

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GREAT INVENTION.—The Patent Gasoline Safety Lamp, an advertisement of which will be found in another column, is destined to supersede all others. It is non-explosive, requires no wick or chimney and uses a liquid fifty per cent. cheaper than coal oil.

A well executed $5 counterfeit greenback has just made its appearance. It is one of the best yet put in circulation, and is dated March 10, 1862. In the counterfeit the large figure 5 in the centre touches the shading of the "United States," in the genuine it does not—This is the only discrepancy by which the spurious note can be detected.

WEDDINGS.—Our young friends—and old ones too—who are anxious to learn how many weddings a married couple may lawfully have, will be pleased to know that one year after marriage comes the paper wedding; five years after marriage the wooden wedding; ten years, the tin wedding; twenty-five years, the silver wedding; fifty years, the golden wedding and seventy-five years, the diamond wedding.

DEATH OF AN ESTEEMED CITIZEN.—It is our painful duty this week, to chronicle the death of one of our most prominent citizens, the Hon. John Beale. He had been in ill health for a number of weeks. His death occurred on Monday, January 7th at the age of sixty-eight years and fifteen days. Judge Beale was one of our most distinguished citizens, he had filled a position on the Bench as Associate Judge, and was afterwards elected and served a term in (the winter of 1853) the Pennsylvania Legislature. In the death of Judge Beale the community has lost a kind friend and the church a consistent and useful member.

PAYING THE $100 BOUNTY.—The Paymaster General has commenced paying the $100 extra bounty, provided for by the act of July 28, 1865. We were this morning shown the first draft sent to this city for payment of the bounty named. The claim had been forwarded to Washington on the 17th of October, by Mr. Sullivan S. Child, and this morning the soldier received his money from Mr. C. It would seem that less than three months is required for the collection of the bounty, from the time the application is forwarded to Washington.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

INFERNAL ACT.—Wednesday morning of this week, Dr. Thornton of this place, found the tongue of a valuable horse cut entirely out, and lying in the feed trough. The perpetrator of this most fiendish, inhuman act, is not yet known. We really did not suppose that in our community there could be a human being so totally deprived of humanity as to deal thus with an innocent irrational creature. This dastardly act deserves the severest punishment known to our laws. A man who could be guilty of such a deed, would not hesitate to commit murder.—Lewistown Chronicle.

THE RAT NUISANCE.—Catching rats is often difficult, and old rats are particularly cunning. Laying around poison is dangerous not alone, but objectionable, for the reason that rats may die at inaccessible spots and contaminate the atmosphere with the well-known detestable odor. A better plan has been adopted by one of our correspondents, by which he takes advantage of the cunning habits of the rats. He covers the floor near the rat hole with a thin layer of moist caustic potash; when the rats walk on this makes their feet sore; they lick with their tongues; it makes their mouth sore, and the result is that they shun this locality not alone, but appear to tell all the neighboring rats about it, and eventually the house is entirely abandoned by them, notwithstanding the neighborhood may be teeming with rats.

THE GAME LAWS.—We call the attention of those interested to the fact that the time for killing either pheasant or quails has already expired. Attention is called to the change made in the game law last winter. Act 11th April, 1866, P. L., p. 714: SEC. 2. That no person shall shoot, kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the fifteenth of August, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of October in each and every year, under a penalty of five dollars for each offense.

Section six is a re-enactment of section six of the act of 1858, with this amendment: That instead of imprisonment for two days, it shall be ten days, without bail.

DEATH.—Our young friend, R. M. Keever, Dental Surgeon, is again in town. He has taken rooms at the Juniata Hotel, where he awaits the calls of any who may desire anything in his line of business. He strives to please.

LECTURE.—Rev. O. A. McLean of Lewistown, will deliver a Lecture on the "Dignity of Labor," in the Court House, on Friday evening next, the 18th inst., at 7 o'clock P. M. Tickets of admission, 25, to be had at Weidman's Book store. Milfill, Hecht & Strayers in Patterson.—The Rev. McLean is an able Lecturer, and we trust our citizens will turn out en masse as we can assure them that the Lecture will be both entertaining and instructive.

EVERY FARMER should send for the "Tribune Almanac and Political Register for 1867." It contains the election returns of all the States and Territories, the vote for President in 1864, 1860 and 1856, with many other useful things.—Send for a copy. Only 20 cents. Address, Tribune Association, New York.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—On Monday last quite a serious affray occurred at the Cuba Mills, about a mile and a half above this place, between Solomon Kauffman and John M. Bartley. It appears, from what we can learn, that they had been quarreling for some time, and on Monday Mr. Bartley went to the mill for the purpose of removing some property, when Mr. Kauffman, fearing violent hands might be laid on him, went into the mill and fastened the door. Bartley broke open the door and was in the act of entering when Mr. Kauffman struck him over the head with a bar, of iron, knocking him down. Medical aid was immediately summoned, and we have been informed by the physician in attendance that although the skull is cracked the patient will recover. In the meantime Mr. Kauffman came to town and surrendered himself to the proper authorities and was released on giving necessary bail.

Her family especially have suffered an irreparable loss. She bore her affliction with christian patience and fortitude, and died in the full assurance of a blissful immortality.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.—One of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dupuy, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1861. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as the Pills, and effectually cured by the use of Dr. J. Dupuy's French Pink Pills, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of the certain remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what is recommended for: if not the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the boxes are followed.—Price one and two dollars per box, according to size.
