TOWN AND COUNTRY. ENTERPRISING book publishers are beginning to announce their Holiday books. GREAT REDUCTION in the price of Glass Jars, at N. E. Littlefield's—$1.25 per dozen. THE maples are coloring, and will soon be arrayed in crimson, rich purple, and bright gold. DON'T NEGLECT IT.—Don't forget to nominate a Township Ticket for the October election. The elections all come on one day. PRETTY—The new show cases at Tilden & Espenshade's, but prettier still are the fancy articles which are so tastefully arranged in the cases. READER, if you are a voter, but cannot say whether you have been registered or not, attend to it at once. Go to the Assessor, and have him take your name. CHANGED HIS BASE.—Cornelius Bartley has changed his place of business from East Point to the "Barnard Stand," on the west side of Main street, opposite the Post Office. Call and see him. STOVE GRATES.—For Grates and Inglees for the Oriental and Morning Glory Parlor Stoves, apply to N. E. LITTLEFIELD, Bridge Street, Mifflintown.

Mr. WILLIAM W. COLLINS, of Mystic was bitten by a tomato worm on Saturday last, and died from the effects of the bite on Sunday. He lived in Westery, Rhode Island.—Ez. WANTED.—An apprentice wanted to the shoemaking trade. One who has been at the trade some time preferred.—Apply to GEO. W. HECK, Mifflintown. WITHIN the whole range of tonic and alterative medicines known, none is entitled to more consideration than the Peruvian Syrup. In all cases of enfeebled and debilitated constitution it is the very remedy needed. The most positive proof of this can be adduced. "SHOOT FOLLY AS IT FLIES," and stop using preparations on your head which are composed of poisons. Use NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, which by its cleanliness, fragrance and purity commends itself. For sale at R. F. Kepner's Drug Store, Main street, Mifflintown. See advertisement.

CHOKED.—Samuel Cleck, of Walker township, had a valuable horse that on last Friday night, in some way got the halter chain, with which it was tied in the stable, tangled around its neck in such a manner that the beast was choked to death. The horse was dead when Mr. Cleck reached the barn in the morning. POLITICAL.—The Republicans of Fayette township are requested to meet at the School House in McAlisterville, on Friday evening, Sept. 23d, for the purpose of nominating a township ticket. J. M. SHAYRON, J. E. GRAYBILL, J. McAlisterville, Sept. 17, 1870. AN OLD CHICKEN.—The Waynesboro Record, chronicles the demise of a Brahma hen which was hatched in the Spring of 1851, and died in that place on the 18 inst., aged nineteen years and five months. It adds that "pullets of this kind are rare. Good cooks are doubtless of the opinion that it would be an utter impossibility get them well done."

A FEW nights ago a family in Womelsdorf, Berks county, were awakened by the screams of their infant lying in its cradle. Blood was found issuing from its mouth and cheek, and a close examination disclosed what appeared to be a rat bite penetrating the gum and upper lip, and terminating at the nostril. The next night a trap was set and an enormous rat caught nearly the size of a small cat. This incident affords another proof of the assertion that rats will sometimes attack infants.—West Chester Republican.

GOOD WHEAT.—Mr. Alexander Crowl recently threshed his wheat off 6 acres of land which produced 84 bushels—an average of 14 bushels per acre. Hiram Clement, of Cecil county, Md., a neighbor of Mr. Crowl, threshed some of his wheat which yielded at the rate of 19 bushels per acre. These are the heaviest yields of the wheat we have heard of this season—the majority of farmers having less than ten bushels per acre. Mr. Crowl's wheat was of the white straw variety and red wheat. The ground had been dressed with 200 lbs. of Phillips' phosphate per acre, on top of baro yard manure.—Oxford Prices

A FEW days ago, a child of Joseph S. Masterson, residing in Mount township, Lancaster county, got on the table and ate some poison, which had been placed there for the flies. When the matter was discovered, physicians were sent for, and the usual remedies applied; but in three hours afterwards, the child was a corpse.—West Chester Republican.

RESPONSIBILITY OF RAILROAD COMPANIES.—The practice of the courts has heretofore been, when an action for damages was brought against a railroad company, that the defendants might claim that they used due diligence and care to avoid accidents and the plaintiff was required to prove there was neglect. The company controlling the evidence to a great extent, it is often next to impossible for the complainants to make out their case. The Pennsylvania courts now decide that the accident itself is evidence of neglect. The company, must, if it can, prove the contrary, whether the accident arises from defects of engines, cars or rails, or from the act of employees. The adoption of such a rule generally will be likely to lessen the number of accidents by making the bill for damage much larger.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—On the 15th of July, 1869, the young men of the borough of Perryville met in convention and organized the "Perryville Cornet Band." From the date of its organization the band has made rapid strides in the way of progress, and to-day, under its efficient leader A. A. Zimmerman, it will compare favorably with any organization of a similar character along the Juniata. The Band is about leasing a plot of ground upon which they propose erecting a substantial two story frame building. It is the intention to make the upper part a practice room and depositary of the property of the band, while the lower room will serve as a place to keep the band wagon. They are at present having their instruments overhauled, which, when completed, will render them first class. They are now prepared to fill engagements at short notice, with music suitable for any occasion.

