CONGRESS.

The Senate re-assembled at 12 o'clock on Wednesday. The bill and report, prepared by Commissioner Wells, were referred to the Finance Committee, and 2,000 copies of the bill ordered to be printed. Petitions against cuftailment of the national currency were referred to the Committee on Finance. A petition from the sugar merchants of New York against any change in the duty on sugar.

A resolution was adopted, after debate, directing the Judiciary Committee to in quire it legislation on the Constitutional Amendment is necessary to prevent the sale of persons into slavery for a term of States lately in rebellion, nothing should years as a punishment for crime.

A bill was introduced vesting the appointment of the United States murshal of the District in the Supreme Court. A resolution instructing the Military Committee to inquire if any legislation is necessary to prevent the enslavement of Indians or any system of peonage in the Territory of New Mexico, was adopted.

The bill to prevent and punish fraudulent representations for inducing the emigration of negroes and mulatoes from the country was called up, but the Senate adjourned without taking action.

In the House, the Secretary of the Treasury was directed, by a resolution, to communicate the facts in his possession in regard to the loss of the steamer Evening Star, and also to institute an investigation into the loss of the steamer Commodore. Leave was asked to introduce a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judici ary to report what measures can be taken to prevent the Supreme Court from releasing and discharging the assassins of Mr. Lincoln, and the conspirators who made the attempt to release the rebel prisoners at Chicago, and to inquire into the expediency of repealing the law of 1863, under which the decision was made. Objection was made and it went over. The bill of Mr. Stevens, providing for restoring to States lately in insurrection their full political rights, was taken up. The question was upon the adoption of the substitute which was read, but no sction was taken. In Committee of the Whole Mr. Kelly reviewed the report of Secretary of the Treasury, and denounced the project of paying off the debt in the present generation.

ADDRESS OF LOUIS W. HALL, OF BLAIR COUNTY,

On taking the Chair as Speaker of the Senate, January 1, 1867.

SENATORS :- Time honored custom would seem to demand a brief expression of the feelings which animate me, in entering upon my duties as your presiding officer. Whilst the honor you have conferred, affects me sensibly, I cannot felicitate myself upon its attainment, unless I prove equal to the discharge of its funcit I shall be enabled so to preside as to maintain the dignity of this body, by a strict and impartial observance of parliamentary rules, whilst every Senator is treated with a proper degree of deference and respect. The Sconte of the ancient Roman Commonwealth was looked upon with reverential awe. It was not that forced deference which is paid to imperial power. It was due to the virtues, the services, and the illustrious lives of the Senators themselves; to the noble sentiments they enunciated, the wise laws they readers of the SENTINEL the last Mes-lensered, and the gravity and dignity sage that Gov.
