will be in full blast in ten days.

Mrss Frank, Smeigh and Miss Jonnie Stimmell have opened out a fine stock of Millinery Goods, in Perrysville. They have the latest fashions and are prepared to execute all orders on short notice -The ladies are respectfully invited to call and examine their stock.

OUR friends in the country in need of a good double-screen Fanning Mill would do well to order one from Mr. E. Montgomery, who manufactures them at Waterloo, Juniata county, Pa. Last year the demand for them was so great that he could not supply all.

NEW PLACE .- Mr. J. D. Rynard has opened a new store on Bridge Street, near the canal, where he keeps a large assort ment of army goods, such as Clothing, Blaukets, Over Coats. Dress Coats, tinware, Saddlery, Harness, &c., which he proposes to sell cheap. Give him a call and see for yourselves.

THE FRUIT CROP .- The Meadville Journal says : We are informed by a gentleman residing in South-western Crawford, and proprietor of one of the fiaest orchards in the county, that the prospects for a large fruit crop the coming season are unusually promising. As far as can be judged, the peach blossoms, as yet, are entirely uninjured, and all indications are very flattering. Similar statements reach us from all portions of the county.

THE new 50 conts fractional currency. although out but a few weeks, is already counterfeited. The genuine notes have a portrait of S. E. Spinner, U. S. Mifflintown, April 24, 1866. NEW BAKERY .- Mr. Maxwell has on Bridge street, where he is prepared to furnish our citizens with fresh bread, pica. THANKS .- We return thanks to Mr. eakes, &c., at very reasonable prices .-

FEW persons, we apprehend, were aware of the extent to which apparently THE lease of Thompson and Maus on modest ladies were willing to exhibit the Mariah Furnace, near Millerstown, themselves, till the present style of hoops, was sold at Sheriff sale on the 20th inst . small at the top and very large at the butto Mr. W. H. Halton, agent, for the tom, came in vogue. A lady was sursum of 1400 dollars cash. The works prised recently, on remarking to a gentleman friend that the "spring opening" was at hand, by his replying, "Yes, I suppose spring has come, for I see the ladies have taken off their flannel petti ceats." And this saucy individual had no better chance for observation than every man on the street has.
