CALL OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE

The members of the County Committee are requested to meet at the SENTINEL office, on Monday, Dec. 2d at 1 o'clock P. M., (court week) to prescribe rules for conducting the election ordered by the Republican County Convention to be held on the second Tuesday of March next, to vote for or against the adoption of the Crawford County System. A full attendance is particularly desired as it is important every district should be represented.

The following gentlemen compose the committee.

- Mifflintown—J. J. Patterson, Solm'n. Books, Fernanagh—Daniel Seiber, Jacob Hower, Walker—John Motzer, E. Davis, Delaware—S. O. Evans, Geo. W. Smith, Monroe—Samuel Brown, A. G. Schellenberger, Susquehanna—E. Long, E. Crawford, Greenway—T. Kumberger, H. F. Zeiders, Fayette—M. Hoffman, E. Schellenberger, Patterson—S. H. Brown, F. P. Rohm, Milford—John Balobach, John Earnest, jr., Perryville—Capt. J. Thompson, W. B. Okeson, Turbett—E. W. Berkeley, Isaac Heckman, Spruce Hill—W. J. Evans, Thomas Patton, Beale—R. Doyle, Wm. Young, Tuscarora—G. M. Smelker, James Murphy Lack, James Wallace, Matthias Stump, Black Log—Jacob Gunter, James McIntyre, J. J. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Twenty-First Senatorial District.

Two Copperheads will present certificates of election to the clerk of the State Senate, as Senators from the district composed of the counties of Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, but the question arises whether a majority of the Senate, after all the facts involved in this claimed election have been considered, will agree to admit one or both of the men thus demanding seats. Portions of the Twenty first Senatorial district are controlled by the worst Copperhead influences, and there is no doubt that in such counties as Centre an amount of illegal voting was done sufficient to reduce the Republican majority by which we had a right to look for the election of McVitty and Robison. Our own personal knowledge of Centre county, and from what we learned while sojourning in that locality during the past week, has impressed us with the belief that the election of Shugert was secured by fraud. We do not, of course, desire to intimate that Mr. Shugert was a party to these frauds. He, personally, is an honorable man, who would seem to take a part in the perpetration of any wrong; but his election was sought by demagogues, who used the ignorant men under their control to accomplish their purposes. In Centre county deserters were voted, in the face of the protests of men who knew the sneaks.—In the same county voters from Clearfield county were used to swell Shugert's majority. There is no doubt that by these means Mr. Shugert's election was attained, and when the seat of this gentleman is contested, as it will be, these facts will be fully established.

The Twenty-first Senatorial district is one of the largest and most important in the State. There is no doubt that that district is thoroughly Republican, and ever in the face of the fact that fraud was perpetrated to elect the Copperhead candidates for the Senate, had our friends polled their full vote, Robison and McVitty could have still been elected. Of course these frauds will be thoroughly tested, and when they are established as we have every reason to know they can be proven, one and perhaps both the Copperheads claiming election in that district will be rejected by the Senate, and recognition accorded where it of right belongs, to Messrs. Robison and McVitty.

Copperhead Love for Soldiers.

At Dayton, Ohio, seventy-five invalid soldiers, inmates of a Soldiers Home, were taken to the polls and voted for General Hayes to a man. They were all crippled and helpless, but the Democratic crowd was cowardly enough to insult them with coarse epithets, while some yelled: "Pity you hadn't lost both your d—d arms"—"Sorry that other leg was left"—"Pity the rebels hadn't killed you."

For such men as these Lyons, Dr. Sterrett, Prof. Wilson, Patterson, of Peru and Joseph L. Stewart used their influence in this county thus defeating two soldiers, the nominees of the Republican party. Let Republicans remember this fact.

OUR majority in Louisiana turns out to be, in round numbers, seventy thousand, instead of forty thousand, as at first reported. It must be borne in mind that the convention question in the first line on which the Republican party in the South is fighting. That once secured, they will push forward to other issues.

