in Grant county; and having seen the "nagur" and rebel democracy as they together flourish in the South, he supports the union party in view of working among free men instead of slaves, black or white. He says that in the South no difference is made between black and white laborers, only that the blacks are better cared for than whites for the reason that "nagurs" sell for more. If a younger man James says he would be in the union army to help whip the cursed overseers that used to drive him from sun up to sun down.

The latest accounts put Price near Carriage, Jasper County, Mo., still adding, with our cavalry hotly pursuing. Pleasanton was slightly injured by a fall from his horse.

One of our government officials just returned from Peru, tells us that among the first and most frequent inquiries made of him there about our public men, whether he knew or had ever seen the celebrated American Chemist, Dr. J. C. Ayer of Lowell. His remedies are found in every village from the elevated foci of the Andes down to the coast, and their remarkable cures seem to attract even more attention there than in this country.

The sentiment of wonder at their effects, takes a far deeper hold on a half civilized and superstitious people than it does with us where the rational of medical problems is so much more generally understood. No other American has made himself so familiarly known to the masses of the people in foreign countries or excited in them so lively an interest in him self as the Doctor has by his skillful application of chemical science to the treatment of disease.

That must be a dull man who does not feel some pride of country when he finds among distant nations that he is already known and welcome there, through the labors of our Statesmen, Merchants and Scholars, whose renown has become national property, and consequently in some measure his own. Whether Dr. Ayer's remedies do actually cure more than others or not, they have secured the reputation of being a God-send to those afflicted with disease, and where great numbers in any community believe that they owe their health and lives to one's skill, they are sure to feel an interest in him which will not express when they meet his countrymen.—National Era, Washington, D. C.

Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry. No general has the use of this remedy become, and so popular is it everywhere, that it is unnecessary of reciting its virtues. Its work, speaks for it, and find utterance in the abundant and voluntary testimony of the many who from long suffering and self-doubt have by its use been restored to their vigor and health. We can present a mass of evidence in proof of our assertion, that CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler, Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted: HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859. Dear Sir:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have also been benefited by it. JACOB SECHLER, President of the Morris County Bank, Morris-town, New Jersey.

From Jessie Smith, Esq., President of the Morris County Bank, Morris-town, New Jersey. "Having used Dr. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for about fifteen years, and having realized its beneficial effects in my family, it affords me great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a valuable remedy in cases of weak lungs, colds, coughs, &c., and a remedy which I consider entirely innocent, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate in health."

From Hon. John E. Smith, distinguished Lawyer in Westminster, Md. At several occasions used Dr. WISTER'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for severe colds, and always with decided benefit. I know of no preparation that is more efficacious or more deserving of general use. The Balsam has also been used with excellent effect by J. E. ELLIOT, Merchants, Hall's Cross Roads, Md.

Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills. This is to certify that I have suffered for ten years that dreadful complaint called dyspepsia. I suffered much pain and distress, with gloom and depression of spirits; I was treated by eight different physicians for my complaints and at times much better, but then the old disease, dyspepsia, would return with all its dread realities, and my whole system was fast wasting away. In this sick and debilitated state, I was handed a circular of Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills, and Wistar Tree Tar Cordial, which gave a correct description of my sufferings, and I determined to place myself under the Doctor's care, and take his medicines. As soon as I commenced the use of the medicine, I began to get better, and in five or six months, at which time I was perfectly restored to health, I am to-day a well man. Dr. Wishart, I give you this certificate with a grateful heart for the benefit I have received from the use of your truly wonderful medicines. May God bless you and preserve your truly useful life for many years. I would say to every sick person who is suffering as I was, that my residence is No. 189 Richmond street, Philadelphia, where I will take great delight in giving testimony to the great power of Dr. Wishart's medicines to cure. F. H. ALLEN, PREPARED BY Dr. L. Q. C. Wishart, No. 10 North Second Street, Philadelphia. Sold by all druggists.
