

Juniata Sentinel.

A union of lakes, and a union of lands,
A union no power shall sever;
A union of hearts, and a union of hands,
And the American Union forever!

MIFFLINTOWN,
Wednesday Morning, April 4, 1866

H. H. WILSON, Editor and Publisher

THE JUNIATA SENTINEL has the largest circulation of any paper published in this county. It is therefore the best advertising medium. It is a paper, truly loyal, ably conducted, a first class Localist, and well worthy of the patronage of every loyal citizen in the County.

UNION REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR GOVERNOR,
MAJ. GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,
OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

Soldiers of Pennsylvania remember that Heister Clymer voted against a joint resolution of our Legislature, asking Congress to increase the pay of the private soldiers and non-commissioned officers of the army. (See page 205 Legislative Record session 1864.) While you were battling for the Union he was exhausting his ingenuity in devising means to counteract the success of your arms.

VOLUME TWENTY.

The present number completes volume twenty of the JUNIATA SENTINEL. Twenty years since Col. A. K. McClure commenced its publication. Who can realize it? At that time the party of which the SENTINEL has always been the firm, unwavering champion was largely in the minority. To-day every State represented in the national Congress has endorsed its principles and party by an overwhelming majority. Twenty years ago, or at the time Mr. McClure commenced the publication of the JUNIATA SENTINEL, the so-called Democratic party carried Juniata county by a very large majority; at the last election their majority was very small, and now their leaders are exclaiming that "something must be done or else the Republicans will carry the county next fall." Already they are trembling in fear of the New Jersey defeat that awaits them on the second Tuesday of October next. It is only a short time since we assumed charge of the SENTINEL. Our success thus far has exceeded our expectations. From all parts of the county we receive encouragement. Our subscription list is steadily on the increase, and much larger than at the time we took charge of the paper. Our friends have our thanks for their indulgence and their efforts in our behalf. We expect to pilot the SENTINEL through another volume, and as there is room on hand for more passengers, we would suggest to our subscribers that each one use his or her influence to secure another. We have a long campaign before us, grave questions must be decided at the next election, and if the people understand these questions, we have no fear as to how they will vote. We urge our friends to go to work. See that your neighbors are supplied with a copy of the SENTINEL, and we will predict a Union victory in Juniata county on the second Tuesday of October next.

CAMPAIGN PAPER.

As there are many persons in the county who are not subscribers to any newspaper, we have concluded to furnish the SENTINEL to all new subscribers through the coming political campaign at rates that will be within the reach of every man in the county. And we trust our friends in each district will go to work in good earnest and get up clubs. The people should understand the great questions that will be agitated in the approaching campaign, and thus be enabled to vote intelligently at the coming election. We will furnish the SENTINEL from the third week in April until the last week in October—by which time all the official returns will be published, at the following rates:

- Single copy.....80
- Five copies.....2 50
- Ten copies.....5 50
- Fifteen copies.....9 00
- Twenty copies.....13 00

THANKS.—Our thanks are due Hon. J. N. Brown, of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and Hon. Orin Stewart, of the California Legislature, for valuable public documents.

CORRECTION.
Last week we published a card in reference to the new paper, purporting to have come from H. T. McAlister, of Fayette township. Mr. McAlister has since informed us that he did not write the card. He says he remarked in the presence of some neighbors, that he had not authorized Mr. Allison to use his name in connection with the new paper, and that as he (Mr. McAlister) had conversed with a number of people about the paper, all of whom had disapproved it—he concluded that he could do nothing for it. A person who heard Mr. McAlister make these remarks took the liberty of writing the card that we published last week, and afterwards informed Mr. McAlister that he had written a few lines to Millin, saying that he (Mr. McAlister) could not do anything more for the new paper. Mr. McAlister was thus left under the impression that the few lines were sent to Mr. Allison. We received the card, however, from a person who is well known to Mr. McAlister, and who had no authority to write. We publish this explanation by request of Mr. McAlister. We do not desire to place any person in a false position, and cheerfully make the correction.

Horrible Outrage.

