

WEDNESDAY MORNING, November 13, 1867. TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A Life Scholarship in J. C. Mumford's Business and Telegraph College at Philadelphia.

WM. B. McCABAN offers at private sale a Frame House 23x25 feet, with necessary out-buildings, situate in the borough of Patterson.

DID YOU SEE THEM?—We mean Joe Pennell's new goods. Calicoes, Muslins, De Laines, Boots, Shoes and Groceries.

POSTPONED.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be observed that the Sheriff has postponed the sale of the real estate of Jacob Sulouff until Monday, the 18th of November.

LARGE PUMPKIN.—Mr. John Emery, residing in Water street, informs us that he raised, in his garden, a Pumpkin weighing eighty-seven pounds.

THANKSGIVING.—On our outside will be found Gov. Geary's proclamation issued to the people of Pennsylvania, appointing Thursday, November 28th, just, as a day of thanksgiving, prayer and praise to Almighty God.

WILD CHERRY BALSAM.—The memory of Dr. Wistar is embalmed in the hearts of thousands whom his Balsam of Wild Cherry has cured of coughs, colds, consumption, or some other form of pulmonary disease.

KENTUCKY STATE LOTTERY.—The only legalized Drawings in the United States. The Grand Holiday Drawing will take place December 31st.

HORSE STOLEN.—One evening last week Mr. Biler, residing in Fernmanagh township had one of his horses stolen.

GAME.—For several weeks past many of our most prominent hunters have visited what is commonly called the "thicket," in Licking Creek Valley.

JOHN A. THOMPSON, keeps for sale at his Book Store in Perrysville, blank books, school books, stationery, periodicals of every description, pass books and a great variety of toy books for holiday presents to children.

ADVERTISERS should bear in mind that this is the largest paper, and has the largest circulation in Juniata county.

These few lines have been paraded at the mast-head of the Juniata Republican for several months, and we have been at a loss to know their full meaning.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—ON AND AFTER Monday, October 7, 1867, Passenger Trains will leave Millin Station as follows:

Music! Music! PIANOS. CHURCH ORGANS. PARLOR ORGANS, &c.

JAMES L. KELLY, General Agent for the sale of Pianos, Church Organs, Parlor Organs, &c., respectfully announces to the citizens of Juniata county that he is prepared to furnish any of the above named instruments at the manufacturers prices.

Among the many kinds of instruments I am prepared to sell, I offer first the celebrated Schlemmer & Co. Pianos which are acknowledged to be superior to any other made in this country or Europe.

The Easy Church and Parlor Organs—the deus ex machina of recital instruments, which are being introduced into churches so rapidly and which are pronounced the best by the leading and unprejudiced musicians of the country, will be furnished to churches and private families, at the absolute net price and upon reasonable terms.

Having had many years of practical experience in the musical trade, I can assure my patrons that if they will favor me with their orders, I will furnish them with the finest instruments manufactured. Every instrument sold by me comes direct from the manufacturer, and not from general wholesale dealers, consequently all may rely upon getting a new and perfect instrument, and full and direct guarantee from the manufacturer for the term of five years.

Each instrument ordered will be delivered to the residence of the purchaser without extra charge. The instruments of any other first-class manufacturer will also be furnished at their regular current rates.

Parties who may desire to purchase, or to communicate upon the subject, may address me in New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa. Price lists will be sent upon application by mail. [August 21, 1867.]
