

The Juniata Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, October 17, 1866.
TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WANTED AT THIS OFFICE.—A load of good dry wood.

EYRE & LANDELL, 4th & Arch Streets, Philadelphia, have completed their Improvement, and are now offering their usual display of Dry Goods to Purchasers. Read advertisement in another column.

J. M. THOMPSON, Perryville, Pa., will furnish the Philadelphia Daily Inquirer to subscribers at 60 cents per month. New stock Dime Novels, Books, Stationery, &c., always on hand.

BOARDERS.—Mrs. Yorgy, residing in Patterson, is prepared to accommodate persons with boarding. As Mrs. Yorgy has no other way of making a livelihood we ask for her a liberal share of public patronage.

THE CIRCUS.—We have witnessed several circuses making their grand entries into town, but have never seen anything to equal the gorgeous display made by Howe's Circus on Wednesday last. Their performances were good and had it not been for the rain, would have been much better.

FALL with its "scarred and yellow leaf" is again with us, and the trees present a beautiful appearance; the flowers have faded and withered away, and no longer does their fragrance reek the air; the birds have migrated to some warmer country, and many dreary days will elapse ere our ears shall again be greeted with their sweet music.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday last Rev. E. W. Kirby rescued a son of Calvin Butler's of this place, from drowning. The boy had been playing along the canal and accidentally fell in and Mr. Kirby passing by at the time caught him when in the act of drowning. Another warning to parents to keep their children away from the canal.

HIGH WATER.—The recent heavy rains along the Juniata caused the river to raise very rapidly, and on Saturday it was bank full and covered with drift wood. In the Narrows above town the tow-path was covered with water, doing but little if any damage. Many of our citizens were very busy catching drift, and some of them were successful in securing a fine lot of wood.

THE FAIR.—The Juniata County Agricultural Society held their annual fair at Perryville on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. It rained every day of the fair, but notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was quite a number of persons present, it was the same at this exhibition as at all others—no person went to see the fair, but every one had a little business to attend to or they had a friend they expected to see there.

THIS government is considering and will probably adopt an entirely new system of small coinage. The cent will have a raised star, with a hole through it in the centre. The two cent pieces will have two perforated stars, and the three cent coins three. Thus by holding either denomination to the light, or by simply touching it so as to feel the holes, the value of a piece of money will be unmistakably known. The half dimes and dimes are a larger coin of better metal, but are to be distinguished by one or two perforated stars.

TO SUBSCRIBERS RESIDING OUTSIDE OF THE COUNTY.—For one year we have furnished the SENTINEL to a great many subscribers residing outside of the County, many of whom are in arrears for that year. A few weeks ago we sent out bills to each subscriber indebted to us, expecting each one to be prompt in remitting the amount due us, as we had been in sending him the paper. Few, however responded, consequently this will be the last paper furnished to any subscriber residing outside of Juniata county, who is indebted to us for subscription.

RONNERT.—Mr. John McKinley, boarder at the Pennsylvania Hotel, in this place, was robbed of an overcoat, shirt and several other articles of wearing apparel on Thursday morning last. Some of the men connected with the circus were staying at the hotel and in the morning when they left town, Mr. McKinley's coat very mysteriously disappeared. As John worked hard to earn the coat, he was loath to part with it on the terms of the showman, and he followed the circus to Harrisburg, where he made complaint to the Mayor, when one of his detectives was put on the lookout for the thief, and succeeded in securing the coat and lodging the showman in the Dauphin county jail to await his trial at the next court.

FREE FIGHTS.—Our usually quiet town was the scene of several free fights on Wednesday last. Some of our Democratic friends from the rural districts managed to get a little too much whisky on, and being bad over the defeat of their pet rebel, Clymer, it took but few words to get up a fight.

Mr. Amos Snyder, of Patterson, was attacked in a brutal manner by a wild Irishman named Jimmy Graham.

Mr. Snyder prosecuted him and he is now under bail for his appearance at court. A certain constable from the country, who had behaved rather freely, instead of trying to quell the disturbances, seemed to delight in urging them on. We have no doubt he will carry on his game of "crowding drinks" until he runs against some one who will give him a skinner.

A CARD.

PATTERSON, Oct. 14, 1866.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—Sir:—As I am about to leave the valley of the Juniata for the purpose of taking up my residence in the "far West," I desire the use of a short space in your columns for the purpose of returning my thanks to my many friends in the county for their expressions of good will and friendship, and many acts of kindness on the eve of my departure. And especially do I desire to thank the Juniata Cornet Brass Band, of this place, for the serenade tendered me on Saturday evening. The compliment was unexpected and therefore the more highly appreciated coming as it did from gentle men who know me and with whom I have associated for years. I shall remember it as one of the most pleasing events of my life. My friends and neighbors, Mr. Todd and Lady have my thanks for entertaining the Band on my behalf. Thanking all again for their kindness I remain yours and their's in the bonds of fellowship.

New Advertisements.

A GENTS WANTED for the Camp, the Field and the Hospital. Dr. Light and Shadow of the Great Rebellion.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romances or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict that many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this will be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pique of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings by the best artists which are really beautiful. Worthy of examination as specimens of the art. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp picket, spy, scout,古今, siege and battle-field adventures; thrilling acts of bravery, wit, drollery, comic and ludicrous anecdotes, etc., etc.

Anecdotes as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic details, skillfully written, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous, romantic and stirring. We have agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion.
