IN COUNCIL—ATTENTION, WHITE MEN!

There will be a meeting of the Democracy of Patterson and Millifin held in the sitting room of the PATTERSON HOUSE, on this (Monday) evening, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating the late glorious victory of the White race over negroism. A full attendance is requested. MANY.

The above notice was posted conspicuously throughout Millifin and Patterson on Monday morning, and was the means of procuring the attendance of a large crowd of the "white man's party" at the place named. The entire audience consisted of twenty-two individuals, including "Squire Wyrick and the spirit of old black Pete. Poor old Pete! Some of our citizens may remember him as the old negro cooper who used to frequent Millifin. He has been dead for many years. Wyrick was his champion—especially on election day—for Pete had a vote, and Wyrick used to vote him the full Democratic ticket.—The meeting was called to order, when it was found that "Squire Wyrick and Thob's B each wanted to be President; a vote was had and lo! it was a tie, but the spirit of old Pete claimed the privilege of voting, and explained that he would vote for Thob's B as Wyrick had gone back on him. Thob's B was declared President and the meeting went on. At this stage of the proceedings Thob's U, Salouff and Jacob Parker walked in arm in arm.—Thob's U Salouff was called on for a speech. "He said: Gentlemen, I am not so much opposed to the bigger as I am in favor of whisky, (cheers from Joe Midway, Black Pete and Wyrick.) Gentlemen, I am in favor of cheap whisky.—(More cheers.) I am in favor of whisky without the infernal re-verer, or any other man. Give me whisky or give me death," and Thob's U. Salouff overcame by his own eloquence, was carried out amidst the cheers of the "white man's party," and rubbed down with whisky, without the "infernal re-verer." A great many other distinguished members of the "white man's party" were there, among whom we noticed John Beale Molasses Todd, "Old Fatty," otherwise known as old Dewzer, and the fellow that keeps Bill Rees' oyster shop, beside there was many and innumerable over-grown dogs and little pups, such as David, the clerk in Frank's store, Little Pete and Crow-foot, and many others. After making arrangements for a grand pow-wow to come off at some future time, the meeting adjourned with cheers for Old Joe, Wyrick and whisky without the "infernal re-verer."

PAY UP.—Persons indebted to us for subscription, job work, and advertising will confer a favor by paying up promptly. We need money, and will shortly send out bills to all indebted to us.

STOVES.—Mr. Noah Littlefield has just received from the city a large stock of Cook Stoves of the latest and most approved patterns, also parlor and office stoves at reduced prices. Give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Special Notices.

A Young Lady returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft rosy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold.—It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by mail or express, on receipt of an order by

It will do just what it is recommended for; if not the money will be refunded. PIANOS, CHURCH ORGANS, PARLOR ORGANS, &c.

JAMES L. KELLY, General Agent for the sale of Pianos, Church Organs, Parlor Organs, &c., respectfully announces to the citizens of Juniata county that he is prepared to furnish any of the above named instruments at the manufacturers prices. Among the many kinds of instruments I am prepared to sell, I offer first the celebrated Schomacker & Co. Pianos which are acknowledged to be superior to any other make in this country or Europe. The Ester Church and Parlor Organs—the most extra of reed instruments, which are being introduced into churches so rapidly and which are pronounced the best by the leading and unprejudiced musicians of the country, will be furnished to churches and private families, at the shortest notice and upon reasonable terms. Having had many years of practical experience in the musical trade, I can assure my patrons that if they will favor me with their orders, I will furnish them with the finest instruments manufactured. Every instrument sold by me comes direct from the manufacturers, and not from general wholesale dealers, consequently all may rely upon getting a new and perfect instrument, and full and direct guarantee from the manufacturers for the term of five years. Each instrument ordered will be delivered to the residence of the purchaser without extra charge. The instruments of any other first-class manufacturer will also be furnished at their regular circular rates. Parties who may desire to purchase, or to communicate upon the subject, may address me at New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa. Price lists will be sent upon application by mail. [August 21, 1867-tf]
