

MIFFLINTOWN Wednesday Morning, November 23, 1870.

B. F. SCHWEIER. EDITOR A PROPRIETOR.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO. 40 Park Row, New York

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO., 37 Park Row, N. Y. Are our sole agents in that city, and are auto contract for advertising at our ipated in the ceremonies of the day.

Acknowledgments.

Hon John Scott has our acknowledg ments for a volume containing, the Presi dent's message at the commencement of the third session of the Fortieth Congress, with the reports of the heads of departments, and other accompanying documents.

We have received from Hon, D. J. Morrell pamphlets the "Protective Question Abroad," and Commissioner Wells Reviewed." the latter being a report sub mitted to the House of Representatives by Mr. Morrell of Cambria county, Pa, from the committee on manufactures, on the 19th day of July, 1870; also a phan School Boys of McAlisterville. pumphlet copy of the speech delivered by himself in the House of Representatives, July 13th, 1876, on the report of the committee of conference on the bill to Lodge, No. 131, I O. O. F., McCoys-Reduce Internal Taxes and for other ville Lodge, No. 674, I O. O. F., Mc

Clellan, in the following order:

First Division.

Newport Band,

Second Division.

Perrysville Band,

Third Divisi n.

McAlisterville Band,

Christy : Illinois, Clara Dolen ; Indiana,

Fourth Die sion

Lewistown Band,

H. A. Stambaugh, Marshal, Logan

Guards of Lewistown, Soldiers and men

President-Gen. William Bell

McAlister, Lewis Degan; Monroe, G 8

Metterling, B. Ritz; Susquehanna, & G.

More Trouble in Europe.

The attention of the world has been ville drawn from the maneuvering of the opposing armies on French soil to the attitude that Russia has assumed toward P. L. Greenleaf, Marshal, Wagon conthe Paris treaty of March, 1856. The taining representatives of the States, [we war that preceded, and from which the give the names of those who represented treaty sprung, is yet fresh in the minds of Liberty, Dollie Books; Alabama, Jenof the reading public. We all remember nie Howe; Arkansas, Maggie Elder; how stubbornly Sevastopol fought the California, Alice Vanormer; Connecticut, allied forces, and how, after months of Dollie Ellis; Delaware, Annie Hittle; siege, this great fortress on the coast of Florida, Kate Albright; Georgia, Sallie the Black Sea yie'ded, and how, soon, Lizzie Doughman; Iowa, Eva McClelafter its destruction, the Paris treaty of lan; Kansas, Ellie Goshen; Kentucky, March, 1856, followed. The contracting Lollie Dietrick; Louisiana, Mary Basom; powers in the treaty were Great Britian, Maine, Lizzie Coffman; Maryland, Em-Austria, Prussia, France, Sardinia, ma Todd; Massachusetts, Annie Coff-Russia and Turkey. All the govern-nesota, Ellie Haller; Mississippi, Jennie sels of war, whether belonging to na- Virginia, Lida Trimble; Wisconsin, Ur- breath and departs only with the; it will as uments as they are, crying aloue to you or sert itself in the traitor's heart, like Banquo's the ingratitude of the nation in not procurtions having territory bordering on the sula Watts; | Sincerity Lodge, No. 357 Black Sea or not, shall not enter its I. O. O. F., Perrysville Lodge, No. 556. waters. Thus by treaty provisions to O. F. McWilliams Lodge, I. O. F. use a European word, the sca was "neutralized." The treaty further stipulated that neither Russia or Turkey should construct or maintain any naval or military arsenals upon its coast.

