MIFFLINTOWN.
Wednesday Morning, November 20, 1867

H. H. WILSON, Editor and Publisher

FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN'L ULYSSES S. GRANT OF ILLINOIS.

CALL OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE

The members of the County Committee are requested to meet at the SENTINEL office, on Monday, Dec. 2d at 1 o'clock P. M. (court week) to prescribe rules for conducting the election ordered by the Republican County Convention to be held on the second Tuesday of March next, to vote for or against the adoption of the Crawford County System. A full attendance is particularly desired as it is important every district should be represented.

The following gentlemen compose the committee.

- Millintown—J. J. Patterson, Solin Books, Fernanagh—Daniel Seiber, Jacob Hower, Walker—John Motzer, E. Davis.
- Delaware—S. O. Evans, Geo. W. Smith, Monroe—Samuel Brown, A. G. Shellenberger, Susquehanna—E. Long, E. Crawford, Greene—N. T. Ruelberger, H. F. Zeiders, Fayette—S. H. Brown, F. F. Rohm, Mifflin—John Balsbach, John Earnest, Jr., Perryville—Capt. J. Thompson, W. B. Okerson, Turbett—E. W. Berkley, Isaac Heckman, Spruce Hill—W. J. Evans, Thomas Patton, Beale—R. Boyle, Wm. Young, Tuscarora—G. M. Snelker, James Murphy, Lack—James Wallace, Matthias Stump, Black Log—Jacob Gunter, James McIntyre, J. J. PATTERSON, Chairman.

PROF. DAVID WILSON, EDITOR OF THE JUNIA REPUBLICAN.

"APPOINTED—The Post Master General has appointed David Watts, Esq., to be Post Master at this place, vice W. W. Davis, resigned. Every true Republican in the county will rejoice with us at this determination on the part of Mr. Davis to have no connection, even by implication, with the administration of the bad and perfidious man who for some inscrutable purpose is permitted to occupy the Executive Chair of this great nation."—Junia Republican.

Bill Davis in resigning the Post-Office has only been true to his calling—when ever it suited him, and he could make money by it, he sold out the Republican party. He started the Republican a Radical Republican paper, but sold out to Andrew Johnson, abused the Republican party, tried to defeat Geary for Governor and elect Clymer. He got appointed Post Master for his betrayal of his party, and now Prof. David Wilson calls upon "every true Republican in the county to rejoice with him" because Bill Davis, after making all the money he could by doing Andy Johnson's dirty work, now turns around and betrays him (Johnson). True Republicans how do you like the company this high-toned, moral dignitary, David Wilson, would have you keep?—Perhaps Bill Davis' conduct was only an inadvertency. Will the Professor explain?

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to day Mr. Bradley read a statement in answer to the rule of the Court for him to show cause why he should not be excluded from the Bar as a practicing attorney, owing to his former difficulty with Judge Fisher.

The Hon. Robert J. Walker made an argument in his behalf, when the full court, through Chief Justice Carter, sustained the order of Judge Fisher, heretofore made suspending Mr. Bradley as a practitioner at the Bar.

Justice Carter, in the course of his remarks, said it was a painful duty, but it was necessary that the court should sustain its dignity and punish the contempt.

CONGRESS.

The adjourned session of Congress convenes on Thursday next. It is not supposed the President will not send his usual annual message until the first of December. The most important business of Congress will be founded upon the reports of the various committees ordered at the last session. Impeachment, revenue, frauds, and retrenchment, are all important matters, worthy of careful, earnest, protracted investigation. Upon the acts of Congress, this winter, the Presidential election may turn. If the majority show a manly, loyal, patriotic, public spirit, they may perpetuate power, and save the people from a relapse into the old slavocratic domination—if not, not. It is supposed they will remain in session as long as A. J.'s term continues, to check-mate his aid to rebellion.

THE ROMAN QUESTION.

The condition of the Roman Question, in consequence of the indecision of Italy, at the time when resolution was required to solve the difficulties caused by the Garibaldi invasion of the Papal territory, has now become very intricate.—France having sent her troops to the States of the Church, now appears to be anxious to withdraw them as speedily as possible. Italy which might, at the proper time by judiciously acting with the courage which is now assumed, have obtained her own desires, is protesting, when it seems too late, that the existence of the temporal power of the Pope is indispensable, not only to the interests of her people, but also to a good understanding with France. In other words, it is asserted that Italy and France must quarrel if the Holy Father remains at Rome, a position which justifies the suggestion that if this view had been taken while the troops of Garibaldi were in the Papal territories, and if they had been sustained by the presence of the Italian army, the result might have been far different. France seems to be anxious for a conference of the European powers, in order to settle this Roman question by general agreement and pledges which will make the maintenance of the Pope in the Vatican a measure guaranteed by all Europe. In her anxiety to get a respectable congress together, it is said she has even invited the small third rate powers, which rarely are allowed to have any say in the settlement of important questions. Against this proposition Italy protests. She does not want a conference which may agree to uphold the Pope, and she objects to the whole arrangement. The matter at this time has the appearance of such progress that the French idea will succeed, and that there will be a conference such as that power desires. In that case the remonstrances of poor Italy will be of no avail. He allowed the happy hour to go by when he hesitated what he ought to do in relation to the Garibaldian invasion.—He had no settled policy at that time, and if the course now resolved upon had been then pursued the result might have been far different.