One of the most inhuman acts ever perpetrated in our midst was consummated last Friday, upon the person of a little girl, some six or seven years of age, and daughter of Dr. Noebel, a German physician, residing in the upper end of the city. The perpetrator of the horrid crime is Joseph Moeherman, a young man of rather genteel appearance, but whose career has been anything but enviable. It seems that the Moeherman family resided in the house with Mr. Noebel, and Joseph was in the habit of nursing and fondling the children of the Doctor, until on the day above named, when the villain succeeded in accomplishing his heinous purpose, at the same time injuring his victim to an extent that her recovery is considered doubtful. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the offender, but he managed to elude the officers until Wednesday, when Mr. Bernard Campbell, the Chief of Police, nabbed him, at or near Camp Curtin, while engaged in assisting the family to move. He was taken before Alderman Bower, who committed him for court, positively refusing to take bail for his appearance. In this the Alderman acted wisely, for an individual who would be guilty of the offence named above should not be permitted to run at large to endanger even the virtue of our children, and still further corrupt the morals of a community that has already suffered too greatly at the hands of evil-doers such as he. Too much credit cannot be awarded Officer Campbell for the capture of the criminal, who is now in the county prison to await his trial. The safety of our people demands that he be kept there until the next term of court, when he will (if justice is done) receive the punishment due his crime.

Moeherman was at one time connected with the Opera House in this city, and occasionally traveled with minstrel companies. He frequently got into difficulties, owing to his evil doings.

The crime with which Moeherman stands charged is one calculated to arouse the indignation of the public, and it is probably fortunate for him that he is protected by the walls of the prison. Had his victim belonged to almost any other family in our city, her violator would not have been permitted to go unpunished until the present.

P. S. Since the above was written, we have been informed that the little girl who was outraged by Moeherman is not expected to recover. In the event of her death, he will have added to his list of crimes that of murder. Our citizens can scarcely realize that they have had in their midst a human being who could be guilty of an offence so heinous. The more recital of the facts causes parents to shudder.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: "The cashier of the Tradesmen's National Bank, G. T. Van Doren, Esq., gives public notice that the notes of the Crawford County Bank, of Meadville; the Oil City Bank, of Oil City; the Venango Bank, of Franklin; and the Petroleum Bank, of Titusville, will not hereafter be redeemed by Tradesmen's Bank. This results from the reported failure of Culver, Peon & Co., of New York."

The obsequies of Hon. Solomon Foot, late Senator from Vermont, came off in Washington on the 30th ult., and were participated in by the President and Cabinet, General Grant, Justices of the Supreme Court, the Diplomatic Corps, chiefs of executive bureaus, and members of the Senate and House of Representatives. The remains were taken to Vermont.

AS WAS EXPECTED.
No sooner was the President's new Policy developed and understood than all the rebels in the Southern States and all the copperheads in the Northern States, burst into hallelujahs in praise of it and its author. Their high strains of adulation, resounding from one section of the country to the other, filled every valley, floated above every hill and mountain, and surged, mighty billows of sound, across the Atlantic. In Great Britain the Tory journals instantly took up the strain, the London Times leading off—Every holder of rebel bonds; every builder of rebel privateers; every blockade runner; later of universal liberty and impartial justice; is shouting himself hoarse over the great statesman that fills the presidential chair of this republic, and in honor of his benignant Policy for dealing with rebels. This does not surprise us. Having encouraged the Southern leaders to go into the rebellion, by huge promises of sympathy and assistance they are now anxious to reinstate them as fully as possible in the control of the restored Union. It is not love of the republic, but love of the rebels, that prompts them.

We should have a good deal more faith in their protestations if they evinced some disposition to deal with the Fenian conspirators on the same lenient principles they seek to enforce on our government. Who imagines that, in case of a genuine and bloody insurrection in Ireland, so formidable as seriously to shake the British throne, the leaders of British opinion would, in six months after the close of the struggle, demand an act of total oblivion from the Crown, and admission of an hundred Fenian chiefs to seats in Parliament? Every man knows England does not ussage her affairs on that principle. So to act would be to invite fresh conspirators and returning perils.

Another Destructive Fire in the Oil Regions.

The most destructive fire known on Oil Creek commenced about 8 o'clock A. M., March 31st, on the Hyde & Egbert farm, and lasted for many hours. Seventeen tanks of oil and eleven boats loaded for shipment were all destroyed. At one time the creek was one vast sheet of flame. The fire could be seen for miles around. Some thirty wells were burned, besides various engine houses, derricks and tanks; also several dwellings. The most intense excitement prevailed at the time. The loss is about 25,000 barrels of oil and $125,000 in property. The fire was finally extinguished.

