PREMIUM LIST.—The premium list for the Agricultural Fair will appear next week.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—We call attention again to the valuable farm for sale in Milford township, by Wm. R. Homery. Now is the chance for a fine farm.

SADDLERY.—Capt. Cornelius McClellan having returned from the army has again opened out in the Saddle and Harness Business. He is prepared to make and mend and do his work in the very best manner. Call upon him and examine his work.

RUN OFF.—We had our first experience in a rail road accident last week up near Scranton. The car we were in run some 50 yards on the ties and gave us some 'rough staging.' Some were terribly frightened, nobody was hurt, but all glad to get off so well. One man refused us by pulling the bell rope, about the time the cars stopped, as if the engineer did not know what was up. A half grown girl stood in the aisle for several minutes after the train stopped, quaking with tremor and yelling most violently, 'Oh, where's my carpet bag?'

SNYDER'S BEARS.—We dropt into Kunkel's Celebrated Drug Store in Harrisburg the other day, when our young friend Kunkel, who purchased Snyder's Bears some months ago, made us a present with a bottle of the real, genuine, simon-pure 'Bear's Oil.' It is almost impossible to find real bear's oil in market, so that if any one wishes a good article let them send to Kunkel's for it. It is a very different article from 'the scented extract of fish' usually sold under the same name.

'SOLD'—The other day when Bailey's circus was performing at Lewisburg, the constable of that town arrested Mr. Melville, who personated 'Pete Jenkins,' when that individual entered the ring. The constable believed him to be a real drunkard, and made the arrest to prevent a disturbance of the performance! This circus company had considerable trouble to convince the officer that he had arrested one of their own men while in the performance of his duties as 'Pete Jenkins.'

IMPUDENT.—One of the most decidedly impudent dogs we ever met, stepped across our path at Downingtown last week, as we were going to the city to a meeting of the State Central Committee. When the cars stopped we went into the eating room, got a cup of coffee, put in the sugar and cream we wished, lifted it off the counter, when some loquacious boor took hold of it declaring it was his—of course we did not give up, but were sorry afterwards that we did not throw it into his face and sold teach him a lesson in manners.

SOLD OUT.—We are sorry that our friend Burnie has sold out his Photograph Gallery in Harrisburg. But we are glad that the new firm have secured Reuben T. Applebaugh to continue as chief Clerk. No picture establishment in the land ever enjoyed a better reputation or rose more rapidly in public favor. It rose from a small concern to a rival of all the others put together. It enjoyed a large patronage along the Juniata Valley which is due to the cleverness of Professor Applebaugh as much as to the very superior pictures furnished by him.

The Sale of Government Mules in Philadelphia, will be suspended, until Wednesday, Sept. 20, on which day, and every Wednesday and Saturday thereafter, until further notice. The Sale of 100 mules each of these will be continued.

COURT.—A postponement of the two cases against the Pa. R. R. Co. and the one against Jas. North was curtailed what was considered a big Court. Our people have been favorably impressed with Judge Fisher of York who presided during the sickness of Graham. In consequence some people have been amused at some things.

HORSE THIEF GOBBLED UP.—A young man by the name of Jacob Irwin Marks, of Juniata county, stole a horse and buggy in Cumberland county, brought them to Shamokin Dam, and sold the horse to John Wendt and the buggy to Mr. Kerstetter. He has been arrested and taken to Carlisle for trial.

The apple crop is a failure—will be short. In anticipation of this let every farmer, every fruit grower save all he can! Every apple not kept for winter use, or used in the family should be dried, for they will be in demand, and at high prices. All the aids and substitutes should also be husbanded, to take the place of apples next winter. Bottle, or otherwise put up, all the peaches, pears, and tomatoes you can. They will come in use.

HORSE RUN OFF.—Our young friend James M. Wilson, living above town met with quite an accident on Friday last. He was coming to town on horseback, and when at the red rock above town the beast took fright at a small dog, threw him off, one foot remaining in a stirrup, he was dragged down to the grave yard where 'Sallie Myers' caught the horse, and he then let go the rein which he somehow held all the while and loosened his foot. He was severely cut and bruised about his head, limbs and body. He was carried home where we are glad to say he is rapidly recovering.