PRESIDENTIAL CALCULATIONS.

It may interest a few of the fearful souls to be informed that, even on the basis of the late elections, the Republican party can elect its nominee without any bargain or surrender whatever. Here is a fair estimate of how the electoral vote will stand, allowing the Democrats to carry New York and Pennsylvania, which they cannot do when General Grant's Republican friends have no interest in permitting it to be done:

DEMOCRATIC.
California.....	5
Maryland.....	7
Connecticut.....	6
New Jersey.....	7
Delaware.....	3
New York.....	33
Kentucky.....	11
Pennsylvania.....	26
Total Democratic.....	98

REPUBLICAN.
Illinois.....	16
Nebraska.....	3
Indiana.....	11
New Hampshire.....	3
Missouri.....	13
Ohio.....	21
Iowa.....	8
Oregon.....	3
Kansas.....	3
Rhode Island.....	4
Maine.....	7
Tennessee.....	10
Massachusetts.....	12
Vermont.....	5
Michigan.....	8
West Virginia.....	5
Minnesota.....	4
Wisconsin.....	8
Nevada.....	3
Total Republican.....	151

This gives a Republican majority of fifty-three in the electoral college, without counting the seventy odd votes from the Southern States, which, if counted at all, will be on the Republican side. There is not a doubtful State in the Republican list, except, perhaps, Indiana.

A SINGULAR SPECTACLE will shortly be before the world. Jeff. Davis, a traitor to free government, who warred for five years to perpetuate slavery, will be up for trial for treason in the new world. Garibaldi, a friend of freedom and equality, who had just opened his first battle to secure the nationality of his country, and who was arrested there, will be up for trial for treason in the old world. Davis shed oceans of blood in a cause whose success would have been death to freedom. Garibaldi was just beginning the fight for the right. The tyrants of the world hope for Davis' release while they plot for Garibaldi's death. Another dispatch from Europe says that Garibaldi will not be tried, but that he and his two sons will be exiled to the United States. If this be true, the heroes will receive the grandest welcome any people ever accorded to patriotic men.

AN ARTFUL TRICK.—A notorious burglar, confined at Charlestown, Mass., revealed to the warden and marshal the hiding place of a rich booty on the bank of the river, and they took him to the spot in a cab. The three dug deeply into the earth by turns, until they had made a large pit, and the burglar then tumbled the warden in upon the marshal, and made his escape.

THE REACTION BUGBEAR.

The copperhead papers are teeming with flaming accounts of what they choose to call the "Great Reaction." True they have carried New York by over 40,000 majority, which neither we nor they expected, they have carried Ohio and Pennsylvania but by very small majorities and New Jersey and Maryland have gone with them. We are satisfied that they shall rejoice while they may, but we predict that their joy will not be of long duration. The more prudent of their leaders already recognize this fact and their rejoicing at the present is tempered with fear of the future. They know that the much talked of reaction will prove deceptive. Of the elections in ten States, on the 5th inst., New York, New Jersey, and Maryland were carried by the Cons, while the other seven, despite of local issues, negro suffrage and woman's rights have gone clearly and unequivocally Republican. In New York we had to bear the burden of the excise law and Temperance question, while a hundred thousand voters through apathy and fancied security did not go to the polls, a large majority of whom, as usual, were republicans. If, in fact, that, without a national issue, with Sabbath breakers, rum-suckers, outlaw in fact all the rabble of the country gathered to their ranks by party pledges, while the republicans were saddled with the Temperance cause, the observance of the Christian Sabbath, and the cause of law and order generally, (all good in themselves but improperly brought into the political arena) they have only been able to carry three out of ten States, less than one-third, they can find cause of rejoicing, in view of a national contest in which all these local questions will be dropped, we can only say they are heartily welcome to all the joy they can get out of such a prospect. If a Presidential election were to be held to-morrow we would sweep the country with more than half a million of a majority.—Bedford Inquirer.

GARIBALDI'S DEFEAT.

