MANURING ORCHARDS.

About ten years ago I became owner of an orchard in this county, of which I had some knowledge from the time it was first planted. It was composed of the best varieties of apples of the kind then most cultivated. It was greatly surprised, however, to see the appearance of the trees as well as the quality of the fruit. The trees had for some time been entirely neglected, and exhibited a wild and scraggly appearance, very similar to the crab apple and their fruit, but little superior either in size or quality.

I resolved to try the effect of thorough manuring, cultivation and liming. As a consequence, I plowed, limed and manured the orchard well and planted it in corn. That season I obtained but little fruit, but this was owing to a general failure of the fruit crop throughout the country, on account of a long continuation of rainy weather during the blossoming time. The trees exhibited, nevertheless, during the season, a renewed vitality, there being a change in the foliage and the growth of the trees, as well as in the size and quality of fruit. Indeed, the trees seemed to have taken a fresh hold on life, and made more growth in one season than before they had done in two. The foliage was of a rich, dark green color, and even the blossoms seemed to become more beautiful and attractive. The effects of the manuring and other attention became manifest in the following year, and for the several successive years I continued to sow it. It never failed to yield an abundant crop of delicious fruit, while my neighbors, who thought it a waste of money to put it on an orchard had but little or none.

WILLIAM McCOMB, JR.

Mock mince pies can be made by chopping apples very fine, adding a little powdered cracker, say three to two quart dish full of apple—all kinds of spices, a cup of chopped citron, half a pound each of currants and raisins, sugar to your taste, add a little currant wine if you have it. It will be moist enough. When you fill the pies, put three or four pieces of sweet butter on the top of each pie, before putting on the upper crust. They are very good, and save the nice mince pies, which, if made too soon, are expensive. By the way, do you know that a pound of citron, chopped fine and added to a large jar of wine meat gives it a finer flavor than anything else you can put in, and do you know that mince meat never should be cooked until it is cooked in the pie? It destroys the nice aroma of the spice and gives an insipid taste nothing can correct.

Hints on Colts.

- 1. Remember that the early part of the life of a colt determines in a great measure, whether at maturity the animal will be highly valuable or worthless.
2. Observe carefully and early how a colt carries his feet first in particular. If he inclines to carry them too near the ground, turn him into a pasture which has a very rough surface. In this way he will get into the habit of raising his feet high.
3. If he inclines to point his toes down, so as to make him likely to trip, he ought to be shod early, and the shoes should be thick before and thin behind, to give him a habit of raising his toes.
4. By all means use kindness and gentleness toward a colt, so that he may become docile, fearless, and put confidence in his master.

A Breed of walking Horses.

What use are fast horses to farmers? Can they put them to work in the plough, harrow, cultivator, roller, reaping-machine, cart or wagon? No. A starm might arise and the whole crop of hay be ruined, if they had to depend on 2-40 horses to haul it in. There is but one use that we can see that a farmer might put them to—sending for a doctor; but as farmers have very little occasion for this professional gentleman, and never get very sick, a slower and surer horse will answer better. Why then parade these horses at the head of the lists at Agricultural Fairs, and give them the biggest premiums? No wonder our practical farmers complain of this, while there is no premium at all for walking horses, which are more useful.

Driving a Young Horse.

The American Stock Journal says: "In teaching a young horse to drive will do not hurry to see how fast he can trot. Keep each pace clear and distinct from the other; that is in walking, make him walk and do not allow him to trot. While trotting, be equally careful that he keeps steady at his pace and do not allow him to walk. The reins while driving should be kept snug and, when pushed to the top of his speed keep him well upon the bit, so that when at a high rate of speed he can be held at his pace but do not allow him to pull to hard, for it is not only unpleasant, but makes it often difficult to manage him.

In Rhode Island the cattle disease has been communicated to horses, hogs, sheep, hens, &c. The hogs become dumbish, and appear to be very loth to move. Hens that ate of some meal left by a horse which was sick died very suddenly.

An old stable-keeper in England says he never has a bad foot on his horses since he commenced the practice of bedding on a thick layer of saw-dust. Pine saw-dust he finds the best, oak the poorest.

The grain fields look well.

Sewing Machines.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINE.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials of similar character, as expressing the reasons for the preference for the GROVER & BAKER Machines over all others.

"I like the Grover & Baker Machine, in the first place, because, if I had any other, I should still want a Grover & Baker, and having a Grover & Baker, it saves the purpose of all the rest. It does a greater variety of work and it is easier to learn than any other."

"I have had several years' experience with a Grover & Baker Machine, which has given me great satisfaction. I think the Grover & Baker Machine is more easily managed, and less liable to get out of order. I prefer the Grover & Baker, decidedly." Mrs. Dr. Watts, New York.

"I have had one in my family for some two years, and from what I know of its workings, and from the testimony of many of my friends who use the same, I can hardly see how anything could be more complete or give better satisfaction." Mrs. George Grant.

"I believe it to be the best, all things considered, of any that I have known. It is very simple and easily learned; the sewing from an ordinary spoon, is a great advantage; the stitch is entirely reliable; it does ornamental work beautifully; it is not liable to get out of order." Mrs. A. M. Spencer, 56 Bond Street, Brooklyn.

"I am acquainted with the work of the principal machine-makers, and I prefer the Grover & Baker to them all, because I consider the stitch more elastic. I have worked now in the house which was done many years ago, which is still good." Mrs. J. C. Gentry, 45 East Twenty-third Street, New York.

"More than two-thirds of all the sewing done in my family for the last two years has been done by Grover & Baker's Machine, and I never had a garment rip or need mending except those rents which foolish boys will make in whole cloth. It is in my opinion by far the most valuable of any I have tried." Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company manufacture both the Elastic Stitch and Lock Stitch Machines, and offer the public a choice of the best machines of both kinds, at their establishments in all the large cities, and through agencies in nearly all towns throughout the country. Price Lists and samples of sewing in both stitches furnished on application to Grover & Baker's S. N. Co., 115 Market Street, Harrisburg.
