So at the great Ratification Meeting held in Philadelphia on the same day, Mr. George M. Wharton laid down the received rule of party discipline:

The platform of the Chicago Convention stands before the American people as the political creed of the Democratic Party in the existing crisis of the country. It must necessarily be the rule of practice of every one who accepts a nomination under it.

Mr. Vallandigham himself, the great apostle of a submission peace, in his Day-ton speech of September 7th, said of McClellan:

"Accept him as presented by, and support him to carry out—as I know he will carry out—the doctrines and principles enunciated in that Convention, which are now the demand of the people of the United States."

And the Indianapolis Sentinel proclaimed for its party candidate,

"His programme will be a cessation of hostilities and an attempt to restore the Union by compromise and reconciliation; or, failing in that, taking the last extreme recognition."

[To be Continued next Week.]

A Copperhead Candidate in Favor of Repudiation.

Col. W. W. H. Davis, the Copperhead candidate for Auditor General, has now resumed full charge of the Doylestown Democrat, a newspaper which he has owned for many years and which heretofore and now sympathizes with the rebels.

The peculiar force of the Democrat, since Col. Davis has returned to preside over its columns, consists in asserting that the rebels have not been whipped; that they should be received back to the Union with their rights restored; that slavery is not and can never be abolished, and that in justice to the rebels, the debt which they incurred in struggling for their "rights" is as legal as the debt which was piled on the people by the National authorities while waging a crusade on the people of the South, and if the National debt is paid, so also must the debts of the Southern States be liquidated.

According to Col. Davis' own theory the triumph of the Copperheads at the ballot box would be to wipe out all the disgrace of the defeat of the rebels on the battle field. The Doylestown Democrat takes this position, and W. W. H. Davis is the editor and proprietor of that pestilential sheet.

HARD ON DEMOCRACY.—Harper's Weekly which was one of the strongest defenders of democracy before the Rebellion, speaks thus harshly but truthfully of the corrupt thing. It says, "The national prestige of the Democratic name is gone. The name of Democracy is indissolubly associated with treason, rebellion, and civil war. Under Democratic ascendancy the conspiracy was conceived and matured. Under a Democratic Administration it ripened. By Democratic chiefs it was directed. By Democratic politicians it was defended and excused. By a Democratic Convention it was declared triumphant. By Democratic organs and orators, as far as they dare, the theories from which the rebellion sprung are still justified. The Democratic party has forced its best men from its ranks. It has prostituted a noble name to the basest purpose. At some time that name may become again respectable, but for the present, American people have had quite enough of 'the Democracy.'

It should not be forgotten that the Democracy of the North is now, as it has always been, the fast friend and faithfully ally of Human Slavery. It would re-establish Slavery to-morrow, if it could, and make it a national institution. Is the proof asked for? We cite the fact that not a single Democratic Convention in a Northern State has approved the Constitutional Amendment abolishing Slavery, and we cite also the fact that the only three loyal States—Delaware, New Jersey and Kentucky—which have positively refused to ratify that Amendment, are governed by Democrats. Put the Northern Democracy and their Southern friends in possession of the Federal Government, and Slavery would be re-established right off.

ANOTHER STATE.—The late election in Colorado indicates pretty conclusively that the people have adopted the Free State Constitution, and that the State will be ready for admission at the opening of Congress. This will add one more to the votes in favor of ratifying the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery and it is not improbable that several other Western territories will soon follow the example of Colorado and come in as States, we may be able to ratify that amendment without New Jersey.

Major Charles H. Shriner, United States Collector for the 14th District, last week collected and forwarded to Washington the sum of $110,000.

The receipts of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad will this year foot up to about $15,000,000, between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 of which is clear profit.

The last week's issues of the Juniata Register and Juniata Democrat both distinctly quote these words as having been asserted by, and found in the SENTINEL.

Remember when asked to vote part of the Republican ticket, that their party organ says "that a negro has a better conception of his duties than a democrat."

Now we will give the sum of one thousand dollars to the families of the Juniata soldiers, who perished in the slaughter pens of the South under the administration of such distinguished Democrats as Wiener, Werze, & Co., if the Editors of those papers will produce a SENTINEL with the alleged words.

And on their production we will run up the entire copperhead ticket and agree to vote it openly, if they will agree to run up and vote the Union ticket on failure to produce such assertion.

And on their production we will run up the entire copperhead ticket and agree to vote it openly, if they will agree to run up and vote the Union ticket on failure to produce such assertion.

Here is a chance to establish your reputation for truth and veracity and benefit your party—or to suffer the just penalty of wilfully, deliberately, maliciously and libellously putting into another's mouth, words which he did not use.

The devil did not more positively misrepresent the words of the Almighty when he told our first parents that they should not die, than do these Editors. We are willing to stand by our own assertions—we do not go back on our record—is what we did say:

The history of this war proves that even uneducated negroes have had a better conception of their duties as citizens than the democrats, and hence are better qualified to exercise the elective franchise than rebels or copperheads. If there is any virtue sense enough to be loyal, over having stupidity enough to be a traitor, the negroes of the South are better than its white traitors.

