A union of lakes, and a union of lands,
A union no power shall sever;
A union of hearts, and a union of hands,
And the American Union forever!

MIFFLINTOWN.
Wednesday Morning, May 22, 1867.

H. H. WILSON, Editor and Publisher

THE JUNIATA SENTINEL is the largest circulation of any paper published in this County. It is therefore the best advertising medium. It is a paper, truly loyal, ably conducted, a first class Localist, and well worthy of the patronage of every loyal citizen in the County.

Call of the County Committee.

The Union Republican Committee will meet at the SENTINEL Office, in the Borough of Mifflintown, on SATURDAY, MAY 25th, 1867, at 1 o'clock P. M.

The object of the meeting is to elect Conferees to meet the Conferees of the other counties, to select Delegates to represent the District in the next Republican State Convention.

The following gentlemen compose the Committee:

- Mifflintown—A. H. Martin, C. McClellan, Patterson—B. S. Coak, H. M. Groninger, Fernanagh—C. B. Horning, John Steiner, Perryville—Chas. Lintburn, S. Buck, Beale—John Woodward, jr. J. P. Doyle, Spruce Hill—A. J. Patterson, James Patton, Tuscarora—Thomas Morrow, Wm. Hart, Laek—J. T. Dennis, Benj. Walls, Black Leg—Robt. McIntyre, Samuel Shearer, A. H. MARTIN, Chairman.

WHO IS GUILTY OF PERJURY.

In last week's True Republican we notice an article charging the publishers of the three papers having the largest circulation in the county with perjury. A charge like this, if it came from any responsible source, would be deserving of more than a passing notice, but the publishers of that filthy sheet are so notorious for misrepresentation in their vain efforts to cover up their own guilt and assuage their own consciences that any charges coming from them against any individual falls harmless at their feet. We will remark here that in our efforts to increase our circulation, in view of the fact that the public advertisements were to be inserted in the three papers having the largest circulation, we were aided by the entire Republican party, and it would be strange indeed, if, with all this aid, we could not increase the circulation of the SENTINEL a few hundred, when the editors of the Republican, a paper that has no party, and that decent men of all parties refuse to have in their families, sneer that they increased their list three hundred. Who is guilty of perjury, and who are the men that charge us with that crime? Sore-Heels Davis and Beefy Allison make the charge. Let us see if Sore-Heels is guilty of perjury. He told us and many other Republicans in the county that at the time the remains of Abraham Lincoln were lying in state, at Harrisburg, he went to that city to see them, and that we will use his own language—while looking on the dead body of Abraham Lincoln he placed his right hand on his heart and took an oath that he would never vote for a Democrat as long as he lived, and called God to witness, that if he ever violated the oath then and there taken, he hoped that his right arm might wither.

There are many Republicans, and Democrats too, in the county who will be qualified that this is the language he said he used on that occasion, and yet he boasted, on the street in Mifflin, after the election last fall, that he had voted the entire Democratic ticket. Who is guilty of perjury and blasphemy? Beefy Allison, the Scotch terrier, with the Stuart blood, a nondescript who plays second fiddle to Sore-Heels, drinks bad whisky and stalks through the streets of Mifflin a living witness, that in his case at least, the departed spirits have taken beastly form and are haunting the habitations of men, is the other beauty who charges us with perjury. He enlisted in the army and took an oath to be true to the Government and serve it faithfully.—This oath he violated every day he drew pay from the Government. He was noted for keeping close to the beef wagon and quartermaster's stores, where danger was scarce and whisky plenty.

These two worthies who charge their neighbors with crime, joined the Good Templars. They each took a solemn obligation to refrain forever from intoxicating drinks; they attended the meetings for several weeks, and on each occasion, and even while under the influence of whisky, renewed the solemn obligation.—Behold them now! common tipplers, continually under the influence of whisky, a disgrace to the form their Maker gave them, and fit only to mingle with their kind—the beasts of the earth. Who are guilty of perjury?