Within the past ten days the Czar of Orphan School Girls of McAlisterville in Russia has, through his prime minister a wagon. Gortschakoff, announced to the Euro- Procession moved at 2 o'clock P. M., at the mention of her name. pean governments that Russia will no over the following route: Counter march longer respect the provisions of the on Third street to Cherry; out Cherry how will we entwine its tendrils around the treaty; that the treaty has been violated to East Point; down Washington to hearts of coming generations in order that great principle, the defence of which made by the other powers; that Turkey has Third; up Third to Orange; down Ormen, this is a problem that every nation on hood you will be ready and willing to debeen allowed to keep up "unlimited naval ange to Front; down front to Bridge; the surface of the earth has at some time or fend the soil of your State and the honor of forces in the Archipelago and Straits, and that France and England preserved the power to concentrate their squadrons in the Maditars and that they could be a few forces in the Archipelago and Straits, and that France and England preserved to Mowry; up Mowry to Road; up Road to Franklin; down Franklin to Mowry; and that they could be a few forces in the sarrace of the cartin has at some time or other in its history attempted to solve. The most effective method ever discovered to keep alive this essential feeling of patriotism you have erected and are dedicating to all future times a monuteristic of the soil of your country; and should the occurrence of your particles of the soil of your country; and should the occurr the Mediteranean, and that they could, down Mowry to Main; down Main to ment commemorative of the services renin consequence of this nearness, in the Railcoad Avenue; down Avenue to Path. in consequence of this nearness, in the Railroad Avenue; down Avenue to Path; dered to the state by your own patriotic sons. won victory, but to the privileged lew, whom in consequence of this nearness, in the Railroad Avenue; down Avenue to Path; dered to the state by your own patriotic sons. When the accident of birth had invested with auevent of a war, pounce upon Russia's dedown Path to Juniata; up Juniata to recal! the memory of great deeds, of earnest thority. You my friends, erect this monufenceless coast The Prince further says Main; cross back to Mifflin; up Bridge patriotism, and of unhesitating devotion to a ment upon no such principle, you do not dethat upon several occasions the Straits to Court House Square. were opened to foreign ships of war, and The procession was the largest and that on the Black Sea whole squadrons most imposing one ever formed here, and departed here will repair to this spot with have been allowed to sail, without any consumed an hour in marching over the her son; point out to him his father's Mauso- few years and take a retrospect of our strugprotest being made It is charged that prescribed rout and reaching the Court gallantly defended the flag of his country; parties to the treaty have been guilty, of House Yard, where the monument is loca. how he foll. The maiden was exposed; consider the magnitude of the these breaches. It is charged, though not in the Prince's circular, that England, France. Austria and Turkey, all the procession broke and mingled with of him she actores. Here will come the aged have violated the treaty stipulations by the other citizens to listen to the orator crippled veteran with his grand-son by his side entering the Sea with vessels of war .- of the day, General McCandless, of Phil- and standing before this monument all his selves and all who should come after us, No more opportune time could have adelphia. arisen for the Czar to break the treaty This was not an assembly of men flame his breast,—the great cause—the earnest love of the class of country shackles than the present time, when two alone-it was an assembly of the fathers, -the, the weary march-the dreary bivous of the parties, Russia and France, are the mothers, the brothers, the sisters, the the final victory; all all these will pass in rewarring against each other. It remains sons and daughters, and the friends of view before his mind; his ancient ardor will unknown whether England, Austria, the dead heroes. This generation will revive and he will recount in stirring speech and martial phrase the glories of his youth. Into the gready ear of the listening lad the pel Russia to stand to the provisions of On behalf of the Committee on Or. old man will pour the story of the battles, the treaty. If they so attempt, the whole ganization Lieutenant W. W. Davis and fired by recollections of these scenes he of Europe and part of Asia will soon be called the assembly to order. The fol- will "shoulder his crutch and show how engaged in bloody war.

LAST week one day, a messenger of officers of the meeting; the Peoples' Bank of New York. When on the street to attend to some business for the bank, suddenly found himself in quite a crowd, he was shoved about a good deal, after the crowed had passed Dressler, Jonathan Weiser; Greenwood, the deeds of his grandsire and his comrades. he discovered that his pocket had been G W McElwee. Henry S Dimm; Dela With every noble sentiment of his soul arpicked of $4,954,51 of gold certificates, ware, D B Eimm, S O Evans; Thompand $8,390 of promissary notes, the sonton, Geo Mills, Dr J Grubb; Walkproperty of the bank.

Patterson, S H Brown, Jacob Frank; DEATH OF AN EDITOR,-On the morn-Milford, John Cunningham, G W Burching of the 15th inst., C W. Starbuck, of Cincinnati, and chief proprietor of the Cincinnati Daily Times, died suddenly Cincinnati Daily Cincinnati on the 18th inst. The death of Mr. Wharton, Henry Brennisholtz, the matter is decided by special elec- Jackman, J W Speddy, B F Schweier.