The New York Leader, which was the first Democratic journal to accept the Emancipation Policy, now advises the acceptance of universal suffrage. It says it takes this step upon consultation with some of the wisest and most experienced members of its party. Its idea is that if the experiment shall be made, the question will be taken out of the domain of controversy into that of demonstration.—It under the experiment the blacks fail to sustain a proper position, the right of voting will be taken from them by common sense, and an end put to disputation over them. If they demonstrate capacity, everybody ought to be satisfied.—Highly sensible.

A TRICK.

We hear complaints made by some people that newspapers are sent to their address for which they never subscribed, but that they innocently took them from the Post Office two or three times and shortly were notified that they were liable for a year's subscription. This is the law, and we warn every person against it. The trick has often been played by unprincipled publishers. No one should take a newspaper from the Post Office unless he has subscribed for it, as he thereby becomes liable for a year's subscription at full rates.

A German has recently invented a very cheap and easily made barometer. Take a common glass wide-mouthed pickle bottle and fill it to within three inches of the mouth with water. Then take a common sweet oil flask, cleanse it thoroughly and plunge the neck into the pickle bottle as far as it will go. This completes the barometer, and in fine weather the water will rise in the neck of the flask, descending again in wet, windy weather. Before a heavy gail of wind the water has been seen to leave the flask altogether, at least eight hours before the gale was at its height.

A Massachusetts widow, who has been five times a wife, recently arranged with a rich octogenarian that she would take him for her sixth husband if he would make his will in her favor in advance. They went to Newburyport and arranged a day with a lawyer for making the will; but before the day came the old gentleman was dead, and the artful widow was neither his wife nor heir.

McALISTERVILLE, March 24, '66.
Mr. H. H. WILSON—Please insert the following card in your columns in next week's issue. This will certify that my name has been put on the hand bills of W. M. Allison & Co. without my knowledge or consent. I believe the proposed paper to be an injury to the party.
Respectfully,
S. M. SHELLY.

EAST SALISBURY, March 23, 1866.
H. H. WILSON—Dear Sir:—I see my name on the Prospectus of the Juniata Republican as one of the Agents to solicit subscribers for that paper. I do not wish to have it understood that I am in any way interested in that paper, nor do I think that it is calculated to do any good, but on the contrary it will have a tendency to distract the party and promote the interest of the Democracy.
Yours truly,
C. G. SHELLY.

FAYETTE TOWNSHIP, March 24, '66.
ED. SENTINEL—You will confer a favor on me by publishing the following: My name has been used by W. M. Allison & Co. for the purpose of supporting and sustaining a new paper in this county, to be called the Juniata Republican. This is to show that I denounce the entire firm and will have nothing to do with the new paper, believing that it would, if encouraged by the people, result in the entire disruption of our party in the county.
Yours truly,
R. W. JAMISON.

CAPT. H. H. WILSON—Dear Sir:—I see my name published in a prospectus of a new paper to be called the Juniata Republican and to be published by Wm. M. Allison & Co. I simply desire to say to you and to the public that I did not authorize Mr. Allison or any one else to use my name in connection with said prospectus, and that I have no interest pecuniary or otherwise in the publication of the proposed paper, and do not desire my name used in connection with it, as I believe the project is calculated to distract the party.
Yours &c.,
JOSEPH POMEROY.

PLEASANT VIEW, March 24, 1866.
CAPT. H. H. WILSON—Dear Sir:—I see my name used in connection with a prospectus for a new paper to be started in Millintown, under the control of Wm. M. Allison & Co. Please notify the public through your valuable paper, that my name has been used without my knowledge or consent, and that I am opposed to anything of the kind, as its object is to distract and disorganize our party in the county, and I cannot allow Mr. Allison & Co. to use my name for any such purpose, and take this opportunity to inform Mr. Allison & Co. that I will hold them responsible for any improper use they make of my name hereafter.
Yours truly,
J. B. OKESON.

A CARD.
We the undersigned whose names are signed to the Prospectus of a new paper to be published in Millintown by W. M. Allison & Co., and to be called the Juniata Republican, do hereby declare that we never authorized Mr. Allison or any one else to sign our names to said prospectus, and we repudiate all connection with this effort to start another paper, believing it will have a tendency to distract the party and that it has been gotten up to serve personal ends and gratify personal animosities at the cost of the harmony and success of the party in the county.—We disavow the whole scheme, and will use our influence against it, and urge every member of the party to denounce it. No one but an enemy of the party and Locofocos will give encouragement to such a scheme. When there is so important an election before us we should cultivate harmony in our own ranks and keep down the spirit of faction. We demand of Messrs. W. M. Allison & Co. the withdrawal of our names from their Prospectus.
