IMPEACHMENT.

Shall the President be impeached, or shall he not? A spirited discussion of this question in the public prints has been kept up for some time, but it has been characterized more by political rancor than by calm judgment. In a momentous question of this kind it becomes all who undertake to discuss it, to do so with the coolness and candor becoming the importance of the subject. Some make it entirely a question of expediency, others consult only their fears, while a third class view it only as it is likely to affect the prospects of one or the other of the political parties. In a question of right or wrong, expediency must not be consulted. In momentous national affairs, duty, and not party considerations or our own comfort, must guide us in our decisions. A committee has been regularly appointed to investigate the matter and ascertain if there is any ground for impeachment. Let the committee appointed for that purpose carefully and honestly investigate the charges and if upon such investigation there be found just and sufficient cause for impeachment, let the present, or next, Congress proceed to impeach the President according to the manner provided by the Constitution. If any additional legislation is required to secure an impartial trial and preserve the peace and order of the country during such trial, let it be done by the present Congress. Until the Committee reports, no one can tell whether grounds of impeachment will be found to exist or not. But if it is once shown that the President has been guilty of such misdemeanors in office as to make him liable to impeachment, let it be done promptly and fearlessly. The threat of armed resistance must not be permitted to influence in a question of national duty, let it be heeded and prepared for if need be, but let not Congress be intimidated thereby. The people will sustain the Congress they have elected, in all lawful and necessary duties, and rebellion against the regularly and lawfully constituted authorities of the land will be as promptly and sternly suppressed in the future as they have been in the past. Let it be known, that the highest officer of the land, as well as the humblest citizen is, and will be held, strictly amenable to the laws and that any infraction thereof will be surely and promptly punished. This being once clearly understood, the impeachment and punishment even of the President, if guilty of misconduct, will not weaken but strengthen our Republican institutions.

THE NEW ORLEANS MASSACRE.

The Report of the Congressional Committee, appointed to investigate the New Orleans massacre, its causes and incidents, has now been before the country some days. The facts presented therein have been duly considered, and the natural inferences therefrom determined. The effect has been to confirm the general accuracy of the newspaper statements made at the time of that lamentable occurrence, and to deepen the impression produced as to the culpability of the President of the United States and the municipal authorities of New Orleans.

The massacre was not the result of a fortuitous collision, such as might happen in any community where popular feeling was exasperated on a topic of general concernment. It was deliberately planned and executed in broad daylight, the officers of the law acting as the leading spirits, and furnishing apparent immunity to all shades of ruffians who were ready to wring towards them or the public. The murderers were rebels; the murdered, loyalists. The crime which the victims expiated was devotion to once to the Union and to Liberty. The bloody tragedy was an expression of the intense animosity felt by the rebels against the defenders of the government, and an exemplification of the desperate means to which they are ready to resort, upon the slightest pretext, whenever an occasion offers.

Nineteen States have thus far ratified and thirteen rejected the Constitutional Amendment.

JOHN H. SURRATT.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—A bench warrant was to day issued from the Criminal Court by Judge Fisher, and is as follows:

District of Columbia, to wit:—The United States of America to the Marshal of the District of Columbia, greeting.

We command you that you take John H. Surratt, late of Washington county, if he shall be found within the county of Washington, in your said district and him safely keep, so that you have his body before the criminal court of the District of Columbia, at the City of Washington, immediately, to answer unto the United States of America, and concerning a certain felony by him committed, as it is presented, and so forth. Hereof fail not, at your peril, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness, Hon. George P. Fisher, Judge of our said court, at the City of Washington, the 19th day of February, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven. Issued the 19th day of February, 1867. R. J. MEIGS, Clerk.

On the back of which is the following indorsement: No. 4731. United States vs. John H. Surratt. Bench warrant.—Murder.

This afternoon, between four and five o'clock, and soon after notification by the Navy Department of its readiness to deliver Surratt to the civil authorities, Marshal Gooding proceeded to the Navy Yard with the warrant, and having exhibited it to Admiral Radford, the latter, with a guard of marines, repaired to the Satara and soon returned, bringing with him the prisoner, whom he delivered to the Marshal.

Surratt was in Zouave dress, such as he wore when he was captured in Alexandria, Egypt, and hand cuffed. Having been placed in a hack, an armed guard, he was driven to the jail, which he reached at 5 o'clock, and was placed in the custody of the Warden, who has lately fitted up three iron-clad cells, one on each floor which are used for the confinement of murderers and desperate characters. He was placed in one of these cells, from whence there is no possible chance of escape, and therefore no doubt of his safe keeping.