The attempt to effect the unification of Italy, by bringing Rome and the remaining States of the Church, sometime known as the Patrimony of St. Peter, under the sceptre of Victor Emmanuel has failed, and, now that details are known, had no chance of success, from the original inception to the final catastrophe. That Italy anxiously desires the accomplishment of Garibaldi's purpose, and that a vast majority of people in the Papal territory also hold the same desire, is not disputed. But Garibaldi was without the materials for prolonged and triumphant fighting. Without artillery, ammunition, camp equipage, cavalry, supplies of food and money, he attempted to capture Rome which was amply provided with all means of resistance and defence. He was defeated, and is said to be, with his two sons, a prisoner of war. There need be little fear for his life. Victor Emmanuel dare not injure the man whose patriotism and gallantry, in 1860, gave him possession of Sicily and Naples. His own life would be in peril if he attempted that of Garibaldi. We may expect, in a few weeks, to hear of Garibaldi's release.

The activity of General Grant in reducing the expenses of the War Department, and the many radical reforms he has already instituted, are making him strong with the people, independent of his fame as the leader of our armies. The General is as much at home in the War Department as he would be at the head of a regiment. It cannot have escaped notice that he is the only one possessing power who is in earnest in the work of economizing the public expenses. Comprehending the situation of the country, like a good patriot he is doing everything in his power to lighten the burthens of the people and remove the clouds which obscure the financial prospect.

The Mexican Presidential election has resulted in the success of Benito Juarez. Diaz was the only opposing candidate, and one State (Vera Cruz) cast its electoral vote for him. The other States all united in supporting Juarez. It is said that Diaz did not care to be elected President, but was persuaded to be a candidate by his friends. He holds at present the position of General-in-Chief of the Republic, and prefers that to any other position. It certainly gives him quite as much power, and he does not run the same risk of de-thronement he would do in the Presidential chair. The election was conducted peaceably, and the result will no doubt be advantageous to the Republic.

It is confidently reported that President Johnson has selected Gen. George B. McClellan for the position of Secretary of War. Congress will be likely to have something to say on that question when it assembles. We don't think "little Mac" will be permitted to occupy that seat at present.

EXTRACT

From the proceedings had at a large and enthusiastic meeting held at the Republican Headquarters of the city of Richmond, Virginia, on the 8th inst:

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Richmond, here assembled, deeply sympathize with Rev. J. W. Hunnicutt, Editor of the New Nation, published in this city, in being the subject of persistent and wanton misrepresentation and the hands of avowed political enemies and misled and deceived friends; and we express our firm conviction, knowledge and belief, that he has at no time, or anywhere, by writing or speech, penned or uttered any sentiment or expressions, such as of late have been attributed to him, which, in anywise, were calculated or could be fairly understood or construed to antagonize the people of Virginia because of a difference of color or as employers and employees; that we abhor the authors of the false and slanderous charges circulated to his prejudice, and believe such sentiments to originate in malignity and meanness of the basest sort, and unparalleled in any previous partisan warfare. And we especially express our astonishment and regret that Republican journals at a distance should have been deceived and imposed upon by such base fabrications and unmitigated lies, especially by the one as reported to the New York Herald under the auspices of the Associated Press, purporting to emanate from the Chief-of-Police of Richmond.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolution be published in the New Nation, and that copies thereof be especially forwarded to the Harrisburg Telegraph, Eric Daily Dispatch and the New York Herald, and that all journals favorable to truth and justice be requested to copy the same.

We are told by the monthly report of the Commissioner of Agriculture that a larger wheat crop never has been raised in this country than during the present season, though it is not as large as the breadth sown might have led us to expect. The most noticeable increase has been in the Southern States, with the exception of Texas. Oats and rye are estimated above the yield of last year, barley slightly below, beans and peas an average. In corn, the cash value, and the fattening and sustaining qualities, are greater than last year. Sorgho cultivation generally is reduced; buckwheat is an average crop, potatoes a poor one, and in tobacco a decline is indicated. Cotton is estimated to amount to 2,000,000 bales, with a probability that it will be one-fourth more than this. The stock of old wheat on hand is very low.

The term of twenty one United States Senators will expire on the 4th of March, 1869, of whom fourteen are Republican and seven Democratic; but it is scarcely possible for the Democracy to break the two-thirds power of the Republicans in that body, during the existence of the Forty-first Congress. One of these Democrats is Patterson of Tennessee, whom Brownlow has been chosen to succeed. Dewitt Clinton, Republican Speaker of the Senate of Tennessee, will succeed Brownlow as Governor on his becoming Senator in March, 1869.

PAPER MONEY AND BREAD.—The Chicago Tribune of the 6th says: "There are in store to-day (in Chicago) somewhere in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 bushels wheat, representing fully two and one-half millions of dollars, and it is safe to say that the banks have advanced on it to the extent of nearly two millions. Navigation will close in about two weeks, and unless some vigorous efforts are now made to force it to the seaboard, the banks will be obliged to carry it, and the accumulation of the winter months, until the opening of navigation."
