CONCERT .- A Grand National Concert for the benefit of the Eddier's and Sailor's National Orphant's Home Fund, will be held under the auspices of the Soldier's and Sallor's Faion, at Grover's Theatre, in the city of Washington, on Thursday evening, August 2nd, 1866 .-Three hundred thousand tickets will be sold at $1,00, each and 75000 presents awarded, valued at $150,000 every four tickets drawing a prize. For further particulars call on A. H. Weidman, agent for the sale of tickets at this place.

-----GREAT SHOW COMING .- By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Gardner, Hemmings & Co's American Circus combined for the traveling season of 1866, with Van Amburgh & Co's Mammoth Menugerie will visit and exhibit in this ploce on Saturday, August 4th. The combination of the above named colossal establishments form an era in the amusement world hitherto unknown and unequaled. The large equestrian troupe of Gardner, Hematnings & Co. which has been the recipient of such marked favor everywhere, will form a conspicuous part of this great exhibition .--The name of Dan Gardner to the shows going public is a host within itself; his witicisms, the daring foats of horsenounship, and nerobatic sports of his great corps of performers, in connection with Van Amburg & Cu's mammoth caravan of living animals, the majority of which are fresh form their pative jungles, and consequently nearly all new to the civilized world, will form an exhibition surpassing in grandeur and instructive novelty anything ever yet shown to the Ameriican public. It will also be seen that Col. Hall will enter the dea of wild animals and perform a number of daring fears .---The public should not fuilto witness this great exhibition of the powers of man over the wild donizons of the forest. The cutartainment will be hold in a mammoth pavillion espable of hobling 6000 persons, Admission 50 cents.