WITH THE WOOL ON.—The following receipt is given for tanning sheep skins with the wool on: Take one tablespoonful of alum and two of saltpetre; pulverize well and mix together thoroughly. Sprinkle this powder upon the flesh side of the skin and fold together with the wool out; hang up in a dry place. In two or three days, as soon as dry, take down, scrape the flesh side with a fluted edged knife till clean. This completes the process. Such skins make excellent saddle covers.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE.—Many of our readers remember of seeing the 'Wool Sewing Machine' advertised in the SENTINEL. We are happy to state S. W. McClellan of Harrisburg has an agency for it and has it on exhibition at the Jewelry Store of his brother in this place any persons desiring can call to see it during this week. They are simple in their construction throughout, easily understood, and readily adjusted, being in this respect far superior to any other machine. They Stitch, Hem, Braid, Fell, Cord, Bind and Gather without Basting. They never drop Stitches if the needle is tightly set. We have this machine in our family.

TICKETS BY TELEGRAPH.—We had often heard of the ignorant democrats of Berks County, of their voting for Jackson every year, and letting Clymer lead them by the nose, and we always supposed the stories exaggerated. But we have had reason to change our mind. Last week we tarried at Marysville a few minutes and were in the office talking to Lieut. David Gieb, when a man came in and wanted to send a dispatch and two rail road tickets to Reading by Telegraph. He was an old man and appears to have bought the tickets for some friends before he left home, which friends did not make the train—so he thought he would Telegraph them back. We bet he votes for Jackson, Clymer, and a clean democratic ticket.

RED HEADED JIM BROKE OUT IN A NEW PLACE.—As we were coming down 3rd Street in Harrisburg the other day we saw the letters 'JAMES McCLELLAN' very nicely painted on the sidewalk. We commenced to wonder whether it was our Jim, and concluded to step in and see the color of the head of the establishment. To our surprise we found our friend Holsopple and several other Juniata boys just in the act of lighting their cigars at Jim's flaming red hair. We went in and after having a pleasant chat and a good time generally have this recommendation to make, viz: If any of our readers go to Harrisburg and get hungry (as we always do) let them call around to see Jim in his Saloon on Third Street above Market, opposite the 'Patrol and Union' office, where he keeps the very best of oysters, &c. &c. especially the and so forth.

IN MEMORIAM. WHEREAS, We the members of the Delaware Literary Society, have heard with profound regret, the announce ment that a worthy member of our Society, David Boger, fell a victim to disease in a Southern prison, where the fortunes of war placed him in common with many others of our friends and brothers, and through the mysterious working of an all-wise Providence, we have thereby been called upon to mourn his untimely end.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the afflicting decree of Almighty God, which has deprived us of an earnest and promising member of this society, of one that bid fair for future usefulness, and his relatives of a true and sympathetic friend. Resolved, That we commend the soul which he ever exhibited in the various duties devolving upon him whilst he was a member with us, to our members of to-day as well worthy of their imitation. Resolved, That as a tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the Delaware Literary Society, and copies thereof furnished the Editors of our County papers for publication.

Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills. This is to certify that I have suffered for ten years that dreadful complaint called dyspepsia. I suffered much pain and distress, with gloom and depression of spirits; I was treated by eight different physicians for my complaints and at times was much better, but then the old disease, dyspepsia, would return with all its dreadful facilities, and my whole system was fast wasting away. In this sick and debilitated state, I was handed a circular of Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills, and I tried one for several days, which gave a correct description of my sufferings, and determined to place myself under the Doctor's care, and take his medicines. As soon as I commenced the use of the medicine, I began to get better, and so I continued three months, at which time I was perfectly restored to health, I am to-day a well man. Dr. Wishart, I give you this certificate with a grateful heart for the benefit I have received from the use of your truly wonderful medicine. May God bless you and preserve you! Truly useful life for many years. I would say to every sick person who is suffering as I was, that my residence is No. 139 Richmond street Philadelphia, where I will 'take great delight in giving testimony to the great power of Dr. Wishart's medicines to cure. F. H. ALLEN. Prepared only by the proprietor, Dr. L. Q. C. Wishart, No. 10 North Second Street, Philadelphia Penna Sold by all druggists.