The Prisons of Pennsylvania.

The following article is from the Philadelphia Press. The opinion entertained by Inspector Dickinson of our Institution is not a very good one and if his report is correct, the County Fathers should give the Jail an overhauling.

Juniata county was separated from Mifflin county by act of March 2, 1831, and its length is forty miles, and breadth nine miles. The county seat is Mifflintown, in which the county buildings are erected on rising ground pleasantly situated in the upper end of the town. In 1833 the jail was erected in close proximity to the county buildings, and is 30 by 40 feet, with a small yard in the rear.

At the time Inspector Dickinson made his inspection of the premises the Sheriff was absent, but his wife was in charge.—She accompanied the inspector through the building and explained its capacities and deficiencies. She stated that twenty prisoners could be accommodated without overcrowding; but the ideas of the inspector totally disagreed with the lady's in this respect. All of her family reside in the jail, and have to use the same doors, stairs, and hall that the prisoners do.

Two rooms on the second floor, about fifteen feet square, are appropriated to the use of prisoners, each room being furnished with heavy chains, firmly fastened to the floor, to hold prisoners secure until they are either convicted and sent to the penitentiary, or found to be innocent and discharged. In all cases where persons are charged with a high grade of crime they are chained, and those who are charged with petty offences are merely fastened in their rooms. The inner walls or partitions, dividing the rooms from the passage way, are of wood, lathed and plastered. Notwithstanding the chaining process, many prisoners have freed themselves of them, and then made their escape by boring through the partition with heated bars of iron taken from the stoves which supply heat to the room.

The Sheriff, in reply to printed interrogatories, says he does not consider the jail secure, and that, during the three years he has been in office, eight prisoners have escaped; hence he has adopted the plan of chaining and hobbling them prior to conviction. Thus it will be seen that, upon entering this institution, persons are considered guilty, and chained down as though they were the worst of felons. Nay, more than this, for the most hardened criminals in the penitentiaries of the State are not chained. Inspector Dickinson very properly says: "No innocent man should be made to suffer thus merely because the authorities of the county are too penurious to provide a suitable jail."

The wall around this rotten fabric is but fifteen feet high, and prisoners have escaped by inserting sticks in it where the mortar has fallen out, and walking over as conveniently as though they had a ladder.

Male and female prisoners are permitted to associate in the day time, but are separated at night. No water closets are in the cells, and as the prisoners cannot be trusted in the yard by themselves they have to use the ordinary vessels provided, except when the jailer is at home to take them to the yard.

Inspector Dickinson says: "I find the sanitary condition of this jail very bad." The Sheriff, in answer to my printed interrogatory, says, "the jail is whitewashed, scrubbed and cleaned once a year. It has no drainage, and the only means of ventilation is by opening the doors and windows. No provision of any kind is made for the treatment of the sick."

FROM THE PLAINS.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—A difficulty recently occurred at Cameron Crossing, on the Santa Fe road, between the escort of a passenger stage coach, in which three men were killed, and the sergeant in command of the escort wounded. The trouble grew out of the drunkenness and quarrelsome conduct of the sergeant.

The telegraph line reached Hays City yesterday. The Santa Fe Stage Company and United States Express line will make this their terminus this winter.

There is no Indian news.

HAYS CITY, SMOKY HILL ROUTE, VIA ELLSWORTH, Kansas, Oct. 11.—Last night the E. D. Pacific Railroad reached this point, and cars are now running.—President Perry and officers of the road, and Mr. Shoemaker, contractor, were entertained at the J. D. Perry Hotel, the largest west of Junction City. The city is full of people, and good business houses are building rapidly.

