DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This steat medicine cured Dr. J. H. Soursver, the Preprietor, of Pulmonary Consemption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be movitable. His physicians prenonneed his case incurable when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been spotsheaded, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds. Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the distants which are usually complicated with it, and the curst efforted by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderial. Dr. Scrework makes preferriously visits to several of the larger eities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly asteniahing to see poor commutives dustinave to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons.
