ANOTHER CHANGE - Again the Post Office has changed hands. Mr. Walters, who has been attending the office for! Davis, having become ashamed of the company he was in, "pulled stakes." The office was in the market for several days. Pavis swearing all the while that he wished Andy Johnson and his Post Office was in h -- or some other equally bad place, and not until Saturday could a person be found who was willing to take the elephant off his hands. The office will, we believe, remain at the same place, at least for a short time. This is another sad disappointment to Busty Plum and a portion of the Robel army quartered in Mifflin, who swear by the Constitution as interpreted by Andy Johnson.

TOATENTED MAY 20, 1806. - This is an arti le for washing without subbing except id very durty places, which will require a very slight cub, and unlike other preparations offered for a like purpose, will not not the ctoruss, but will leave their much warran than ordinary methods, without the usual wear and tear.

It removes grease spots as if by magic, and antens the dirt by sorting, so that reasing will in ordinary cases calledy remove it.

This powder is prepared in accordance with chemical science, and open a process poen-liar to itself, which is assored by Letters Paterl. It has been in use for more than a year, and has proved itself on universal favorite wherever it has been used. Among the advantages claimed are the following, viz: it saves all the expense of soap usually used on cutton and linea goods. It saves most of the labor of rubbing, and wear and tear.

Also, for eleming windows it is unsurpassed With one quarter the time and labor usually required it imparts a beautiful gloss and lustre, much superior to any other mode,-No water required except to insisten the pow-

Pirections with each package. And can be readily appreciated by a single rial. The cost of wanting for a family of five or six persons will not expect THEES

The manufacturers of this possiler are aware that many uncless compounds have been introduced to the public which have roted the cloth, or failed in removing the dirt. but knowing the betransic accollence of this article, they confidently tried time is as being adapted to meet a demand which has long existed, and which has heretofere remained unsupplied. Manufactured by
