

The Juniata Sentinel. WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 15, 1865. TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Blanks for Oil Leases, for sale at this office.

We desire Local correspondents in every Town and Township in the County. Will some of our subscribers kindly act in this capacity, and send us along the locals?

LADIES' FURS—Hecht and Strayer, of Patterson, have the largest stock of Ladies' Furs in the county. They have them at prices to suit the times. Call and examine them.

Puff! Puff! Puff!!!—The best cigar I've smoked for a long time. Weichman keeps the same kind at his cheap Book and Stationery Store, two doors below Snyder's Hotel. Give him a call.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement, in another column, of John H. Beale. Mr. Beale offers at public sale, on Saturday, December 2nd, a valuable fifteen acre lot, situated one-half mile from Johnstown, Tuscarora Valley.

ANOTHER BEAR.—On Saturday last, our friend Mr. Jacob Will, of the Pennsylvania Hotel, this borough, succeeded in shooting a bear on the Shade Mountain. The bear was a young one, and when dressed, weighed thirty-two pounds. We were not aware that Mr. Will is an "old bear hunter," and the fact that he shot the bear, places him one ahead of the other hunters. There has been about an even dozen of the "varmints" captured in traps, in this county, but this is the first one that has been shot this fall.

THE FISH CONVENTION.—A meeting of the citizens of Juniata county, is called to assemble in Millintown, on Tuesday evening December 5, (Court week) for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the interest of Juniata county, in the Great Mass Fish Convention to be held in Harrisburg on the 10th day of January, 1866.

The object of the Convention is to secure the enforcement of the law enacted by the last Legislature, requiring corporations and owners of dams on the Susquehanna and its principle branches, to remove the obstructions or construct sluices so that Shad, Salmon and other fish can pass up the stream. We hope the citizens of our county will take an interest in this matter, attend the meeting and select good and influential men to represent them in the Convention at Harrisburg.

FALL AND WINTER FASHIONS.—As a subject in which our lady readers are deeply interested, we publish the fashion news, gleaned from a late Magazine: Demorest says that the broad bolts, with which our ladies have disguised themselves during the past season, have been superseded by those more adapted to proportion; the huge, ungainly buckle is also in disfavor, and is replaced by a small neat clasp, prettier and more convenient.

Bonnets are smaller and queerer than ever, with square crowns half away, and pieced with a bit of straight cape-tulle veils are worn. Hair is still very fashionable, but do not elaborate over the forehead. For dress material, black prevails, but plain, subdued colors are worn. The height of fashion for walking attire is a dress with short, half-fitting sack of some material belted down, the skirt long and trailing, looped when on the street. No real inventions are chronicled. Square-toed shoes have been abolished, and they are made now very narrow with small heel.

TRIAL LIST—DECEMBER TERM, 1865.—Although we do not receive any compensation for inserting the following list, yet we publish it as an item of interest to our numerous readers:

Amos Snyder vs. Robert McCrum, surviving partner of the firm of McCrum & Young.

W. H. Patterson et al vs. Jas. North et al.

The Fenian excitement still continues in Canada. It is rumored that a plot has been discovered to rob the banks and much uneasiness is felt in consequence.
