

The Juniata Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, February 13, 1887.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

We hope our friends will bear in mind that the SENTINEL OFFICE is now located on Bridge street, three doors below Bedford's corner...

LECTURE.—By request Capt. S. Adams Lee, will deliver a Lecture in the Hall of the Orphans' School at McAlisterville, on Friday evening, February 16th.

FLOUR.—Persons wishing a good article of flour, purchased at the best steam mills in the State, can be accommodated by calling at William Maxwell's Bakery and Flour Store, Millintown, Pa.

SAVING.—Does your father take the paper? Yes two of 'em. One of them belongs to Mr. Smith, and the other to Mr. Thompson. I look 'em both of the steps as regular as can be.

FOUND.—One day last week one of the scholars of the Orphan School found a dollar on the pavement in front of Mr. Nostling's Hotel.

SENSITIVE.—Horace Greeley, in a lecture recently delivered on "Advertising," said: "Some men who know enough to confine their advertisements to journals of their own creed and party."

GRAND HOP.—The last Grand Hop of the season will be given by Mr. Wm. Reese, at the Patterson House, on the evening of February 22—Washington's Birth day.

BARN BURN.—On last Sunday morning about nine o'clock the barn belonging to Mr. Henry Angley, in Licking Creek Valley, Milford township, was, with its contents, entirely destroyed by fire.

AUDITING BOUNTY ACCOUNTS.—The Chambersburg Repository says: It is probably not generally known that a general law of the last session of the Legislature, approved April 11th, 1865, requires the Bounty accounts of every district to be carefully audited by the Township Auditors.

Married.

In Lewistown, on the 9th inst., by the Rev. J. B. Reimann, J. J. QUAY, of Strode's Mills, to Miss MOLLIE ROOK, of Lewistown.

Died.

On the 7th inst., in McAlisterville, ELLA, daughter of R. and A. E. Carey, aged 13 days.

LIFE INSURANCE.—The World Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is one of the best companies of the kind in the United States, having a paid up capital of over $200,000.