Dedication of the Soldiers' Monument. | after which the President, General Bell, | not as the sert or parish of the State, but as | themselves to endure all the dangers and pri-On the 17th day of this month introduced General McCandless, who dethe Monument erected to the memory of livered the following

ADDRESS: the citizen soldiers of Juniata county LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: When Solon, who fell in the late rebellion, was dedicated with appropriated services. The day was fine. It was all that could be asked at the court of the Lydian monarch, then the mightiest and wealthiest of potentates, rejoicing in the fullness of his glory and the extent of his realms, he was asked by the tions were ample. The attendance was vain monarch, who expected and desired a ations were ample. The attendance was reply flattering to himself, this question: large. Between three and four thousand "Who, Oh! Scion, was the most happy man persons were present. People were here you have ever known?" The king was amazed and startled at the answer. "Fellus, from adjoining counties. The "Logan an Athenian mechanic," replied Solon, "was Guards," of Lewistown, one of the first the most happy of men whom I have ever known. He, after a life spent in doing good Companies that hastened to the defence to his fellow citizens, having had a family of of the nation in 1861, was here, under stalwart sons born unto him, died gloriously Col Selheimer. Gen. T. F. McCoy was of a victorious battle wherein her rights had in line with this Company. The Com- been asserted and her freedom assured, to pany was in citizens' dress. The "Hunt- his personal valor." Well might Crossus be ingdon Guards." commanded by Capt. astonished at this reply of the man whose Win. Burchner, and other citizens of laws have male his came immortal, bur in it was contained the germ of the principle that Huntingdon county were here and parti- makes small states great and republics pow erful. This was a recognition that the feellowest rates. Advertisers in that city are 18quested to leave their favors with either of the above houses.

The Company was in military dress, and its appearance was the subject of many youd the height of kings, and sublimes even its appearance was the subject of many youd the height of kings, and sublimes even ordinary virtues when displayed in the serfavorable remarks. The outpouring of vice of one's country into greatness before the people clearly tells that the memory which the power of monarcus and the grandeur of courts sink into insignificance. It is of the citizen soldiers who gave up their a beautiful expression of that noble sentiworld, is enshrined in the innermost reforcibly that patriotism is a live virtue which constitutes her the beacon-light to among us. The procession was formed ous action, or think a noble thought forever Col. John K. Robison, Marshal, Committee of Arrangements, Speakers of the day, Huntingdon Guards, Soldiers Or-

E. W. H. Kreider, Marshal, Mifflintown out of the condition of cypher and becomes where in comfortable quarters, with a com-Alisterville Lodge, No. 716, I. O. O F . Patterson Council, No 200, O. U. A. M., Junior Mechanics of Mifflin and Perrysrepresents happiness to him and an increase of liberty to his posterity. Sometimes for Cross the channel and there we find hearts, reminding us that forgiveness to the the perpetuation of a dynasty, sometimes for that England who has owed so much to the fallen does belong. Then will the charity on that England who has owed so much to the fallen does belong. Then will the charity on that England who has owed so much to the fallen does belong. Then will the charity on the fallen does belong the charity of the mounteent. the perpetuation of a dynasty, sometimes for the gravification of the ambition of a mon- arch, and sometimes to please the whim or caprice of a Madam De Pompadour armies may and have occasionally achieved victor. Hat England who has owed so much to the that dictated the erection of this mountment the respect due to the dead whose valor has triumphantly borne the fiery cross of Saint restrict our affections, or confine our hearts, but the whole boundless continent shall be es, but such success, as it does not elevate the the duties she owes to the survivors of the ours. Love of country will again animate citizen nor tend to the general good, will many sanguinary fields on which, at the every breast, and will extend its beneficent one Democrat in the Senate and but two clothing, was arraigned for drunkenness, influences farther than ever before—as deep counties in the State have gone Democrat. sult of spasmodic effort and not the legitimate sult of spasmodic effort and not the legitimate that same fiery cross imperially blazed, radiant product of genuine virtue; it proceeds from with victory. The land is stuffed over with emporary energy or perhaps the ability of a monuments which gratitude has raised to the vania. Let the dead past bury its dead; le ruler, and when these cease to exist, the soul of a nation being dead, internal corruption and external disaster destroy and overturn the spiendid but baseless superstructure. The courage of such a people lacks the real ani- guiles the day with stories of the Iron Duke, country from whose bourne no traveller renating influence, which is a love of country. or tells how he and his comrades in the far-This alone can give a nation that pride of off realms of the once imperial Aurungzebe mind drawing its inspiration from freedom met and overcame the desperate valor of the which fills the heart with a courage undaunted by defeat, and disaster and unsubdued by defeat, and Greenwich the shattered hulks of England's ber man; Michigan, Alberta Kepner; Minwhich, ever like Antaeus touching his mother naval heroes are moored safely in harbor for earth, springs elastic with new vigor. The ments just named signed the treaty with Horning; Missouri, Eddie Showers; Ne- individual sovereignty which a citizen of a calm, and the many wonders of the deep; the firm belief that a blow had been de-livered against Russia that would, for Jane Loudon; New Hampshire, Eliza livered against Russia that would, for Jane Loudon; New Hampshire, Eliza he is willing to die for the liberty he loves. the firm belief that a blow had been de- braska, Juniata Pannebaker; Nevada, republic enjoys, stimulates him either on the again he engages broadside to broadside at livered against Russia that would, for many years to come, dispose of her am Mork, Cora Conner; North Carolina, From this pure spirit of patriotism free governments spring, without which they will be "Britania Rules the Wave." I am reminded, with unabated ferver and undoubting mind ernments spring, without which they will be "Britania Rules the Wave." I am reminded, with unabated ferver and undoubting mind ernments spring, without which they will be bitious designs to help herself to a piece Lizzie Coleman; Ohio, Annie Groninger; as evanescent as the mist upon your mountain whilst we dedicate this shrine to the memory tain sides. This love of country, my friends, of those who laid their lives upon their strip of the southern border of the Rusnia; Elsie McKnight: Rhode Islands is a prolific theme; it inspires the mind; it country's altar, that some of their surviving crippled comrades are now begging their the weak and presses onward the strong; it bread through the country, the life and uni-European Turkey also border on this sea.

