TOWN AND COUNTRY.
The letter from Titusville came too late for this issue.
Nashby on the situation will appear next week, by request.
The wheat harvest is over. It came earlier than for many years.
R. C. GALLAGHER'S new brick house on Main street is being hurried on toward completion.

The penalty to be imposed upon clergymen who unite in matrimony persons under age, no longer stands on the statute books a living law.
Hon. J. P. WICKERSHAM will be present at the annual examination of the Soldiers' Orphans' School, at McAlister-ville, on the 27th inst.
Any person in need of Drugs, Medicines, Pains, Oils, Varnish, Glass, &c., can be supplied by calling at the Patterson Drug Store. See advertisement.

Mr. ALEXANDER HARRIS, a native of this county, now a resident of Lancaster, is engaged in writing and compiling a biographical history of Lancaster county.
The Bedford Inquirer says that wheat was cut in that county as early as the 17th of June, and that a number of farmers had finished their wheat harvest on the 28th of the same month.

George JACOB, Esq., of this place, was thrown from his horse a short distance this side of the residence of Mr. Daniel Sieber, on the 6th inst. He was not much hurt.
Mr. DAVID MOSE was knocked down and trampled on by a pair of horses that had been unhitched from a reaper, one day last week. He received but little injury.
COW KILLED.—A valuable cow owned by Philo Fannebaker, of this borough, was knocked off the railroad track, a short distance below Patterson, by a westward bound freight train, and killed, on Wednesday of last week.

SOME days ago a six year old daughter of William Peoples, of Fermanagh township, was bitten in the foot by a snake. By dosing with whisky, and applying whisky and lard to the wound, the little sufferer was able to go about in a few days.
THE Graybill Brothers are about to erect a three-story brick building where the Crystal Palace and Warehouse stood. It is to have a front of 65 feet and a depth of 70 feet. The ground floor will be partitioned for three store-rooms the entire length of the building.

THE Lancaster Inquirer has been enlarged to a nine-column paper. It is ably edited, and fills a number of its outside columns with articles furnished by local literary people. We give the Inquirer a hearty welcome by reading it every week.
KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—On Tuesday afternoon, the 27th ult., Stewart Hurrell, of Lack township, was struck by lightning and instantly killed, while out in a field shocking wheat in company with William Walls. Mr. Walls was stunned, but not sufficiently to destroy consciousness.

A LADY telegraph operator at Thompson station was so severely shocked by lightning which entered the telegraph office at that place on the 3rd inst., that she lay in an unconscious state almost an entire day. She was able, however, to again resume her duties a few days after the occurrence.

PUBLIC SALE.—Samuel Leonard, Administrator of the estate of Mary Dietrick, late of Fayette twp., dec'd., will sell at public sale, at the late residence of said deceased, one mile north of Cocalamus Post-office, on Saturday, July 22, 1 cow, 1 heifer, 4 hogs, and a lot of household furniture. Sale at 1 o'clock P. M.

THE Legislature last winter passed an act empowering school directors who have obtained the assent of a majority of the electors of a district, to apply to Court for authority to borrow money for the purpose of building school houses, not to exceed 5 per cent, based on the last triennial assessment. Four weeks' notice in two newspapers is required.

A FLORAL CURIOSITY.—Take a stick of elder, bore out the pith, fill the cavity with good earth, and sow in it seed of several flowers that bloom at the same time. The seeds will soon germinate and the plants grow up together, with the stem, branches and leaves, they will appear to grow on the same root.—Ez.

An old toper who had attended a scientific lecture, where the learned professor caused several explosions to take place from the gases produced by water, said, "You don't catch me putting water in my liquor after this. I had no idea before that water was so dangerous, though I never like to take too much of it."

THE culture of grape in this country is growing with each year. Almost every grape known to the grape grower, may be seen and had by addressing Jonas or Joseph Oberholzer, Millintown, Pa.—The Juniata Valley Vineyard is one mile northeast of Millintown. Go and see it, and hand in your orders for grapes and grape vines.

THE School Directors of the borough of Patterson have secured a bell weighing 175 pounds, which they intend to put on the school house in said borough before the opening of the second session of the Normal School—Monday, July 17th, 1871—besides making other improvements about the building and grounds.