And these words we can prove by incontestable facts. Let any man of common intelligence look at the South. Were not Davis, Lloyd, Breckinridge, Cobb, Mason, Yancey and a host of others who were the instigators and leaders of the rebellion, all prominent and recognized leaders of that party? On the other hand, who ever heard of even an uneducated negro in the south being a traitor to the United States Government? No one. Which therefore had the best conception of duties as a citizen the negroes or these democrats? Answer will you? As a class the negroes in the South were all faithful—as a class the democrats were nearly all traitors. Deny it if you dare.

And if they contend that we were speaking also of the North, which, however, was not the fact as the connection clearly proves, then we again assert that what we said is a fearful but positive fact.

The few negroes in the North were all loyal—had a true conception of their duties as citizens. Was it so with all those that styled themselves democrats? Come now face the music! Look at the record of the so-called democrats! Look at Jim Buchanan who said the government had no right to coerce a State that had seceded; at Congressman Long and Harris, praying God that we might never conquer the South; at Vallandigham and others whose very names stink with treason; at Congressmen and others who skedaddled to Canada; at the draft rioters; at the infernal gang who declared the war a failure; at the assassins—and oh, God, the heart sickens to recall or enumerate either the men or the manners in which those who have boasted of their democracy have proved themselves traitors and sympathizers with treason, murder, starvation, assassination and crimes without name or parallel—black and damning as hell itself.

The course of the so called democracy or copperheads during the war is so outrageous that it would have daunted to recall or enumerate either the men or the manners in which those who have boasted of their democracy have proved themselves traitors and sympathizers with treason, murder, starvation, assassination and crimes without name or parallel—black and damning as hell itself.

We have confidence his claims and character are so superior to those of his opponent that he will be supported by a large majority of his fellow citizens and thus be triumphantly elected.

SANITARY.—Notwithstanding the common prediction that we would have a very unhealthy autumn, the general health is our neighborhood continues good. We have no prevailing disease in this community, and very few persons are sick. Keep the drains clear: don't permit any stagnated pools of water, any piles of decaying vegetation, nor any collections of offal and filth to remain about your dwelling, and we think no serious sickness need be apprehended.

Assess the Soldiers.

It is the duty of district committees, and the privilege of individuals, to see to it that all soldiers are assessed on or before the 30th of this month. Soldiers who served and voted in the army lost their citizenship, temporarily, at home, and it must therefore be restored before they can be permitted to vote.

The Republican State Convention of Massachusetts assembled at Boston, on the 14th inst., and nominated Col Alexander H. Bullock for Governor, and Hon. Wm. Clappin for Lieutenant Governor. of the demon hyena Werze "murdering by military commission," you white livered crew, for decency's sake for truths' sake, do not compare your loyalty, your conception of your duties as citizens, with that of even negroes—no not disgrace the poor creatures by making them believe that their record is blacker than yours. Give the devil his due and be willing to take your own.

Negro Suffrage.

Both the Democratic and Register in their last two issues charge that the late Union State Convention declared in favor of Negro Suffrage. Now we challenge them to the proof of this statement.

This system of wholesale lying has been carried on quite long enough. They know that it is not true but they hope to deceive the ignorant by its repetition.

We again ask them to produce the proof as he held up as wilful falsifiers.

The only resolution of that Convention which could by any possible contortion be construed into such a declaration is the following:

That the mild and generous method of reconstruction offered by the President to the people lately in rebellion, in the judgment of this Convention, has not been accepted in the spirit of honest loyalty and gratitude, but with such evidence of defiance and hostility as to impel us to the conviction that they can not safely be entrusted with the political rights which they forfeited by their treason, until they have proven their acceptance of them as constitutional provisions and securities to all men within their borders their inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

We ask our readers to give this resolution a careful reading, and they will find that that portion of it which has received the anathema of these modern

Democrats was written by Thomas Jefferson whom they delight to style the father of Democracy. Listen to the language, "secure to all men within the borders their inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The very language of the Declaration of Independence. Shame on you, Copperheads, for this traducing the memory of one of the great founders of the Republic. We hope no one will be deceived by this loose Copperhead lie, intended to deceive voters.

The Democrat and Mr. Belford:

The Democrat last week in a coarse and ungentlemanly article violently assails Mr. Belford the Union nominee for Treasurer. Now we deem any reply unnecessary.

Mr. Belford has resided here for a quarter of a century and we could say nothing in his praise not already well known to this community, so we think the Democrat can say nothing to his disadvantage which will be believed by any one in this community without regard to party.

Mr. Belford and Mr. Parker are our neighbors and it is ungentlemanly to say least to assail either personally.

Mr. Parker, has his weak points and is vulnerable but our cause does not require to turn common blackguards to give it success.

The people know them both, Mr. Belford made a good Treasurer once and we hope to see him rewarded by a re-election.
