THE LIBEL SUIT.

The suit instituted against Wm. M. Allison and Wm. W. Davis, editors and publishers of the Janiata Republican, for libel, came up for a final hearing on Tuesday evening, November 26th, before his Honor, Judge Pearson, of the Dauphin county Court. Messrs, Allison and Davis plead guilty to the indictment as found by the Grand Jury, and the final hearing was asked by defendants counsel to give them an opportunity to plead mitigation of sentence. After a patient hearing of the counsel on both sides, the Court sentenced W. M. Allison and W. Davis to pay a fine of one hundred dol-Lira each, the costs of prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment of thirty days in the Dauphin county jail, and to enter into bonds of five hundred dollars each to keep the peace for one year toward all citally toward Col. There is one thing we noticed at the end of this trial, and at the time when Allison and Davis most needed friends. And that is, that not one of the loud mouthed fellows who had been play me second fiddle to them and urging them to "fight Patterson," and all that kind of thing, ever showed their faces in Harrisharz or offered them any friendship, and ident of the United States, be improched that the sympathy and friendship came for high evimes and misdemeanors. from men of whom it was their custom to say they are "my enemies."

By his connection with the Southern roads, it shows that he realized a profit of over eighteen thousand dollars.

The other grounds of impeachment are the corrupt and unconstitutional abuse of the pardoning power; the surrender of property to rebels; the disregard of the rights of the property of refugees and freedmen, and of the United States, and the unconstitutional and corrupt exercise of the appointing power. Under the latter head, a vast amount of testimony has been taken relative to the suspension and appointing of civil officers, and the cause, therefor, in direct violation of the law.

The report ends with the resolution : Resolved, That Andrew Johnson, Pres-

Shortly after noon Mr. Evarts, for the Government, said the intention of the Government was to try the cause of Mr. Davis some day this term. One consid. eration in fixing the day was the time when Judge Chase could attend here .-The government proposed to name a day, after the adjournment of the Supreme Court, for this trial, when he could sit with Judge Underwood. Mr. Evertsonggested that the fourth Wednesday in March be fixed as the day for the trial to proceed

Mr. O'Conner said the personal converence of Mr. Davis would have been promoted if the trial had taken place in May list, and it would be very convenient to Mr. Davis to have the trial proceed. His counsel would, however, agree to the proposition of Mr. Evarts. They though the presence of Chief Justice Class would be beneficial, not alone to the inicrest of the accused, but to the interests of all.

Judge Underwood said the arrange ment proposed by the Government for the trial of Mr. Davis was agreeable to the Court, and particularly so because the Court carnestly desired that Chief Jes tice Chase should sit upon the trial. 1 was also due to the defence that two Judges should sit on the case, in order that in appeal might be taken on disputed quastions and the case carried up by defendant to a higher Court. The Judge then agreed to fix the 25th day of March as the day for the trial.

An application was made Mr. O'Connor that the bail bond of Mr. Davis be extended until the time fixed for the trial to proceed. This was agreed to by Judge Underwood, and it was further agreed that if Chief Justice Chase could not be present to preside over the Court that the leave of Mr. Davis he extended to the term following. The order for the extension of the leave of al-sence of Mr. Davis, and fixing the 25th of March next as the day for his trial, was then entered by order of Judge Underwood.

Mr. Davis did not appear in Court, nor did the witnesses for the government -Three witnesses who came in, Ex-Secretary Seddon, Ex Governor Letcher, and then forever .- Memphis Ledger. Gen Wiekham, were held in recognizances to appear in March.

THE BANKRUPT ACT.

All who contemplate availing themselves of the benefits of the Bankrupt Law must do so previous to March 2, 1868, as the fifty per cent clause takes effect on that day. There are only about one hundred and fifteen days left. All claims against a bankrupt who applies after next March, will, as a matter of course, be proven. Section 36 of the law, in relation to the fifty per cent, is as follows liceman was shot. There was no evidence General Harney' and, Colonel Tadpan, "And in all proceedings in bankruptey, this act shall go into operation, no disassests does not pay fifty per cent. of the claims against his estate, unless the assent, in writing, of a majority in number and value of his creditors, who have proved their claimes, is filed in the case, at or her blessed majesty's merelful govern- shot through the foot, and two men killed before the time of application for dis-

It seems that Mr. B., whom the robber was rapidly approaching when hightened away by the sudden appearance of two horsemen who came up, noticed that a couple of the unwelcome visitor's fingers were missing. Beheving he could appear among the people, as but another of the victims of the rob ber whose exploits had spread terror and amazement throughout the community, he adopted that method of further buffling pursuit. He did not recken upon the ib scace of a finger or two betraying him .-It simply happened that Mr. Battle's eyes were sharp, and fulfilled their office even when bullets were whistling about their owner's head, and the robber's ruse failed.

Somehow, the captured robber suddenly disappeared from the station, whither no one comed to know. A few curious ones started in search. Late in the afternoon the form of a man was seen dangling from a tree in the awamp; it was lifeless June 4, Ly am't publication for School and two of the flagers of the left hand were missing.