THE commencement exercises at Princeton, week before last, were of the most interesting character. George Wilson, of this borough, and John Laird, of Mc Coyville, Tuscarora Valley, who participated in the exercises on that occasion, the former of the junior, and the latter of the graduating class—are most favorably spoken of by Forney's Press and the Philadelphia Inquirer.

No railroad company in the United States is so well managed as the Pennsylvania Central. During the month of May 62,452 freight cars were passed over the road without an accident, and during the month of June over 53,000 were run over the road, with but two or three accidents, and they were of so trivial a character as scarcely to be worth mentioning.

During the prevalence of a thunder-storm, on July 3d, a large hickory tree, under which A. A. Crozier's gang of air-raid men took shelter, about 6 miles below Perryville, was struck by lightning. John H. Castner was struck on the right side, and rendered senseless. Philip Mealy was stunned to unconsciousness, and two other men were knocked down, but were able to regain their feet immediately. Castner and Mealy had to be conveyed to their homes in Perryville, and have not been able to work since.

LOST.—On Saturday, July 8th, driving from Richfield to Liverpool, a black wallet containing about $40 cash, and check on the National Bank of Northern Liberties of Philadelphia, for $1000, payable to order of undersigned (payment of which has been stopped,) also due Bills, Receipts and other papers of no use to any person but the owner—Any one finding the above is welcome to the money as his reward by returning wallet with papers, and receive thanks of DAVID D. ELDER, 430 Market St., Philada.

Or return to E. Tilton, Millintown.

THE State Teachers' Association will meet at Williamsport, on the 8th of August next. Persons having orders from the Ticket Agent of the Association can secure Excursion Tickets at the principal stations on the following railroads: Erie and Pittsburgh, Lehigh and Susquehanna, Lehigh Valley, Northern Central, Pennsylvania Central and branches, Philadelphia and Erie, Philadelphia and Reading and branches. For orders apply (stamp enclosed) before August 5th, to C. H. HARDING, Ticket Agent, 29 and 31 South Front St., Philada.

THE Register this week is again excited over our farming, and asserts that we are experimenting in a new process of raising sweet potatoes, by piling them like beehives. Of course we do not expect the Register to tell us anything of value in the cultivation of plants that have tendrils, but as it is constantly cultivated, and has its tendrils always twined around stakes driven by its master, it might tell us exactly of the process to which it is subjected by its manipulating hand.—Don't be coyish; tell it out. Perhaps we can apply the principle in training the tendrils of our sweet potatoes, and we'll then credit you and your master with the improved method, or process, and send you a mess besides.

"WHAT WAS IT DUG FOR?"—Last Friday afternoon, while Mr. W. Robinson, a farmer on a tract of land half a mile east of Millin, owned by George Jacobs, of this borough, was removing a shock of wheat freshly dug ground was noticed about the shock. After the shock was put on the wagon the ground on which it stood was examined, and to the surprise of all persons present, the clearly defined outlines of a hole about four feet long and two feet wide were revealed. It evidently had been dug after the wheat was cut, and the shock was placed over it to conceal it. "What was it dug for?" and "What does it contain?" were questions that all asked. It was determined to open it. A shovel was procured, and the loose ground thrown out clean to the bottom. It was about four feet and a half deep, but contained neither goods, body or bodies. "What was it dug for?" is the question that the community asks.

A LETTER from Mr. Frederick Espenschade, dated June 23rd, and written at Edinburgh, Scotland, has been received by his family. Mr. Espenschade started from this place on the 4th of June, on a visit to his friends in Germany. His letter states that his trip across the Atlantic was a pleasant one, with the exception of seven days' heavy fog. He had yet to cross the North Sea, and expected to arrive at his home in Germany about the 29th or 30th of June.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—Louis E. Atkinson, Adm'r. of the estate of Isaac Emerick, dec'd., will sell at public sale on the premises, on Saturday, July 22d, a House and Lot of Ground in Mexico. Sale at 2 o'clock P. M. For terms, etc., see advertisement in another column.

