An unbounded confidence in human nature however commendable it may be is not always rewarded as it should be. Sometimes the unfortunate possessor of this confiding disposition passes through an experience which has the direct tendency ever afterwards to drive him to the opposite extreme...

Mr. Marshall is from Hanover, Columbiana county, Ohio. He is an aged gentleman and engaged as a stock dealer. A few days ago he came to Allegheny with a cargo of swine, which he disposed of, and yesterday had the money $600, in his pocket when he started for the depot to take the train for home...

Perhaps nothing strikes the minister of the Gospel more forcibly, as he stands around so many death-beds, than the truth that "the ruling passion is strong in death." Delirious or rational, it will drop out. The fast young man who drove fast horses, imagining that he was behind them in his carriage, with his dying breath, urged them onward...

It is said that the spirit of Napoleon leaped from his prison-bound walls amid one of the fiercest storms that ever raked his lonely isle. And it is said that his delicious soul, in the last solemn hour, seemed once more to be in the midst of the fight—once more to be in the midst of the roar and smoke and storm of battle...

Scarlet fever has assumed a malignant form in Snubury. A large number of children have died. There is a family in Pottsville who have a female domestic that has been with them 32 years without interruption...

A traveling piano player undertook to whip an Illinois editor, and when he got through he had only one ear for music. Twenty-five bridges were swept away in Morgan county, Ill., by the recent flood. The loss of property by the flood is immense.

A new cattle disease has appeared in Mercer county, Ill. The animals live but a few hours after the attack, and so far every attack has been fatal. One man has lost twenty-three head in three or four days. Boston merchants lament the death of a venerable parrot, which has inhabited a cage hanging in a shop in Exchange street, in that city, for the last thirty-nine years, and has been long noted among them for the energy and evident delight with which it would cry fire.

A far western paper recently appeared with two columns blank, with the exception of this note:—"By Telegraph—Special Dispatches to the Pacific Tribune. This is where the telegraphic news ought to be; but as we didn't receive any yet, we can't put it here."

Mr. Levi Irish of Appleton Mo., had a cow and a horse occupying adjoining places in the barn. The cow reached out her tongue to gather in the hay in front of the horse, when he revenged himself by seizing that organ in his teeth and biting clean off three and a half inches of it. The cow had to be killed.

Some weeks ago a poor fellow, by the name of Charles Brown, attempted to steal a ride in a box car on the Union Pacific Railroad. The car was locked, his presence not being known, and he was kept confined for five days, without food or drink, till the car arrived at Omaha. His feet, and legs to the knees, were frozen solid.

John Steffy and John Baker, of Susquehanna township, Cambria county, while engaged in putting a heavy log into the river, permitted it to get control, and being in front of it, on a steep bank, they ran for their lives. The runner unable to get out of the way was run over and killed. The latter escaped by jumping into the river and swimming away. Steffy was twenty five years of age.

Proclamation.—Whereas the Hon. JAMES H. GRAHAM, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 9th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Juniata, Perry and Cumberland, and the Hon. THOMAS I. MILLIKEN and SARGENT WATTS, Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Juniata county, have issued their precept to me directed, bearing date the 10th day of February, 1871, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, and General Quarter Sessions for the Peace, at Millstown, on the fourth Monday of April, 1871, being the 24th day of the month; NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace and Constables of the county of Juniata, that they be then and there in their proper person, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, with records, inquisitions, examinations and other remembrances, to do those things that to their offices respectively appertain, and those that are bound by recognition to prosecute against the prisoners that are or may be in the Jail of said county of Juniata, for then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

By an Act of Assembly, passed the 8th day of May, A. D. 1854, it is made the duty of the Justices of the Peace of the several counties of this Commonwealth to return to the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, of the respective counties, all the recognitions entered into before them by any person or persons charged with the commission of any crime, except such cases as may be ended before a Justice of the Peace, under the existing laws, at least ten days before the commencement of the session of the Court to which they are made returnable, and those that are required to return the same in the same manner as if said act had not been passed. Dated at Millstown, on the 23rd day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

JOSEPH ARD, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Millstown, Pa. March 20, 1871.
