An Apology.

We are under the necessity of apologizing to our patrons for the late appearance of this paper. During the week of September 20th we were sick part of the time, and unavoidably absent looking after our contemplated school, during the last of the week. We have nothing but two boys in our office and they got behind with the work. On Monday morning of the 25th we were forced to go to Middleburg, Snyder County to answer E. S. Doty on charge of publishing articles concerning him under the title of Ringmaster, and for which he claimed $1000 damages. As we had no appetite for paying this sum nor the hundreds of dollars of costs we had to leave our family, our office and all, and go in company with a number of loyal men to the Court. We would have paid all costs, if it had been possible to avoid going, but necessity dragged us there and we could not get home again before Saturday night. And although we came home "as happy as a hummingbird" yet we were pained to learn that the boys were behind with the work, that amid the excitement we had not furnished enough of copy—so that they had not issued a paper. We exceedingly regret this, but will still supply another issue before the election, so that our subscribers will still get a paper for each week. When our readers hear of our good works work we hope they will excuse the delay in the paper.

The Suit Ended.

The action for "malicious publication" brought by E. S. Doty, Esq., of this town, against A. L. Guss & W. W. Davis, Editors and Publishers of this paper, and taken to Snyder county by a change of venue, came up at Middleburg on Thursday morning the 28th, and after a protracted trial the jury returned on Saturday morning with a verdict in favor of the defendants. The attorneys on the part of the plaintiff were Bucher, Vanzetter, Simpson and Doty—on the part of the defendants, Miller, Hower, Stewart and Wright.

This was an action on the case, &c.—a civil suit for damages, the claim being $1000, and the allegation was that defendants had published three articles of and concerning the plaintiff under the head of "Ringmaster." The Judge charged the jury that if they believed that plaintiff had proven that defendants meant Doty by the term Ringmaster, they should find for plaintiff and fix the amount at whatever they saw fit, but if they thought the plaintiff had failed to prove that defendants meant Doty, they were to find a verdict for the defendants. Defendants have no fault to find with the charge and believe that the Court tried to deal out equal and exact justice to all.

Hon. George F. Miller.

One year ago the loyal people of Juniata cast their votes for Hon. George F. Miller for Congress—an act over which they may ever feel proud as it supplanted a Miller who would have delighted in grinding the Union to powder, with a Miller who believes in grinding into dust rebels and their copperhead friends.

We cannot forego this opportunity to re-tell our heart-felt thanks and gratitude to our loyal Congressman for his earnest, zealous and indefatigable efforts in our behalf before the Court at Middleburg, Snyder county, Pa. Never, as long as God lets us live, will we forget him. Our heart overflows with gratitude. God bless him in body and in soul, in basket and in store. Union men of Juniata thank him—loyal men everywhere bless him. He was more than a match for all the five dollar lawyers that could be raked up in five counties. Without preparation he competed successfully with all that time, money and diligent research could array against him. He defended our cause with a devotion and ability that showed him a friend to his friends, whose reward could betray into whipping or muzzling the ox that tread on his corn.

We rejoice that we are sending to Congress this winter a man of principle, who will remember his supporters and defend poor printers. Never did attorney stand up more manfully and discharge his duty to his client, without fear or favor than did George F. Miller for A. L. Guss & W. W. Davis. The Union party of this county own him more than thanks, and we are much mistaken if he does not get a substantial token of their respect.

—Charles Hower, Esq., late Commissioner of the Board of Enrollment of this District also labored assiduously in our defence. Although called in at a late hour, he displayed great legal acumen, and in his address to the jury handled the case in a masterly manner. Charlie is a safe, true lawyer, and we advise all Union men in Juniata who may have business before the Snyder county court to employ him to attend to it.

Citizenship Forfeited—Deserters.

By act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, and by proclamation of President Lincoln issued in pursuance thereof, certain persons are declared to have forfeited their rights of citizenship. They are:

- 1.—Deserters from the military or naval service, who did not report for duty on or before the 10th day of May, 1865;
- 2.—Deserters from the military or naval service, since the 10th of May, 1865;
- 3.—All persons who, having been duly enrolled, departed the jurisdiction of the district in which they were enrolled, or have gone beyond the limits of the United States, to avoid any draft into the military or naval service of the United States.

We publish above, the law of Congress disfranchising deserters. It is the duty of every good citizen to see that no man, who was a deserter, should vote. If you have any reason to believe a man a deserter, you can challenge his vote and make him prove to the satisfaction of the officers of the Election, that he is not a deserter. If the Election Board will allow deserters to vote, it is illegal and makes them liable to punishment and renders the Election illegal. Every one knows the deserter in their districts and there will be no trouble in bringing these cases to the notice of the Election officers.

