Cough, Bronchitis, Asthmas, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so which and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remay for pulmonary complaints. Through along series of years, and among most of the race of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the daugerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden nitacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and maleced as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antifore for their.

It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color, eradicating and preventing dandruff, euring BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the hair. he gray and brashy hair by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward hair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the cheapest HAIR DRESS-ING in the world, and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to furnish the nutritive principle so necessary to the life of the hair. It gives the hair that splendid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament, a good head of bair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard.