The treaty of 1856 stipulates that vestories of the treaty of the treaty

> Who never to himself hath said, This is my own, my native land."

who served in the late rebellion, Soldiers' Yes, dead must be the soul that does not swed with emotion at the thought that this day, and seen in the neatly clothed, bright is also own land, and dead soon would be that eyed children, the death of whose fathers land whose children did not glow with pride worthy cause.

Here will be found exemplars worthy of imitation. This inarticulate marble will teach enduring lessons. The widow of the history did citizen soldier, And aver in the world's history did citizen soldiery deserve better of leum; explain to him how he volunteered and gle for national existence; consider the imyouth will revive; the old days will pass betore him anew; the old teelings will again in--the desperate battle-the tempoary defeat and lowing named persons were nominated blazoned with the deeds of the glorious dead and exclaim with proud emphasis, "I was one of those!" And as the old man talks, by in the exercise of their constitutional Vice Presidents—Fermanagh, Joseph Rothrock, Wm. Banks; Fayene, G W body is nerved. The lesson has entered his soul. He, too, aspires to be one of those, and of the very system it was inaugurated to roused he departs with regret from this altar of devotion erected to the faller, heroes of sonton, Geo Mills. Dr J Grubb; Walk-er, John N Moore, Jerome Hetrick; Mif-come a Swrine. Fathers, Mothers, Sisters, flintown, Geo Reynolds, B F Walters; Brothers win all come here. It will be an hallowed spot. The spirit of these martyrs will forever linger around it beckoning coming generations.

My friends, you are to-day perpetuating in the very foundation of its strength and great-ness. All the Republics of ancient Greece thus paid their tribute of gratitude to the patrotism of their sons. On the field of Marathon where the Athenians encountered the hordes of Persia, threatening to submerge Europe in one general deluge of universal despotism, and victoriously stemed that fearful tide of subjugation, their admiring fellow citizens built a mound inscribed monwealth came the hardy backwoodsman, with the names of the fallen,—a mound with his bucktail in his felt hat—all volun-which still stands to remind the scholar and the western lover of liberty of the gallant these States under the Constitution framed men who fought upon that day. There each succeeding year, so long as Greece main-tained her freedom, a panegyrical funeral quent over the great battles of Alexander. succeeding year, so long as Greece maintained her freedom, a panegyrical funeral oration was delivered and thus the fires of patriotism were kept burning bright, by re-counting the incidents of that wonderful fight. Through every epoch of Greecian history, up to the very pinnacte of her greatness, and down through the long olympiads of her decline and fall the youth of Greece epaired to Marathon to renew their patriot ism as the Moslem in long succeeding ages made their pilgrimages to Mecca to invigorate