Jos. M. Belford.

Let every good citizen labor for the election of this gentleman. He is one of the very best citizens of the county. His honesty, capacity, and worth, none but a reckless partisan will deny. We need hardly write words in eulogy of one who is so well known, stands so high, and against whom the foulest of calumnies rebounded with vengeance upon his would-be traducers. Let every good citizen vote for a man who is worthy, capable and deserving to fill the post. Let him be handsomely and triumphantly elected.

Benj. F. Walls, of Lack township, is the candidate for Commissioner (3 years). This nomination was peculiarly a fortunate one. Mr. Walls at the breaking out of the Rebellion, was over fifty years of age, yet his patriotic spirit would not permit him to remain at home while his country needed his services. He promptly enlisted in 1861 as a private in Capt. Gobin's company (C) 47th Penna. Volunteers. He was soon after appointed Color Bearer and carried the stars and stripes through all the various campaigns in which that Regiment participated, and brought it home in triumph. Mr. Walls is an honest, intelligent, and reliable man, immensely popular among his neighbors, and will make his mark in the Democratic stronghold of Lack and Tuscarora. He would make a most excellent Commissioner, and the fact that he bests upon his person honorable scars received in action, surely should render his fellow citizens to renew his triumphant election.

J B M'Donald, jr.

This gentleman is a worthy associate of Mr. Walls—he served over three years in company A, 1st Pa. Cavalry. We are told that he was one of the best soldiers in the company and that we would be justifiable in saying almost any thing good of him. Let every soldier and every good citizen vote for him.

H. H. Wilson.

Captain Wilson is too well known to our readers and his character is too well established to need any praise at our hands, or even a defence from the slanders that were heaped upon him down town. His election is certain and he will make a very good officer.

T. T. Davis,

This gentleman like Wilson, Walls and McDonald, also served a full term in the army, being Regimental Quartermaster of the 53rd Regiment, at the close of the war. He deserves to be remembered by all lovers of the Union cause.

Wm. Dunn.

Squire Dunn is a very fine old gentleman and a good Surveyor. One of the copperhead organs says he "hobbles along"—because he is a little lame. If we would any unfortunate defect, it would be unpardonable, they can say what they please—and pocket the credit if it gives them any. There is not a man who deserves better at our hands than Mr. Dunn. He gave one of his sons to his country at Gettysburg and had another in the service. Vote for Dunn.

George Jacobs of Perry and formerly of this county, is a candidate for sheriff—One of the Perry papers says: He tried to farm and failed in the business—he tried to keep a store and that broke down, and now he wants to be Sheriff, and that will fail too.

Why Soldiers should vote the Democratic Ticket

It is interesting as well as amusing, says the Washington Reporter, to see the efforts just now being made by the Copperheads to secure the votes of the soldiers for their ticket this fall. "Democratic" orators and journalists are exercising their utmost ingenuity to convince the gallant men who have returned to their homes, that it is their duty to rally to a man in support of the party that stigmatized the war as an "abolition crusade," and declares it a failure by resolutions solemnly adopted in their National Convention, but little more than a year ago. While the Copperhead leaders are thus plying the soldiers with every species of argument to win their votes, a contemporary, thinking that some of these gentry may be troubled with short memories, suggests that by way of inducement they remind these war-worn veterans of what they did for them while in the field, by urging upon them such questions as the following:

- 1st. Did we not oppose the war for the preservation of the Union, and refuse to vote a man or a dollar to support it?
- 2d. Did we not oppose the various drafts which were ordered by the President for the purpose of recruiting your ranks and saving you and your comrades from being destroyed by the rebel army?
- 3d. Did we not advise our followers to buy revolvers and to resist and shoot down the officers of the Government while lying to enforce the law?
- 4th. Did not many of us run away to Canada to avoid aiding our country in her extremity?
- 5th. Did we shoot down officers who were endeavoring to recruit your armies?
- 6th. Did we not denounce the war which you called a glorious attempt to save the Union, as a damnable crusade, and the soldiers as Lincoln hirelings, Lincoln dogs, murderers, &c?
- 7th. Did not many of us wish that you might all be shot and never again reach your homes?
- 8th. Did we not create riots in New York and other places, in favor of the rebels, and organize secret societies throughout the North in favor of the same?
- 9th. Did we not declare that the President of the United States was a tyrant, a monster, a usurper, and wish some bold hand would take his life?
- 10th. And did we not finally by our treasonable language, succeed in bringing about the murder of Abraham Lincoln? After such a showing as this it will indeed be strange if the Union soldiers refuse to vote the "Democratic" ticket.

