

The Juniata Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 28, 1866.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

WE NEED MONEY.—Will our friends who are indebted to us for subscription, advertising and job work, call and settle.—Paper and material for printing is exceedingly high, and we are compelled to require prompt settlement of the small bills due us.

On Saturday last, a party of sportsmen from Bechtown, Tuscumbia township, captured a fine Buck, weighing 195 lbs, with a noble set of horns. This kind of fun make gunners merry.

FIRE.—On Saturday evening last our citizens were greatly alarmed by the cry of fire. A chimney in the house occupied by Henry Heck accidentally caught the fire being put out without doing any damage.

AS IRIGA OR NEWS.—Those of our subscribers who are in arrears seem to think that we have no use for money.—To all such we would say rest the item at the head of this column and then come to town next week, to court, prepared to pay us.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET CHEAP PICTURES.—S. T. Brackbill would respectfully announce to the citizens of Perryville and vicinity that he has put down the prices of Photographs, four for $1.00 or $2.50 per dozen; 12 Jems for $1.00.—Persons wishing pictures from old Negatives, I will furnish 6 for $1.00.

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers at private sale, his property located on Main street, Millington, Pa. The improvements are a Dwelling House with Store room attached, &c. Persons wishing to purchase should call on

H. D. WELLER,

Millington, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE.—Mrs. Nangle, of Patterson borough, will sell on next Saturday her entire stock of personal property, consisting of Two Fat Hogs, Six pair Bedsteads, Table Bureau, Wash. Stands, Looking Glasses, Chairs, Stoves, Cupboards, Seats, Eighty Yards of Carpet, Copper Kettles, &c. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock of said day.

COUNTERFEIT NICKELS.—Counterfeit five cent pieces, in imitation of the "nickels" recently issued by the government, are in circulation, and are reported to be more plentiful than the genuine half dollars. The bogus coin is said to be lighter in weight and darker in appearance than the genuine, but the genuine is so imperfectly known that it is probable large amounts of this stuff may be shoved upon the too gullible public.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Miss Laura Hensler, daughter of the Franklin county treasurer, was fatally injured by being thrown from a buggy, between Chambersburg and McConnellsburg, a few days ago. She and a lady named Mrs. Baker were in the buggy. While the driver, a boy named Gordon, aged thirteen years, was walking beside the team for a short time, the horse took fright, ran down a hill and upset the vehicle, throwing out the ladies. Mrs. Baker was seriously injured but will recover. Miss Hensler died later, or five days after the accident.—Harlanburg Telegraph.

A MAN COMMITS SUICIDE FROM THE CONVICTION THAT HE IS HIS OWN GRANDFATHER.—A melancholy case of suicide occurred on the 18th instant, on the Pindell Farm, near Titusville. The name of the unfortunate man has not yet been discovered, but it appears from the following pathetic effusion, found in his left boot, that the suicide was not instigated by the exploration of "dry holes," as at first supposed:

"I married a widow who had a grown up daughter. My father visited our house very often, fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law, and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Some time afterwards my wife had a son—he was my father's brother-in-law, and my uncle, for he was the brother of my step-mother. My father's wife, i.e., my step-daughter, had also a son; he was of course my brother, and in the meantime my grand-child, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grand-child at the same time. And as the husband of a person's grand mother is his grand father, I was my own grand-father."

PUBLIC SALE.—Joel Kinser will sell, at his residence in Walkertown, near Van Werton Tuesday, December 11th, valuable personal property, consisting of Horses, Cows, young Cattle, Hogs, Farming implements, Hay by the ton, &c.

CALL AROUND.—Mickey & Pennel have just received from the eastern cities a large stock of New Goods and are now offering them out at their store in Patterson. They charge nothing for exhibiting their goods. Give them a call.

MILLINGTON, Nov. 19, 1866.

We, the undersigned, agree to keep our stores and shops closed on Thanksgiving day, November 29th, 1866:

J. M. Beloff, John Kiser, D. W. Harley & Co., London & Jackson, Bellman Brothers, John Yeskly, T. H. McCallum, T. E. Parker, S. R. Notestein, S. R. Notestein, Frow & Parker.

SOPHIA DAVIS.—The Whisky Boat of an editor of the Juniata Republican, pays his compliments to us in his usual spread eagle style. A person not acquainted with this renegade, would imagine that his influence was vast. The vote in Juniata county during the last election shows his influence to be tremendous; the county gained 17 votes to three years. This gain we presume is owing to the fact that Davis took bold and open stand in defense of my policy. Surely Davis has reason to be proud of his influence. Just think of it, "more Heels" don't you think you did well?—a gain of 17; why that would be a change of $1. It is easy to account for the one-half—it undoubtedly was polled by Davis. But how he managed to control eight whole men, we are at a loss to understand. Yes, we were removed from office, and as he says, for political reasons; we have the proud satisfaction of knowing that it was not on account of intemperance. If our memory serves us right, and we think it does, this same Davis was also relieved from the office of Assistant Assessor of Juniata county not for political reasons but on account of the most degrading of vices, DRUNKENNESS. We advise the knight of the pen to sign his name to the temperance pledge; then he may be some a respectable man, and be of some account; at present he is deserving of the censure of his brother journalists. We would call his attention to the following lines; may he profit by them, is our earnest wish:

"While the lamb holds out to born,
The little lamb may return."

Snyder County Tribune.—The Tribune's advice is a little too late, the late Assistant Assessor and present temporary Post Master at Millington, alleged to above, signed his name long since and is at present an active member (inside) of one of the Good Templar Lodges in this place. The Tribune should take a little back, as Brother Davis is a brick w'm since he has become a Templar and scarcely ever drinks more than he wants, unless it should be on Saturday, when he may possibly take an extra quart to do him over Sundays. At all events he is a Templar, and if the editor of the Tribune don't believe it, let him come over and smell his breath.

PHALON'S COUNTERFEIT.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severing affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used free of charge, with directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a good cure for CONSUMPTION. AVRAHAM, AMHERST, CONN. Come and all Tarrant and Long Aftonians. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he considers to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cure him entirely, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, rate, by return mail, will please address:
