

MIFFLINTOWN, Wednesday Morning, September 7, 1870.

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT TICKET.

CONGRESS, HON. JOHN B. PACKER.

OF NORTH CAROLINA.

(Subject to Decision of District Conference.)

STATE SENATE, W. P. WILSON, of Centre county.

D. W. WOODS, of Mifflin county.

ASSEMBLY, GEN. T. F. MCCOY, of Mifflin county.

DAVID ETNIER, Esq., of Huntingdon.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

SHERIFF, WILLIAM GIVEN, of Fermanagh.

REGISTER AND RECORDER, E. W. H. KREIDER, of Mifflintown.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER, JAS. J. CULBERTSON, Spruce Hill.

JURY COMMISSIONER, JOSEPH ROTHROCK, of Fermanagh.

COUNTY AUDITOR, G. S. METTERLING, of Monroe.

Desirable Location for a Manufacturing Establishment.

Nearly every inhabitant of Mifflin and Patterson has some time or other asked, or been asked, "To what use does the Pennsylvania Railroad Company intend to put the almost abandoned shops at Patterson?"

The veteran Republican, Horace Greeley, has been spoken of in connection with the Republican nomination for Governor of New York.

Horace Greeley does not understand that Republicanism means a scramble for office. He understands that Republicanism stands at the head of the civilization of the world, and that in its advocacy for the establishment of a liberal government here to include the oppressed of all lands who come among us voluntarily, does not lower the grade of the party, but raises it higher.

Republican Senatorial Conference. On Thursday, the 1st inst., the Republican Conference of this the 21st Senatorial District, consisting of Blair, Centre, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Perry and Juniata, met at Lewistown, and, on the 23rd ballot, nominated W. P. Wilson, of Centre county, and on the 25th ballot nominated D. W. Woods, of Mifflin county.

BRAINARD, of the Tyrone Herald, has, in this district, lionized himself through the medium of an article entitled "The Harmonious Democracy." Said article is devoted to an account of the proceedings of the Democratic Senatorial Conference which met at Lewistown and nominated Crawford and Petriken for State Senate.

HON. JOHN B. PACKER was unanimously nominated by the Dauphin county Republican Convention on Tuesday last. The following gentlemen were nominated by the same Convention for Assembly: John E. Parsons, of Halifax, and A. C. Smith, Esq., of Harrisburg.

AN attempt was made to hold a meeting of colored Democrats in Baltimore, on Tuesday, the 23d of August. The affair turned out to be a fizzle. The Democrats of Maryland do not recognize the "white man's party." Republicans should take this as a lesson.

The War in Europe.

It is a little more than a month since actual hostilities were commenced along the French and Prussian borders. It was on the 2nd day of August that a heavy column of French troops moved on and took possession of Saarbruck, and it was here that the Prince Imperial received his "baptism of fire." This "first victory," insignificant as it was, was heralded abroad, and looked upon as an omen of success to the French cause.

THE WAR IN FRANCE.

THE FALL OF NAPOLEON

McMahon's Whole Army Captured.

LONDON, Saturday, Sept. 3.—The special correspondent of The Tribune telegraphs that the Emperor and the whole of MacMahon's army were captured yesterday. The following dispatch from King William to Queen Augusta had just been made public in Berlin: BEFORE SEDAN, France, Friday, Sept. 2.—1:22 P. M.—From the King to the Queen:—A capitulation, whereby the whole army at Sedan are prisoners of war, has just been concluded with Gen. Wimpfen, commanding, instead of Marshal MacMahon, who is wounded. The Emperor surrendered himself to me, as he has no command, and left everything to the Regent at Paris. His residence I shall appoint after an interview with him at a rendezvous to be fixed immediately. Under God's guidance, what course events have taken!

THE BATTLE AND SURRENDER. LONDON, Saturday, Sept. 3, 1870.—The special correspondent of The Tribune telegraphs as follows from the King's headquarters at Vendresse, near Sedan, on Friday: "The battle of Sedan began at 9 A. M. on the 1st of September. Two Prussian corps were in position on the west of Sedan, having got there by a long forced march, so as to cut off by the French retreat to Metziers. On the South of Sedan was the First Bavarian Corps, and on the East, across the Meuse, the Second Bavarian Corps. The Saxons were on the Northeast with the Guards. I was with the King throughout the day on the hill above St. Meuze, commanding a splendid view of the valley of the Meuse and the field.

After a tremendous battle, the Prussians having completely surrounded Sedan, and the Bavarians having actually entered the fortification of the city, the Emperor capitulated at 5:15 P. M. His letter to the King of Prussia said: "As I cannot die at the head of my army, I lay my sword at the feet of your Majesty."

Napoleon left Sedan for the Prussian headquarters at Vendresse at 7 A. M. on the 2d of September. MacMahon's whole army, comprising 100,000 men, capitulated without conditions. The Prussians had 240,000 troops engaged or in reserve, the French 120,000."

THE WRECKABOUTS OF NAPOLEON AND THE PRINCE IMPERIAL. The Emperor and Prince Imperial are at Baron Chimay's residence in Belgium. ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DISASTER IN PARIS.—RESISTANCE STILL INTENDED. PARIS, Sept. 4.—The Council of Ministers has issued the following proclamation: "To the French People.—A great misfortune has come upon the country. After three days' heroic struggles sustained by the army of Marshal MacMahon against 300,000 of the enemy, 40,000 have been made prisoners. Gen. de Wimpfen, who took command of the army in place of Marshal MacMahon, badly wounded, has signed the capitulation. The cruel reverse will not shake our courage. France is to day in a complete state of defense. The military forces of the country will be organized in a few days. A new army will be under the walls of Paris. Another army is forming on the banks of the Loire. Your patriotism, your union, your energy will save France. The Emperor has been made a prisoner in the struggle. The Government, in accord with public power, will take all measures required by the gravity of events.—Signed, Count de Palike, Chevreaux, Regault de Genoully; Jules Braine, De La Tour d'Auvergne, Grand Perret, Clement Duvernois; P. Mayne, Busson, Billardet and Jerome David, of the Council of Ministers.

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—The following despatches have been received here from the King to the Queen:—"VARENNES, 5 o'clock Sunday morning.—What a thrilling moment that of my meeting with Napoleon. He was dejected but dignified. I assigned as his place of immediate stay Williamshofen, near Cassel. Our meeting took place at a small country house opposite the western gates of Sedan. "When summoned to it I was in the saddle inspecting the positions before the place. You must imagine my reception among the troops. It was indescribable. Their exultation was overwhelming. At dusk I ended a five hours' ride, and at 11 in the morning returned richer, and my God aid us further. WILHELM."

PRUSSIA WILL CONTINUE HOSTILITIES. WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The following official despatch has just been received at the Legation of the North German Union:—"The Emperor Napoleon having declared that his captivity prevents him from negotiating the peace, the French Government being at Paris, the war will still be continued."

NO MEDIATION.

STUTTGART, Sept. 3.—At a crowded meeting held here to-day the following resolution was adopted:—"Resolved, That Germany refuses the mediation or intervention of the Powers. Dispatches state that the Crown Prince has taken up his line of march for Paris."

Accident at a Firemen's Parade.

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio, Sept. 3. At the parade of the fire department here yesterday, during the exercises, a man was put at the top of a 30 foot ladder, the top round of which broke and precipitated him to the ground, mortally injuring him.

Accident to a Carpenter.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—A carpenter named Andrew Dankert, was at work on the second story of a butcher shop in Reading yesterday, when the scaffolding gave way and threw him on a row of iron mallets on the wall of the first story. One hook entered his side and came out at his back suspending him in air, where he hung until taken down by his fellow workmen. He will die from his injuries.

A Turkish City Burned.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—A telegram from Constantinople brings news that the seaport town of Zaneun, in Asia Minor, a station of the Austrian Steam Navigation Company's packets, has been destroyed by fire. 2,500 houses and 6 churches are in ashes. Many lives were lost. The inhabitants are suffering terribly from want of food and shelter.

Gen. Grant for President in 1872.

The Republican Legislative and County Conventions which met in this city on Tuesday last unanimously passed a joint resolution presenting General Grant as a candidate for re-nomination in 1872.—Pittsburg Gazette, Sept. 3.

JOHN H. TAGGART, of the Philadelphia Sunday Times, is out against For's "American Theatre." He styles it: the hot-bed of sin and shame. He is cutting right and left all around.

AMONG other summer fashions for gentlemen which have prevailed in Canada, and to some extent on this side of "the line," is that of wearing a veil twisted around the hat.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored. Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, &c., also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cts.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers, CHAS. J. C. KILMER & CO., 127 Bowery, New York, Post-Office Box 4,586, Aug. 31, 70-ly
