

The Juniata Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 29, 1865.
TOWN AND COUNTRY.

John Thompson, of Delaware twp., will sell, at public sale, at his residence, on Friday, December 15th, valuable personal property, embracing Horses, Cows, Young Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, &c., with all his farming implements. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., of said day.

We invite attention to the new advertisement of Mickey and Pennell, who have just returned from the City with a very large and fine assortment of new goods. It will be seen by their Schedule of prices, that they are selling goods a little lower than any body else in the county. Read their advertisement.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Sulouff, Frow and Parker, in another column. Go to the Crystal Palace if you want to see the largest and best selected stock of goods in the county. They are constantly receiving new invoices and are always prepared to fill orders, large or small. This is the place to go for bargains.

THIEVES ABOUT.—On Saturday night last some thieves entered the Jewelry Store of T. R. McClellan and received him of about twenty-five dollars worth of material, &c. They effected their entrance by removing the window above the door. It was quite lucky for Tom that he had the precaution to take his watches and jewelry home, or the thieves would have made quite a haul.

SOFTENING HARD WATER.—Some twenty years ago, a well was dug twenty feet deep, on the Cottage Hill Farm, near Ravens, Ohio. It contained eight feet of water—after being stoned—the earth about which was blue clay, and the water was very hard. This serious defect was cured entirely, and the water softened permanently by putting into the well about four feet of gravel of the size of beans and upwards.

TRUE.—The man who does not take the paper or who takes the paper and does not read the advertisements, can never be said to be well posted. The advertisements indicate not only the business enterprise of the place in which they are published, but the enterprise of the advertiser. When you see a man who advertises liberally, you may be sure of finding a good stock in his store—that he keeps up with the market, and always sells a little cheaper than those who do not advertise. Our readers may always be certain of getting good bargains from those who advertise in the SENTINEL.

WINTER BONNETS.—Hobbs, of the Genesco Republic, speaks as follows of the new style of bonnets:—"We like the Winter style of bonnets. If they are not of the 'come and kiss me' order then we are no judge. We do not know what to call them, or what to liken them to, but hates they are, and no mistake. A certain class of countenance shows off to amazing advantage in them—like a piece of cheese in a flower patch, or a new moon set in marygolds. They do bring out the face hugely, and you take one of these large, shoemaker's-apron faces, and they do bloom immensely. The style differs very much from the old 'coal scuttle,' but between the two it is hard to choose. But they are of the fashion, and what's fashion is right, of course."

ROBBERY IN PERRYVILLE.—On the night of the 20th inst., Jas. B. Keene's Jewelry Store, Robert Logan's Grocery, and James Wix's Shoe Shop, were entered by some unknown villains, who were provided with keys for the purpose, and robbed of valuable property. From Mr. Keene's Jewelry Store the thieves selected a number of the best watches and a fine assortment of Jewelry, amounting to about $300. From the Grocery they took cutlery, candy, figs, nuts, and a lot of toilet articles. Mr. Wix was the loser of a pair of fine boots and a number of unfinished gaiters. It is conjectured that the thieves were not experienced in the business, or they would not have left so much behind them. Any information that will lead to the detection of the thieves will be thankfully received, and the informant will be amply rewarded.—The county is flooded with villains, who are too lazy to earn their bread by honest means, and who are seeking every opportunity to practice their unlawful calling. Our citizens should be on their guard.

By REFERENCE to our advertising columns it will be seen that Dr. Derr has procured machinery by the use of which he can extract teeth without pain. We have seen several persons who have had teeth extracted, and they all unite in saying that they did not feel the least pain or unpleasant sensation during the operation.

IN WANT OF REPAIRS.—The board walk in Patterson, leading from the Bridge to the Rail Road Station. Where is your School Directors or the town council.

CHEAPER THAN EVER.—We would be neglecting our duty if we failed to state that J. B. M. Todd, has just returned from the Eastern cities with an extensive assortment of New Goods which he is offering at prices that must astonish purchasers. Read his new advertisement in another column.