There is no Indian news. The savages from here to Wallace, and as far as heard from the Plains, have been unusually quiet the last two weeks. All interest is now centered at Fort Larned, forty-five miles from this point, where the Peace Conference is about to be held.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

That certain individuals connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad in this county, did use their influence against Messrs. Robison and McVitty is a well known fact to the Republican party of this county. And now, since it is known that the same influence was brought to bear against them in all the counties along the line we can heartily endorse the suggestions made in the following article from the Lewis town Gazette, and can furnish the proof of the interference of certain officials not a thousand miles from this place.

It is well known that the directors of this road have a resolution on their minds prohibiting all its employees from directly or indirectly interfering in elections; it is equally well known that no Republican connected with that road has ever been charged with having perverted it to the interests of that party. On the other hand, not a year has gone by lately in which this county was not colonized by gangs of hands, who remained in the district just long enough to gain a ten days' residence and vote; and in every such instance, hardly a Republican vote was found among them. Complaint upon complaint was made, and occasionally a high sounding order was issued; but those who were at the bottom of the work were retained in office only to repeat the same offense the following year. In the late campaign, the defeat of both Republican Senators in this district—certainly of one—is directly owing to the interference of railroad officials, who threatened Republicans with discharge in case they did not vote against Robison and McVitty. We know that efforts have already been made to hush up this matter, probably by threatening to discharge those who were thus influenced if they said anything about it; but we believe the time has come for the Republican party of this section to demand a scrutiny into the management of railroad affairs in this county. Let a committee of the Directors be appointed to examine the hands under oath—let them inquire of men who were discharged or refused employment, although immediately afterwards others of the right kidney were so employed—let them inquire along the line into numberless promises of employment made, and they will find that the Pennsylvania Railroad is and has been used against the Republican party of this county precisely as the State Canal was formerly used against the Whigs. Where majorities are large a few votes make little difference, but in Mifflin, where the vote is close, colonized voters on the railroad have repeatedly defeated Republican candidates.

If these things are done with the sanction of the directors, it is time for the Republicans of the interior to know it; if it is not, it is time that those who so pervert the railroad, whether superintendents, supervisors, or bosses, be discharged.—Lewis town Gazette.

TO THE PUBLIC.

MEXICO, Juniata County, Pa., }
October 4th, 1867. }

The Trustees of the U. B. Church of the Congregation in Mexico would avail themselves of this means of informing the public, and more particularly those who have been so liberal to subscribe to the building of a Church in Mexico, in view of the one recently burned, that they are now proceeding with the erection of the same. The bill of lumber necessary for its construction is now being filed, and it is our full determination to finish the work this fall or winter, if possible. We deem it necessary to make this public statement from the fact that there is (as we have been informed by our Agent, C. S. Coats), an erroneous idea prevalent that we have given up the notion to build the said Church. How this report originated or by whom we are not able to say, but we do say that it is utterly false and without the least foundation. Were we thus disposed to relieve ourselves of the burden of building, we could not, from the fact that we have been appointed as a building committee for the express purpose to build and superintend all affairs connected with the said Church, and of course are amenable to that body for the faithful discharge of our duty. Therefore, in view of the same, we would most respectfully and earnestly request subscribers to be ready to pay their subscriptions to our Agent, C. S. Coats, or send the same to him by any safe way that it will reach him, who will receipt for the same.

N. B.—Those Teachers who have been so kind as to subscribe to the above enterprise and as yet not paid, and who have appointed me their Treasurer for the same, will please send their subscriptions to me at the earliest period. The building is now under progress, and the money is much needed and will most gratefully be received.
JOHN MOTZER.

What do our stay-at-home Republicans think now of their conduct in staying away from the election?

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

The official vote of the 21st district, as published below, by counties, shows that the Democratic candidates have been elected to the State Senate. We imagine that this table will be particularly refreshing to the easy-going Republicans who remained at home on election day fondly thinking that there would be enough of votes cast on the right side without their assistance. There is scarcely an election district in Juniata county where there were not enough of stay-at-home Republicans to have elected one of our Senatorial candidates.