Legislative Conference.

The Legislative Conference of the counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin and Juniata, met at the Court House in Lewistown, at 2 o'clock, P. M., on Tuesday, the 12th day of September, 1865. The following gentlemen presented themselves as conferees:

- Huntingdon—Capt. J. D. Campbell, H. R. Shearer, D. M. Painter.
Mifflin—D. W. Woods, Joseph Sigler, C. S. McCoy.
Juniata—John J. Patterson, Capt. H. H. Wilson, Capt. W. H. Patterson.
- On motion of John J. Patterson, D. W. Woods was elected Chairman; and on motion of Capt. J. D. Campbell, Capt. W. H. Patterson was elected Secretary.
- It was moved by John J. Patterson to adjourn. The Yeas and Nays were called on the question with the following results:

YEAS—J. J. Patterson, W. H. Patterson, and H. H. Wilson.—3.
NAYS—Campbell, Shearer, Painter, Sigler, Woods and McCoy.—6.

It was then moved that the Conference proceed to the nomination of candidates. The Yeas and Nays were called on the question, with the following result:

YEAS—Campbell, Painter, Woods, Sigler, and McCoy.—6.
NAYS—J. J. Patterson, W. H. Patterson, and Wilson.—3.

Capt. Campbell nominated Ephraim Baker of Huntingdon county.

Mr. McCoy nominated James M. Brown of Mifflin county.

On motion of Capt. J. D. Campbell, Ephraim Baker and James M. Brown were declared the nominees of the Conference for Assembly for this Legislative District.

On motion, the Conference adjourned.

D. W. WOODS, Pres.
W. H. PATTERSON, Secy.

George Jacobs of Perry and formerly of this county, is a candidate for sheriff—One of the Perry papers says:

He tried to farm and failed in the business—he tried to keep a store and that broke down, and now he wants to be Sheriff, and that will fail too.

OUR FRIEND HUNNICUTT TURNED UP AGAIN.

On our return home we find on our table a very fine, large paper published in Richmond, Va., called THE NEW NATION, and edited by Rev. James W. Hunnicutt, formerly of Frederickburg, Va., a refugee during the war, and who it will be remembered stamped our county prior to Gov. Curtin's re-election. He is warmly remembered by many of us for his zeal and sacrifices in the good cause. He has started a real live Union paper in Richmond, and will "heard the lion in his den." Price $2.50 per year. We hope he may get a fine lot of subscribers in this county. We will go in for one. Among columns of good things we extract the following:

"It was devotion to our country, and hatred to the rebellion, and a determination to do all in our power to put it down, and not our sympathy for the North or the Northern people, that influenced us to go there, even after receiving an invitation. Common sense dictated to us, that if the rebellion should triumph, not only the Union, but the South also would be ruined. The most terrible curse that could possibly have befallen all classes of people in the South, except the nabobs, would have been the success of the rebellion. This we positively know, and were, therefore, willing to do all we could to suppress it. Solemnly before God, we believe to-day, that had it not been for Copperheads of the North and disaffected officers in the Federal armies, the war would not have lasted more than two years, if that; and upon the undying souls of leading Copperheads rests the blood of untold thousands slain on the battle fields.

DIRTY TRICK—It is an old opinion that the dead should not be badly spoken of, and it is equally mean to speak evil of those who cannot help themselves. So eager was the state organ, down town to abuse the Union nominees that it could not wait to see who the candidates would be, but contrary and maliciously drags into abuse Captain John M. Thompson, of Perryville, than whom a truer, braver or more gallant soldier never breathed the air of heaven. Captain Thompson was the most horribly wounded Juniata soldier now living. He lost an arm and has been confined to bed since the battle of Winchester. He has never asked a clerkship or other office nor has he been able to attend to anything of the kind—yet, poor, helpless, bedridden as he is, he must be hauled up in a copperhead sheet and given to understand that if nominated he could not be elected, because Bob Parker wants the position. Yes, the soldier of many battles, promoted for gallantry, suffering from many honorable scars, is told that democracy prefers one who did nothing for the Union and did not even give it his sympathies. Yes, democracy prefers such a man to John M. Thompson, whose only crime is that being a democrat when he went to the army, he has returned a sound Union man.