"Go stranger and to listening Spartans tell, That here obedient to her laws we feil," s the modest, yet suggestive insciption on the column erected at the pass of Thermopylae consecrated to the memory of that glorious band of three hundred, who, animated solely by a sense of duty and adoration of freedom resisted to the death the myriad of the Perthat sacred spot, and read that simple record without feeling his blood tingle through his lives that freedom may not be lost to the ment that "it is a sweet and becoming thing veins, without a thrill of exultation here the sword of Hellas had carved its way cesses of their hearts. The honors paid in battle that made Greece in her day as a civilization? what Greek could go thence cesses of their hearts. The honors paid in oatte that make so of the world in arms to our heroic dead on last Thursday tells and the great master of science and of art; without an honest pride of the place and the great master of science and of art; of the heroic souls who there gave up their which all succeeding ages have turned their lives. In ancient Rome the instinct of na-eyes to guide their course, and which has tionality inspired their Bards, who in verse by Chief Marshal Capt. Cornelius Mc- exalted her into a model to which all who recounted the heroism of an Horatius, Cocles, aspire to do a gallant deed, perform a gener- the sacrificing patriotism of a Mutius Scavo la, the self devotion an immolation of a Quinlook for inspiration. Under such teachings tius Curtius, and the unselfish martyrdom the heart of the citizen expanded with the of a Decius. These songs, recalling the great glory of his country; its honor and greatness ness of their ancestors, animated the hearts were paramount to all other considerations of the Roman citizens to increase the greatand as constant in his mind as is the northeral ness of Rome and extend her dominions star in the firmament, "History, which is throughout the entire civilized world.—philosophy teaching by example," proves France has not been ungrateful to her deserthat this amor patrus in its purity is peculiar ving children; those who have devoted life fought his last fight and won his last battle. that this amor purray in its purity their to free governments. It is eminently their or limb to the glory of the "tri color." Visit characteristic. Among them it reflects its her queen city now beleagured as it is, and greatest effulgence. And why should it not be so? for there alone the individual feels his the first Napoleon, now almost centenarians, and throne the tears of pity of the recording and five Democrats, with two districts in recently. manhood acknowledged, and his acts appre-ciated; there alone the individual is lifted military idol in the Hotel Des Invalides, their human frailties and fit them to receive a part, an essential and important part, of the doors of the temple of Janus are closed in the body politic. The greatness of his country they recount the glories of "the little our beloved country I hope forever; now is always ready to shut the body politic. The greatness of his country they recount the glories of "the little try does not represent the aggrandizement of a despot or the enriching of a class, but it and pray for the presence of his that the passions are lulled and reason has a genius in this the hour of their military disagrandizement to him and an interest to him > ghost, it will not doom but ever chide him in ling homes where these wrecks of war could his thoughtful moments. No nation can be end their days in peace, content and plenty, truly great without it. Poetry draws from like the remnants of the defendens of the it its inspiration; society its charms; the aris and sciences their impulse, and language its eloquence. Well might the great Waverly that our great Commonwealth has made an "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, advance in the right direction by its munificent endowment of the schools for the maintainance and education of the orphans of minds. I shall therefore detain you only to those who fell in our great civil strile. The evidence of this great charity is before us toclothed, bright upon the battle field has bequeathed to them an heritage of honor. Being helpless in This love of country then being the green their childhood, the State says-I will adopt est laurel that bedecks the brow of inserty, you as my wards; I will nurture and educate you; I will instil into your mind the a country. Cast your eyes backwards for a mensity of the danger to which the nation whose lover has fallen in this bloody strife interests at stake, and conceive the awful lowed spot, she will drop a tear to the memory issue depended not only the integrity of our territory, the union of the States and their consequent greatness, the liberties of ourbut also the welfare of the millions of the old world who look to the United States as their future homes where they, too, could enjoy the liberty they so much admire and sings flow," was sung, and the benedic- delegation three Republicans and two Free government itself was upon trial. Free government, which, like another Noah's ark was sailing over the waters of der, of the Lutheran church, and the ty in the Senate and eight in the House and carrying in her bosom those vital prin give life to the world. Truly then this was struggle for national existence-a struggle forced upon us by a portion of our fellow citizens, who held firmly in their hands and under their control two of the three branches of government; the national legislature, through the senate, and a majority the supreme bench, to protect them judicial titles, and just what one he will rule un- lost us three Republican Congressmen -

"He who would rend the oak dreamed not of the rebound." Were we basely to permit our country to friends! We had better be where the extin channel of Thermopylæ than have so ted to this. I beg that no one will consider this spoken in any spirit of partizanship, for when our flag was fired upon at Fort Sumpter all political differences ceased to exist. And, fellow countrymen, when the lady was severely wounded. hour of trouble came, when this awful peril impended over the future of the nation, and the cry went out. "The country is in dan-Senator Watt of Philadelphia died

Senator Watt of Philadelphia died

Matter of Mr.

Watt makes the State Senate a tig until a tremendous response the citizens of the na. at Washington having resigned his po-tion gave. How they gathered together from sition, will soon resume the practice of on the 18th inst. The death of Mr. Whatton, Henry Brennisholtz.

Watt makes the State Senate a tie until the matter is decided by special election.

Secretaries — David Wilson, Wm J. Jackman, J W Speddy, B F Schweier.

On the completion of the organization guity of the custom is only equalled by the grandeur of the heroism it preserves. Estimated this church, opened the exercises with prayer, where the second the country is the custom is only equalled by the grandeur of the heroism it preserves. Estimated the specially is this the case where free institutions have prevailed, and man was recognized, by love of country, unhesitatingly devoted in their appreciation of their heroes. In the remotest times testimonials like these have been revised to commemorate the deeds of those who died for their country. The anti-device of the country, the liberty of which they seem the country is the custom is only equalled by the grandeur of the heroism it preserves. Estimated and their appreciation of their heroes. In the remotest times testimonials like these have been revised to commemorate the deeds of those who died for their country. The anti-device of the country, the liberty of which they seem the country is made and their appreciation of their heroes. In the remotest times testimonials like these have been revised to commemorate the deeds of those who died for their country. The anti-development of the custom is only equalled by the grandeur of the heroism it preserves. Estimated and their appreciation of their heroes. In the remotest times testimonials like these have been revised to commemorate the deeds of those who died for their country. The anti-development of the custom is only equalled by the size of the country that their appreciation of their heroes. In the remotest times testimonials like these have been revised to commemorate the deeds of those who died for their country. The anti-development of the custom is only equalled by the size of the custom is only equalled by the custom is only equalled by the cust rights. War was their ultimatum, and the

was causeless, and compelled the destruction

monwealth came the hardy backwoodsman, with his bucktail in his felt hat—all volun-Hannibal, of Casar and of Napoleon; but these all will "pale their ineffectual fires" before it shall have been written. Accompany our two bundred thousand cons of Pennsylof bloody strife, commencing with the seven historic days before Richmond in 1862. Their bones are bleaching in the swamps of the Chickshominy, on the plains of amid the rugged gorges of South Mountain, by Antietam's stream, and on the steep neights of Fredericksburg; the winds that whistle through the pines of the wilderness sound their requiem there. I might march on through this sea of blood across the continent, down into the wilds of Texas, and everywhere, on every battle-field dotting over that space, Pennsylvania's sons will be found foremost in the ranks, upholding the honors of their State. When the tide of in vasion entered our own State and the North ermost wave of rebellon had rolled its bloody crest upon the slope of the Round Top at Get ysburg, it encountered your military rock which was never shaken, the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, which dashed it back in shattered spray, never to be united or advanced again. On the natal day of your Indpendence 1863, on this sanguinary field was fired the national salute that made this Union permanent, and tolled the death-knell of the Cor.

We gain about 2800 but ought to have Who can describe the terrific grandure of this battle and do justice to the sub ject! No one! Yet how vivid is the recollec tion of the "zip" of the minute and the whistle elects a Democratic or Conserative Lient. of the shell, the yell of a stubborn gallant fo Governor, Congressman and Legislature and the sturdy hearty cheer in reply, the elbow touch of comrades as they pressed boldly by a small majority. This is a forward in the headlong deadly charge. All! cratic gain of one Congressmen. all is over, and many a noble man When the reveille shall sound on resurrection morn, these persons will rise from their halthe crown of everlasting glory. But now that one member of Congress. In the first though his clerks are very talk a ive during turns, and with patriotic pride and grateful ocratic majority of 76,323. The Demo piety let us gather around the momument dedicated this day to our fallen brothers and

"How sleep the brave who sink to rest. By all their country's wishes blessed! When spring, with dewy fingers cold, Returns to deck their hailowed mould : She there shall find a sweeter sod Than fancy's feet have ever trod : By fairy hands their knell is rung : By forms unseen their dirge is sung; ere honor comes, a pilgr To deck the turf that wraps their clay ; And freedom shall awhile repair To dwell a weeping hermit there."

