FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH. The following is one of the odes sung by the Odd Feilows in their public exercises, and is said to be the first Odd Fellow's song ever composed:

When Friendship, Love, and Truth abound, Among a band of brothers, The cup of joy goes gaily round, Each shares the bliss of others ; Sweet roses grace the thoray way, Along this vale of sorrow : The flowers that shed their leaves to-day Shall bloom again to-morrow.

How grand in age, how fair in youth Are holy Friendship, Love and Truth. On haleyon wings our moments pass,

Life's cruel cares beguiling ; Old Time lays down his scythe and glass,

In gay good bumor smiling ; With emine beard and forelock gray, His reverned front adorning.

He looks like Winter turned to May, Night softened into Morning, How grand in age, &c.

From these delightful fountains flow Ambrosial rills of pleasure; Can man desire, can Heaven bestow

A more respiendent treasure ? Adorn'd with gems so richly bright, We'll form a Constellation, Where every Star with modest light Shall gild his proper station. How grand in age, &c.

Hiscellancous Licadiny.