No one will be allowed to see him excepting his counsel and the officers of the prison.

The prisoner positively denies that he is John H. Surratt.

LATER.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—It is understood that ex-Gov. Thomas H. Ford and Col. Sol. Hinkle have been detained as counsel in the case of John H. Surratt, on the charge of murder.

The prisoner had heretofore repeatedly denied that he was Surratt. But yesterday, when he was delivered into the hands of the United States Marshal, the following colloquy occurred:

Marshal—"Is your name John H. Surratt?"

Prisoner—"It is."

Marshal—"Then, sir, I arrest you by virtue of a bench warrant issued to me by the Criminal court of the District of Columbia."

In the State Senate on the 15th inst., the Judiciary Committee reported that the complaints made of unjust charges by railroads on passengers and freight were well grounded, and asked further time for the examination of witnesses.—A bill was discussed giving the proceeds of the lands donated by Congress for agricultural colleges in the State, to the college in Centre county. A motion to postpone was lost, and it was passed after a third reading.

The two dominative, unaltered and idiotic beings, some years since shown in this country as the "Aztec Children," (brother and sister so stated) were lately married in London. It is said the bride's dress was of white satin and lace, valued at $10,000, and that the parties were much more absorbed in the contemplation of their finery—She with her jewels and lace, and he with his watch—than with the solemn rites they were solemnizing.

The meteorologists report that the month of January ult., was the first in seventy years that passed without a thaw. Although some drops may have fallen from the eaves of houses, and other places where the rays of the sun had a fair chance, there was nothing like a general or even partial thaw during the entire month.

Mrs. Cobb, the pardon broker, still lives and flourishes, and she secured a pardon for a rebel on President Johnson's own order, on the 7th of this month.

Miss Harris, who shot her seducer Burroughs, in the treasury building, at Washington, two years ago, has just been admitted to the Insane Asylum.

The present population of Wisconsin is estimated at one million.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The XXXIXth Congress, after two years of long and weary debate, has crowned its labors by adopting a plan for the reconstruction of the Union which the people are willing to accept, and by which we trust, Peace and Justice may be secured to all the States and all the inhabitants of the land. The bill, as passed by Congress and sent to the President for his approval, is as follows:

Whereas, No legal State government or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas, it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and republican State governments can be legally established; therefore

Be it enacted, &c., That the said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States as hereinafter mentioned; and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the First District, North Carolina and South Carolina the Second District, Georgia, Alabama and Florida the Third District, Mississippi and Arkansas the Fourth District, and Louisiana and Texas the Fifth District.

Sec. 2. That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army not below the rank of Brigadier General, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder, and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the public peace and criminals; and to the end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or in his judgment, when it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose; and all interference under color of State authority with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted, and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life and liberty of any person shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they may conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death under this act shall be carried into execution without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. When the people of any of the said rebel States shall have formed a constitution and government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of said State twenty-one years old and upward, of whatever race, color, or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion or for felony at common law, and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates, and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates, and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval and Congress shall have approved the same and when said State by a vote its Legislature elected under said constitution shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article 14, and when said article shall have become part of the Constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on taking the oaths prescribed by law, and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall, by law, be admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, civil governments that may exist therein, shall be deemed provisional only, and shall be, in all respects, subject to the paramount authority of the United States, which, at any time, may abolish, modify, control and supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments, all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act, and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments, who would be disqualified from holding office under the third article of said constitutional amendment.

The first State election in this year will take place in New Hampshire on the second Tuesday of March. The two parties have nominated their candidate for Governor, and the canvass has commenced. Gen. Harrison is the Republican candidate, and John G. Sinclair the Copperhead. Three Members of Congress will be chosen at the same election.

Opposition to the Bounty bill, lately passed by Congress, is carried on with great bitterness by the Copperhead organ and leaders.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,
Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew.—She restores to happiness those who, from fatal errors, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that over-awe and predominate in the configuration—under the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destitute of comfort, and not worth a fig; Combed, come youthful, combed, and fair; And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
REPARATOR FOR CAPILLI.
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, and hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few prominent practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reperator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address, W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. Feb. 20, 1867-ly.