The General was followed by Colonel McFarland, State Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools, in a brief address, as follows :

CITIZENS OF JUNIATA COUNTY :- Your Chair-

ry and imprudent. Even if time permitted, would be unwise to mar the effect which that address must have made upon you friends, upon the success of the interesting ceremonies of to day. The weather has been favorable, the attendance the largest ever Wendel Phillips the temperance candidate of trustees to found the 'John Hopkins witnessed in the county, and the procession imposing, enthusiastic, and free from accident or want of harmony. The monument publicans, for Governor. The Old Bay years old and a bachelor, and carned all has received the commendations of all. Above State is always true. In all has the oration been a success. The great truths so ably presented in it are worthy of your most serious consideration. Let me the Democrats gain a member of Conery time you pass this monument, upon the gress in the Sixth District. The Repub. nebago recently, put such a heavy charge character of true patriotism, the duties it imposes upon you, and the blessings it accures, as taught in this cration, and by this ture by handsome majorities. monument erected to the memory of your gallant fellow citizens. And let me urge these dear children that The latest reports indicate the election of lake. well and remember the lesson taught to-tay. Duty to country well performed, even to the sac

And you who are the orphans of the mer to whom this and similar monuments are being dedicated, are particularly interested, ters will occupy in Congress. In Improve your time and opportunities. Pre-pare for the duties of life so that if years hence your services are required by your the Republicans carry both members of country, you may prove yourselves worthy of your patriotic fathers.

With renewed congratulations he marked attention. At the close of Col McFarland's address the long metre doxology-"Praise God from whom all bles tion pronounced by Rev. Mr. Blackwel- Democrats. We also have three majoriexercises closed.

THE second son of Victor Emannel. King of Italy, has been elected king by the Spanish Cortes, on a vote of 191 against we have been divided and the dissensions der is not known.

THE Woman Suffrage Association of Ohio held a State Convention at Columbus last week' and elected officers for the ensuing year. The attendance was small. Only 24 delegates were present. gress as usual. In through the window of her house The the Governor also.

law in Harrisburg.

Election Returns.

The election returns are not yet full The Bedford Inquirer thinks the follow- liver complaint. ing statements are nearly correct:

ALABAMA

gives a Democratic majority of about 500 Germany. for Lindsay for Governor, and divide the Congressional delegation evenly, giving very extensively this season from Chicago three Democrats and three Republicans, and Milwaukee a Democratic gain of one member of Congress, and a gain on the State vote of 8000 or 9000. The Democrats elect 60 found stuck fast in a chimney. or 65 of the 100 members of the Legislathe true history of our great rebellion, when ture. Later news give the Republicans a majority of six on joint ballot in the venia in your mind's eye through four years Legislature and report the State as still ic member of Congress. There was no The Christian ladies of Chicago have showing, of the true Republican strength year. There is still a possibility that the official vote may show a full Republican Congressional delegation.

ARKANSAS

DELAWARE

has gone Democratic with her one Congressman as usual, but by greatly reduced majority. She also elects her Governor and Legislature, but the majority is only in from the woods. about 500. Two years ago she gave a We gain about 2800 but ought to have carried the State.

FLORIDA by a small majority. This is a Demo- permanent injury to the Republican par-

ILLINOIS gives about 40 000 Republican majority nose broken by a mallet in the hands on the State ticket, elects 6 Republicans of an adversary, whilst playing croquet doubt. The Democrats probably gain A veteran shopkeeper says that al-

the State ticket, elects a Republican mem one hundred and four pounds, ber of Congress and a Legislature four fifth Republicans. There will be but counties in the State have gone Demogives a Democratic majorty of 30,000 for Governor, a Republican gain of over 46,000 since 1868 when she gave a Demcrats elect eight of the nine Congressman making a Republican gain of one, with a possibility that the 9th District may vet elect Thomas over Rice in which case the Republicans will have a gain of two moderate. members. The Republicans claim a gain of 15,000 over the election in Aug. ts, N. Y , hid himself in his father's hay last. The Kentucky Republicans made mow, to learn to smoke. As soon as the a glorious fight and deserve great credit stones in the foundation cool off, the for their pluck. In LOUISIANA jority. This is a gain of two Republi- to save an express train.

KENTUCKY

can members. MARYLAND publican gain of about 13 000 since 1868. him on his promising to join the Sons of MASSACHUSETTS

Most sincerely do I congratulate you, my Republican Congressman and also re elect timoreun. His estates, valued at $7,000. ed Claffin Governor by 40,000 m i rity 000 he intends to place at the disposal received about 20,000 votes, mestly Re. University of Baltimore." He is 75 State is always true In

MICHIGAN

MISSOURI

are participating in these ceremonies, to study five Republicans, two of them bolters, and four Democrats. This would be a Democratic gain of two members. It is

MINNESOTA

Congress a gain of one. NEVADA is carried by the Democrats by about 200 The addresses were listened to with majority. This giver them a gain of one Congressman. In NEW JERSEY > we gain one Congressman making the succeed Cattell next year. In

NEW YORK

120. His most common titles are Prince in Republican ranks lost us the State, Amadeo, Duke of Aosta. He has other which we ought to have carried, and also The Legislature is very close and the latest news gives 65 Rupublicans and 62 Democrats

> RHODE ISLAND elects two Republican members of Con-TENNESSEE

Parker, of Chicago, by shooting her cratic and gains. The Democrats elect his friends.

