

Juniata Sentinel.

A union of lakes, and a union of lands, A union no power shall sever; A union of hearts, and a union of hands, And the American Union forever!

MIFFLINTOWN, Wednesday Morning, December 19, 1866

H. H. WILSON, Editor and Publisher

THE JUNIATA SENTINEL has the Largest Circulation of any paper published in this County. It is therefore the best advertising medium.

INAUGURATION OF GOV. GEARY.

It is proposed that the Boys in Blue, and the members of any other military organizations existing in the State, shall participate in the ceremonies attending the inauguration of Gen. John W. Geary as Governor of the Commonwealth.

THE FORTIETH CONGRESS.

By a vote of 127 to 30, the House of Representatives passed a bill calling the Fortieth Congress together on the 4th of March. Its passage in the Senate by a vote of more than two thirds is certain.

Had such a law as this been on the statute book on the 3d of March, 1865, the course of Andrew Johnson and his "policy" could have been arrested before he did so much mischief by usurping the legislative power of the government.

DON'T LIKE IT.

W. W. Davis, of the True Republican, takes occasion in the last issue of that paper to deny the authorship of the letter written to Mr. Levi Light on October 3d, and published in last week's SENTINEL.

MEXICO.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—By the terms of surrender Canales, with all his force, will henceforth act with and under Escobedo.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

St. Louis, Dec. 7.—Letters from Fort Kearney and Smith, dated Nov. 1st, give accounts of Indian outrages and murders during the past fall.

The rumor here of the progress in the direction of Mejia with an Imperial force, and of a late route of Liberals on this road, under Marango and Trereno, is ridiculed by Escobedo.

During the month of November 66 emigrant vessels of all classes arrived at New York from Europe, bringing 3,145 cabin and 17,863 steerage passengers.

TRUE AND BRAVE WORDS.

The fourth annual report of the Union League of Philadelphia is published, from which we copy the closing paragraphs. They are good, strong brave words which we hope are not needed by either Congress or the people.

Our duties are plain before us. In the possible struggle that may at no distant day arise between Congress and that body which was once our Administration, we shall stand with the Congress of our recent choice, rather than with the men who have betrayed us, and whom he have also repudiated.

With our overwhelming majorities in both branches of Congress, we have no need for his services beyond that limit which the Constitution imposes upon him. We all know what would be the consequences of his infringement of that sacred document.

THE TEST OATH.

Various stories have recently emanated from Washington in reference to the position of the Supreme Court in relation to the test oath prescribed by Congress during the Rebellion.

—The cotton crop of Alabama for the present year will reach one million five hundred thousand bales.

GENERAL GRANT BUYS A FARM.

General Grant has sent a check for twenty-six thousand dollars to a real estate man, to be used in the purchase of the old farm owned by his father-in-law, on the Goose road, ten miles from the city of St. Louis as a final homestead for himself and family.

THE PRESIDENT AND PATRONAGE

The newspapers which steadily upheld the national armies while they battled with rebellion, now almost as unanimously advocate measures abridging the power and the patronage of the President.

At Mobile there was a most delightful and happy little private affair gotten up to the mutual delight of the "Gallant Sons of the Sunny South" and the Hon. Mr. Doolittle.

It is by such as these that the Southern people are led to ignore the stern fact, that the loyal people of the country mean to lay down the conditions on which the South shall resume their relations as States to the National Union.

—The Government has commenced civil action to recover $500,000 damages against John Devlin, the principal operator in the distillery frauds in Brooklyn.

—A hotel proprietor in Harrisburg was cleaning his revolver, when it went off and the ball lodged in his body.

—A young lady in Fredonia, New Hampshire, was whipped by her father, for "sitting up nights" with her lover.

—A cane is being made in Norfolk from the wood of the rebel ram Merrimack, and is to be raffled for at a fair.

—Seven thousand dollars in gold and silver were found by an old hunter, buried in a keg, near the Mississippi river, below Wolf Island.

GRIM AMUSEMENTS.

Senator Doolittle, before the meeting of Congress, and after the people of the loyal North spoke through the October and November elections, visited the South.
