

A union of lakes, and a union of lands, A union no power shall sever; A union of hearts, and a union of hands, And the American Union forever!

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17, 1866.

THE RESULT IN JUNIATA COUNTY.

The result in this county was not as we anticipated it would be early in the campaign. The increase of the vote in the county—and that principally in the Copperhead district—of over 140 votes, sent the county into the hands of our opponents by a majority varying from two votes to three hundred.

Never in the history of this county was there such an effort made by the party in opposition to the Republicans to get out their vote, and to keep the shabby members of their party under their control as was made during the last canvass. Mowey was lavished with a degree of extravagance unsurpassed in the history of political corruption. Officers were peddled about and tendered promiscuously to any one who was willing to fall down and worship the golden calf; threats were made to all who held office under the Administration, and the people were harangued from every stump and school house in the county, and from the fact that Juniata county had no district candidates upon the Republican ticket and that the entire work of meeting the herculean efforts of the opposition devolved solely on the party in the county is added, is it not astonishing that we did so well?

The majority against Geary is 298, a Republican gain of 18 on the vote for Abraham Lincoln in 1864.

OHIO. IOWA. INDIANA. NEBRASKA. MARYLAND.

OHIO—The election here was purely congressional and was for nineteen members. Our majority will reach nearly 50,000.

IOWA—The loyal people of this glorious little State sends a solid radical delegation of Six Congressmen by a majority of 50,000.

INDIANA—This State sends greetings to an apostate President by a majority of 15,000 for Congress—that his Policy is distasteful, and that the Congressional Amendment must be adopted.

NEBRASKA has elected the entire Union ticket. The result of this election is important, if Nebraska should be admitted as a State, it will then add another Republican member to the XL Congress.

MARYLAND keeps step with the march of victory in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio and Iowa. Baltimore has re-elected a Radical Mayor, John Lee Chapman, by 2,831 majority over his pro-Redeem competitor, Harvey.

Our candidates for Assembly, Hon. J. M. Brown, of Millin county, and H. S. Wharton of Huntingdon county, are both elected by majorities of about 300. Miller and Willis, the Bread and Copper-Johnson candidates, ran ahead of their ticket in this county about one hundred and thirty votes. This was caused by a lavish expenditure of money and a trading off of all the rest of the candidates on the Locofoco ticket, with the combined influence of Strouse, Davis and Allison amounting to three votes, including a few ballots who got drunk with Davis and Allison and never knew whether they voted for Andrew Jackson or Hester Clymer.

Congress.—Hon. George F. Miller is re-elected by a large majority—over 15,000.

Victory!

THE RESULT.

After the most extraordinary campaign ever waged in Pennsylvania, the loyal men have achieved a final and decisive Victory. Andrew Johnson referred his "policy" to the people, and the answer sent forth by those who voted the Union Republican ticket, is sufficiently emphatic to make Johnson and all his sycophantic satraps tremble before the majesty of the people's will. The policy of the President, backed up by Seward, Raymond, and a trucking Cabinet, with the whole patronage of the Government, unscrupulously wicked to delude the great Union party, has been adjudged by an outraged people as unworthy of support, and in the election of John W. Geary for Governor, and a loyal firm delegation of Congressmen, his policy is voted as wrong and suicidal. As we go to press the official vote is not in, enough is known to make Geary's majority fully 17,000—a most glorious triumph, a truly grand achievement, equal to the victory of Gettysburg and Appomattox! Johnson's recreancy to his party, his apostasy to the great principles that now rule the nation, and his base attempt to use the patronage of office to buy weak men, have all resulted on his own head. The people tell him in thunder tones that "Traitors must take back seats; Treason must be made odious; and that the future of this great nation must not be disturbed by any future secessions and rebellions." In every Congressional district, where the people could speak without fear or favor, the defeat of Copperheadism is overwhelming. In all their strongholds our cause has made most noble headway; and it is only where the President and his friends could buy up weak-principled men, or so use their power by colonizing voters from the South, rank, open rebels, as they did by the thousand in Philadelphia and other districts, that Copperheadism gained on its vote.

The day was truly a grand one. Never before in the whole history of our country was such a spectacle presented. A loyal people, unawed by Executive threats, and uncorrupted by Presidential patronage, lavishly and publicly thrust upon all who were supposed to be purchasable, have issued their orders and given their ultimatum. By an increase of at least two Congressmen, the delegation in Congress from this State will be stronger and bolder than ever. John Covode, the worst thorn in the side of the Democracy of any man in this State, has been returned from this district, composed of Indiana, Fayette and Westmoreland counties, by 358 majority. Col. Henry Calk, one of the most popular men in the State, is elected from the Schuylkill and Lebanon district, by 215 majority. In Philadelphia we lose one Senator, by the election of William McCandless over Jeremiah Nichols. This district has the navy yard in it, and was colonized by some 2,500 voters from the South and other parts of the country, sent there by Andrew Johnson and his tools, in order to defeat the will of the people. Had Andrew Johnson remained true to the party, our majority would, in all probability, have reached in that city twenty or twenty-five thousand. But his treachery and bribery have only called forth from the people greater efforts, and he is answered in a manner that should teach him a lesson for all time.