WISCONSIN

Just as we Found Them.

There are 180 varieties of pills for

A Girl seven years old has reached Detroit, having come all the way from

Canadian millers are importing wheat

A negro female burglar has been captured in Columbus, Georgia. She was

The people of North Carolina complain that their penitentiary is too small to hold all the villians in that state.

A certain spectacle works in New Haven is the largest in the world, turngives two Republican and one Democrating out 300 000 pairs per year.

State ticket to be elected and dissension reformed and provided situations for in the Republican ranks prevented a fair 2350 abandoned females during the past Squirrels are said to be swimming the > Ohio river in droves, and are being killed in gardens and orchards near the A doe, weighing eighty pounds dressed, was killed in Germantown, Illinois, > on last Wednesday. A dog had run it A Mercer county, Ky., farmer found a number of lice in the brain of a hog-that died with every symptom of chol-The Boston Traveller thinks that the loss of a few grumblers will not be a ty in Massachusetts A young lady in Wisconsin had her

A farmer in Washington county has raised a pumpkin measuring six feet six inches in circumference, and weighing

In a police court, at Boston, a woman wearing $7,000 worth of jewelry and on Monday and fined. The Cincinnati Tim's wants Congress to pass a national law to prevent the he extinction of deer, buffalo and other animals now wantonly slaughtered by

The Marshall Saxe said that it required the weight of a man in lead to kill him in battle. Some statistics given in a French medical journal show this to be

The son of a farmer in Dutchess counfarmer will build a new barn.

A runaway lumber car on the Erie Republicans elect the entire Congression- railroad, last week, made a hundred miles al delegation and two thirds of the Leg- an hour, on a down grade, and was only islature and carry the Stae by 30,600 ma checked by a rise and a switch, in time

The other day two young girls of Carlinville, Illiaois, bound their drunken elects a full Democratic Congressional father hand and foot, and so kept him delegation by 18,000 najority. A Re- for two days. They finally released

Temperance. has recl-cted the whole delegation of Johns Hopkins is the wealthiest Bal-his fortune. A Fond du Lac dry goods clerk who went out for a duck hunt on Lake Winlicans carry both houses of the Legisla- in his gun that he was "kicked" out of his boat, while the offending fire-arm found its way to the bottom of the Mrs. B. F. Allen, writes to the Des Moines Register to say that she was elected President of the Polk county, impossible to say what position the bol. Illinois, Woman Suffrage Association without her knowledge or consent, and that she cannot accept, as she is not in sympathy with the movement. A herd of nine hundred Texas cattle, being pastured near Arlington, Illinois, broke loose the other day, and are now at large in Arlington and neighboring township, doing incalculable damage to crops, killing horses, &c. They are being shot wherever they are found, Since the close of the war a remarkable increase is noticeable in the production of peanuts, and on many of smaller insuring us a United States Senator, to plantations in the Border States they have largely superceded tobacco. Virginia will send to market this year 400,-000 bushels; Tennesse, 300,000; Georgia and the Carolinas, 150,000 to 200 .-

A wild white man, known only by the name of "Camanche Bill," and able to speak but very little English, recently presented himself to a Justice of the Peace in Leavenworth, in company with a white women, for the purpose of getting married. He said he had a large number of squaw wives, but he had con-On the night of the 15th inst., some we elect two Congressman, Butler and home to Pennsylvania (whence he was one attempted to assassinate Mrs. G. N. Maynard, the other six being Demo- abducted forty years ago) in search of

The Boston papers tell of a conductor Hon. Joseph Casey, a number of years elects three Republican and Six Demo- received from a passenger what he supon the New York and Boston train who but which proved to be a treasury note for one thousand dollars. When he rewe carry by about the usual majority of turned to tell the man he could not John W. Forney is an aspirant for a 8000 or 9000. The Democrats gain one change his bill, he was unable to find member of Congress making the delega- him. Doubtless the man who gave it to President Grant is at work at his an- tion two Democrats and four Republi. him had stolen it, and became alarmed at the manner of the conductor.