In connection with the Cornet Band there is a first class Orchestra, which can be secured at any time and place where their services may be required. For terms call on or address A. A. ZIMMERMAN, Leader, or J. B. THOMPSON, Secy. P. C. Band, Perryville Juniata Co., Pa.

THE PLACE.—He looked so neat. He looked so sleek. He looked so fine and fair. In a spotted vest. In striped pants. That cannot rip. I'll ask him quick. "You bought 'em, where?" All the above was gotten off by a fellow who saw Jackson, one of the editors of the Democrat, coming out of Loudon's Tailoring Establishment the other day, with a new vest and pair of pants on. The editor stopped short, when the above question was put to him, and straightened himself to his full height—which is not very high at all, and looked. Oh, mercy! but he looked at the fellow. "Don't you know," said he, rubbing his hand over the sleek and neatly fitting garments, "that there is only one place in this county, and that place is in this town, where a man can get such clothes?" "Where?" asked the fellow, with trembling speech, for he saw the tie in the editor's eye. "Out out of my presence, you fellow. Go to Loudon's to buy clothing, sleek and fine." The fellow "dug" one way, towards Loudon's, and the editor another way, towards the Democrat office. Go to Loudon's to buy clothes.

"THAT EMPTY CHAIR."—When the news reached Paris that Napoleon had been forced to surrender, the population of that gay city ran almost wild. "Down with the throne!" "Down with the Emperor!" "Down with Napoleon!" "A Republic!" "Long live the Republic!" was shouted everywhere through the streets of that city. A mob invaded the Royal Palace. In many places, and on most of the furniture within this fine kingdom residence, the letter "N" had been placed by the Emperor. It is the initial letter of the family name that sunk, at Sedan, from the list of the names of the European reigning families. This letter, wherever found, was destroyed. A crowd surged around the throne. The "empty chair" was closely scrutinized, and the letter "N" searched for. Many of the mobsters sat in it, grinning and yelling, "Long live the Republic! Down with Napoleon!" They were a great deal more affected at the sight of the throne than was the SENTINEL local when he first caught sight of the great "EMPTY CHAIR," which made its appearance on the northwest corner of Main and Cherry streets, on Friday morning last. Like the Parisian mob that surged about the empty throne in the "Palace Royal," he surged around and about that "empty chair" on the street corner, looking for letters, and on it saw the following:—"W. F. Snyder's Chair Manufacturing, Wholesale and Retail." Mr. Snyder is a manufacturing Cane Seat and Windsor Chairs, Settees, Rocking Chairs, &c., that for good workmanship and beauty of finish cannot be surpassed. He is selling Cane Seat Chairs at a lower price than can be purchased anywhere else in the county. Remember the sign of the "Big Chair" when you wish to buy good work. Mr. Snyder is an industrious and superior workman, and deserves to be liberally patronized. All work warranted.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINES. The following are selected from thousands of testimonials of similar character, as expressing the reasons for the preference for the GROVER & BAKER Machines over all others. "I like the Grover & Baker Machine, the first place, because, if I had any other, I should still want a Grover & Baker, and, having a Grover & Baker, it answers the purpose of all the rest. It does a greater variety of work and it is easier to learn than any other."—Mrs. J. C. Cray (Lansy Jane)

"I have had several years' experience with a Grover & Baker Machine, which has given me great satisfaction. I think the Grover & Baker Machine is more easily managed, and less liable to get out of order. I prefer the Grover & Baker, decidedly."—Mrs. Dr. W. H. W. New York. "I have had one in my family for some two years, and from what I know of its workings, and from the testimony of many of my friends who use the same, I can truly say that anything could be more complete or give better satisfaction."—Mrs. General Grant.

"I believe it to be the best, all things considered, of any that I have known. It is very simple and easily learned; the sewing from the ordinary needle is a great advantage; the stitch is entirely reliable; it does ornamental work beautifully; it is not liable to get out of order."—Mrs. A. M. Spooner, 35 Bond Street, Brooklyn. "I am acquainted with the work of the principal machines; and I prefer the Grover & Baker to them all, because I consider the stitch more elastic. I have worked in the house which was done nine years ago, which is still good."—Mrs. Dr. McCord, No. 49 East Twenty Third Street, New York.

"More than two-thirds of all the sewing done in my family for the last two years has been done by Grover & Baker's Machine, and I never had a constant rip or need mending, except those rents which frolicsome boys will make in whole cloth. It is in my opinion by far the most valuable of any I have tried."—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher. The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company manufacture both the Elastic Stitch and Lock Stitch Machines, and offer the public a choice of the best machines of both kinds, at their establishments in all the large cities, and through agencies in nearly all towns throughout the country. Price Lists and samples of sewing in both stitches furnished on application to Grover & Baker S. M. Co., 115 Market street, Harrisburg. April 27, 1870.