Sore-Heels and the "blooded" fellow can, with impunity, charge other men with the commission of crimes of which they are guilty themselves. They are responsible for nothing. Their own crimes are haunting them and a guilty conscience is forever upbraiding them, and when whisky fails to drown their cowardly fears of a punishment that will be meted out to them hereafter, they endeavor to drag other men down to their own beastly level. Honest men have nothing to fear from charges coming from such fellows. They cannot shift the responsibility on to other men's shoulders. The devil cannot be robbed of his due. Their guilty consciences will haunt them through life, and with the aid of the whisky they drink to stifle its upbraiding, will hasten their journey to an ignominious grave.

JEFF. DAVIS.

This traitor has been released from prison on a bail bond of $100,000 to appear at Richmond Court when wanted.—Everywhere as far as our knowledge goes the people who were true to the old flag and the Constitution during the rebellion, denounce in unmeasured terms the release of this man whom rebels and sympathizing friends pleasantly designate a great man, and the exponent of true and great principles; but it is a known fact that these principles were not calculated to advance the interest of the whole people, but were only the old ignoble principles of caste, that a permanent few should rule and govern the many. To hold such views and struggle for their adoption does not in the American mind constitute a high order of greatness. It cannot be shown that he was ever the advocate of the doctrines enunciated in that document—the Declaration of Independence—which heralded to the world the dawning of a new Government whose principles have been proven here in the Northern States to be better calculated to advance the prosperity and happiness of the masses, than any political principles ever before espoused by a people. We see in him none of that high progressive greatness that looks to wholesome reform, to the abandonment of arbitrary and despotic principles for the liberal and free.

He denounced the doctrine that all men are "born free and equal," and that man is not capable of self-government, but advocated an unjust form of civilization—one ever welcome to those of arbitrary and despotic turn of mind, he avowed that two great classes only should exist—the master and the slave class. The history of the past proves beyond controversy that where this doctrine gains the ascendancy, it confines itself to no race or color. In another phrase, it means that "Capital should own its labor." We understand with what regard the mechanic, the farm hand, and men generally who labor for a "living" and own no capital, look upon the individual who advocates that the man for whom they do service should own them just as he owns other property. In the interest of this doctrine Davis had the tact to organize treason against his Government and deluge his native land in blood; and for all this he is called great. This greatness is of that species which the fallen Angel had, and for which, with all his followers, he was hurled from the shining court of Heaven down into the depth of Hell. Again, how select in language the friends of this arch-traitor are when they style him the "Stern Statesman." Strike out the word statesman and put in its stead the word traitor, and properly designate this imp of Satan—the Stern Traitor. We sicken when we think of his stern systematic cruelty practiced on our prisoners—his fellow-countrymen. The stern and callous Nero who in a satanic mood burnt a portion of his Capital is not to be compared to the stern callousness which Davis manifested at his Capital, where daily for months he heard the low wails of distress and mourning come up from his human slaughter-pens located in different parts of his kingdom, and yet this human monster has had no trial, and is at large on bail. Have we no law to meet the case, or is all this a farce, a piece of political jugglery? The people will know. They demand that this chief of traitors be tried not in the spirit of revenge, but as all evil-doers are tried, to protect society from the domination of devils.

"Our Colored Fellow Citizens,"

At the recent Democratic Convention in Tennessee, the following resolution was adopted by acclamation:

"Resolved, That our colored fellow citizens of United States, and citizens of the State of Tennessee, and voters, of this State are entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens under the law and Constitution of the United States and the State of Tennessee."

"There's Democracy" and a bid for negro votes! Negroes entitled to ALL THE RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF CITIZENS. Is not that NEGRO EQUALITY? and has not our Democratic friends been proving for years past that negroes were only brutes, have no souls, no intellect, and are wholly disqualified to vote? At the same time leading Democrats in Tennessee say negroes shall not only vote, but hold office, sit in the jury box, and in short are "entitled to ALL the rights of citizens." What a sweet morsel this will be for our Democratic neighbors to roll under their tongues? "Our colored fellow citizens!" "OUR colored FELLOW CITIZENS!"

MOWING MACHINES.

