A STORY.—We are indebted to Cyrus Morrison for a copy of the Palmetto Herald published in Port Royal, S. C., for which we have taken the interesting story published on our first page.

HOME.—We were pleased to see the friendly countenance and patriotic face of Ferdinand Rohm, of Co. F 16th Cavalry in our sanctum the other day. We wish him lots of enjoyment during his brief furlough.

CORRECT THE ENROLLMENT.—The enrollment in many towns is by far too large, and the draft will be unmerciful unless corrections are made. The following classes should be stricken off:

Dead men,
Men in the service,
Non-residents,
Those who have served two years,
All drafted in 1863 who paid $300,
Those under 20 years of age,
Those over 45,
Aliens,
Those having manifest disability.

Many are enrolled twice or more, and some are not enrolled at all. These ought to be corrected. Every town should have public meetings to examine its list of the names enrolled, to detect the errors and frauds.

A QUEER CASE.—The Altoona Tribune says it has the names of a reliable authority for the following:

It appears that with one of the companies organized in this place, (for the nine months service) in the summer of 1862, went a man who left a wife and small family. On the bloody field of Antietam he fell, was buried, and his wife afterwards had his body disinterred, brought home and re-interred in the soldiers' lot in the Cemetery. A year afterwards she married again, and in due time a child was born, the fruit of the second marriage. When the call for 500,000 troops was being filled up, last fall, the second husband enlisted and is now in the army. A short time since, the first husband returned, alive and well, having been taken prisoner at Antietam instead of being killed. He had been held by the Rebels until the late exchange at Savannah. Of course the parties are in a queer fix; but all will agree that the soldier who was once killed twice buried, started two years in Rebel prisons, and yet came home alive, is certainly entitled to his wife. "Truth is stranger than fiction." The query is, "who was buried in the Cemetery?"

CARELESS WRITING.—We note from the recent report of the Postmaster General, an extraordinary amount of carelessness on the part of the letter writing community. Three million five hundred and eight thousand were received of dead letters during the last year; many of which contained money, leads, checks, jewelry and other valuables. Some of them were misdirected, others not directed at all, others unstamped and others only partially directed. Thousands of these were returned to the writers, but the great majority were destroyed. These facts should teach the public to be more careful in their correspondence; for the amount of suspense and suffering occasioned by these lost letters is incalculable; and officials are censured where the fault rests with the authors.

We again solicit our friends to furnish local news for our columns from all parts of the county. Those who have kindly favored us in this particular have our thanks. Hope they will continue to do so. Let others do likewise. Those interested in reading local items can greatly aid us in this department by taking a little pains.

HOUSE BURNED.—We regret to learn that the dwelling house of Michael Stoner of Fernmanagh township about one mile from town was totally consumed by fire on Thursday morning last. Mr. Stoner was absent from home, and the fire was discovered by his wife about three o'clock in the morning. It had commenced in a shop adjoining the house. The neighbors were aroused but it was too late to arrest the flames. They however succeeded in saving a good portion of the clothing and some of the furniture. Mrs. Stoner was badly injured during the efforts to save some of the goods. The loss is heavy amounting to about $2,000—and no insurance. How the fire originated is involved in mystery. We sympathize with Mr. Stoner and his lady in the sudden loss of the earnings of years. Fire is very good to burn brush, cook dinner, and to keep us warm in winter; but is very dangerous and destructive when in control. The people can not too carefully guard against dangers arising from its use. Dirty chimneys, live coals in refuse ashes sparks and matches falling among matter ignitable should all be carefully watched.

THE duty on Whiskey since the 1st instant, is two dollars per gallon. At this price, whiskey drinking must be an expensive luxury, but still, something will be sold that is called Whiskey, though it be nothing less than liquid poison, even in comparison with the old stuff that was known by that name.

WAR NEWS.

MEMPHIS, Jan. 3.

VIA CAIRO, Jan. 6.

Gen. Dana has received information from his cavalry force, sent out from here on the 12th of December, that they struck the Mobile and Ohio Railroad 50 miles below Corinth, and had, on the 27th, utterly destroyed it to below Okolona.

Twenty-nine bridges, a great deal of freight work, 52 railroad cars, 300 army wagons and 4,000 carriages, were destroyed.

Forrest's camp of dismounted men at Everona was dispersed, six officers and 20 men were captured.

The expedition did not lose a man.

General Grierson has orders to destroy the road as far as Meridian, and release our prisoners at Catwba, if possible.