No class of labor-saving machines of late invention are of more value to the farming community than the Reaper and Mower. Scarcely any thrifty farmer can afford to do without them. It is not to be wondered at, then, that almost every farmer is providing himself with one of these superior harvest hands. One of the best we have ever seen operating is the "Hubbard's Improved Mower, combined with the Syracuse Self-Raker." This machine was run, last harvest, on several of the farms in the vicinity of Perryville, and gave entire satisfaction. It is now offered for examination at Perryville to farmers, and will be shown to them by the Agents for this county,

SAMUEL OKESON,
JACOB ZIEGLER.

It gives me pleasure to state that this machine mowed my grass and cut a portion of my wheat, last harvest, and did its work in a most rapid manner. Its work is, I think, scarcely excelled by that of any other. DAVID WILSON, Perryville, May 20, 1867.

THE New York Sunday Mercury, a Copperhead paper, volunteers the following advice to the President in view of his contemplated visit to the South:

"THE PRESIDENT GOING SOUTH.—Our Washington correspondent informs us that the President is about to pay a visit to Raleigh, N. C., and that on the way he will probably address the people. We sincerely trust he will do nothing of the kind. Let him play base ball or euchre, or dance the polka, or the tight rope, or say his prayers, by way of variety; but let him not make speeches. Let his aspirations take any shape but that. Raleigh is a terrible place for bad whisky, which kills further than a needle gun, and if under its influence, the President should set to speechifying, as he did last year, he would give Radicalism a new lease of its life. We hope, therefore, he will eschew eloquence and Bourbon plain and go in for science, and light potatoes."

JUDGE KELLY, a member of Congress, from Philadelphia, has been traveling through the Southern States, and attempted to lecture in Mobile, on Tuesday evening of last week. The great unreconstructed got up a riot which resulted in two persons being killed and quite a number injured. The police, consisting almost entirely of discharged rebel soldiers, did not interfere, though the whole force were present at the meeting. It is said Colonel Sheppard, commanding the U. S. troops at that post, will make a thorough investigation of all the circumstances.—What a pity, that such a peaceable and well-disposed people should be placed under military rule!

There is no mistaking the glee of Copperhead organs over the release of Jeff. Davis, and their purpose to turn the transaction to the ridicule not only of the living, but the dead supporters of the Union. By one of these organs it is brutally declared, that Underwood fixed Davis' bail, so as to make it average ten cents for every life sacrificed during the war for the Union. James Buchanan once declared that a white man's day's work was not worth more than ten cents. Now the disciples of Buchanan insist that a white man's life, lost in a struggle for a free government, is only worth ten cents. Democracy is progressing.

De Soto when he visited the shores of America, sought long and arduously for the "Spring of perpetual Youth," that those who bathed therein might never grow old in appearance. People of our day have in part discovered a substitute for this unfound spring in Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, a few applications of which gives to white or gray hair that dark, strong and glossy appearance peculiar to youthful beauty. If any of our readers doubt this, let them try a bottle and be convinced of the truth of our assertion.

SOLDIERS who enlisted in West Virginia regiments from Pennsylvania, by sending their Address to the Adjutant General of that State, at Wheeling, will receive an elegant bronze medal, struck by order of the Legislature for presentation to all men who enlisted in West Virginia regiments.

The GROVER & BAKER Elastic-Stitch Sewing Machines are superior to all others for the following reasons:

1. They sew with two threads direct from the spool, and require no rewinding.
2. They are more easily understood and used, and less liable to derangement than other machines.
3. They are capable of executing perfectly, without change of adjustment, a much greater variety of work than other machines.
4. The stitch made by these machines is much more firm, elastic, and durable, especially upon articles which require to be washed and ironed, than any other stitch.
5. This stitch, owing to the manner in which the rubber thread is inserted, is much the most pliable and beautiful in use, and retains its plumpness and beauty even upon articles frequently washed and ironed until they are worn out.
6. The structure of the seam is such that, though it be cut or broken at intervals of only a few stitches, it will neither open, run, nor unravel, but remains firm and durable.
7. Unlike other machines, these fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation, and require no buttons, or other fastenings upon the right or face side of the seam, and may be used upon the other side without lessening the strength or durability of the seam. This can be done on no other machine, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or made up with silk.
8. These machines, in addition to their superior merits as instruments for sewing, by a change of adjustment, easily learned and practised, execute the most beautiful and permanent embroidery and ornamental work.