The farm formerly owned by Samuel Bashore, dec'd., situated about one-fourth mile northeast of Perryville, is offered at private sale. This is a valuable farm and well improved. See advertisement. Arnold Varos offers at private sale a tract of land in Millford twp., containing 45 acres, with improvements. See advertisement.

THE Milonion says that a Mr. brought a rye stalk into that office to show as a wonder in length. It measured 13 feet. THE SENTINEL Local would not suspect that the Milonion was sold in that rye straw if a sell of that kind had not been attempted in this office recently. Last week a citizen of Spruce Hill twp appeared in the SENTINEL office with a rye straw which, when measured, reached the length of 14 feet and 8 inches. It had been cut, he said, on his farm by his son. The editor not being in the office as the time, the rye straw of wonderful length was inspected by the foreman, who soon discovered that a number of straws had been nicely fitted into each other. The farmer, however, was not informed while in the office that the sell had been discovered. Query—Did the son fool the father, or was the sell gotten up for the printer by the old gentleman himself?

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Thursday of last week Mr. John Hass, residing near Dover, met with a most distressing and painful accident in his wheatfield while engaged in taking off the grain with a reaper. Two mules were hitched up and while the reaper was in motion the rake struck a stone, the noise of which frightened the animals, when they jumped to a side and commenced running. Shortly afterwards Mr. H. was thrown to the front of the reaper which passed over him mutilating him in a horrible manner. His right arm was cut off below the elbow, and his leg was torn and mutilated, but not fractured. He was seriously injured about the shoulders and head. A messenger was immediately dispatched to York, and Dr. Peatz proceeded to give surgical attendance to the injured man. His arm was amputated and the other injuries carefully dressed. He is reported to be doing remarkably well under the circumstances.—York True Democrat June 27th.

THE Fourth—There was no organized effort in Millin to celebrate the 95th anniversary of our national independence, in which everybody took a part. It was observed by some in sets of three, four, and so forth, just as it happened to suit. A set of perhaps a dozen, all of one sex, intended to go up to the mountain, at Vacedonia, where a good flag time was anticipated. The "Belle of Millin," a fancy wagon owned by Pannebaker & Slaughterback, was got out and horses hitched to it, and lunch put into it, when the weather lowered to such a degree that the party gave up going.—The business places had their curtains down and doors open, and the keepers moved around about their places with a listless air that impressed one with the feeling experienced when one enters a store on a Sabbath day where goods are procured to dress a departed one for a tomb. "Tangle foot was around at a number of places, with his foul antics—About 5 o'clock P. M., Tonsorial John, of Patterson, who has become a part of the Fourth of July in these parts, made his appearance on the street, accompanied by three others on horse-back, all habited as Indian braves on the war path in pursuit of settlers. Two men, representing pioneer settlers, were chased around the town awhile, and finally were overtaken at the deserted ranche across the way, from whence the spirits have departed, and conducted to Patterson, where they were scalped by their captors. This finished, John speedily doffed his Indian costume, and prepared to have his balloon taken to the green owned by the Railroad Company, south of their shops in Patterson. Meanwhile the hand repaired to that place, and by its music collected a large crowd of men, women and children. About 6 o'clock the professor appeared with his balloon and dignifiedly—a la Tonsorial John style—unfolded the "vessel of the air." In this difficult task he was ably assisted by the Craig Brothers. But alas for the expectation of the multitude, for just as the balloon was about to be loosened from its moorings—John's fingers—a spark from the fire below it, that was filling it with heated air, caught in the tissue paper, of which it was constructed, and it was consumed. The Professor's programme was a success. An old-fashioned hoe-down was then indulged in by a number of the youths of Patterson, on a platform near to the balloon ground, to the music made by a banjo, and its monotonous tum tums sounded like some of the Indian music gotten up by the Professor. The whole proceeding furnished a good deal of amusement for the crowd. So ended the Fourth, with a few other incidentals not here mentioned.

REV. D. M. BLACKWELDER, on last Sabbath morning preached a sermon on Bible Temperance, from the text—"Wise is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Prov. xx: 1. Once the church strenuously lays hold of the temperance question, and asks that the present temperance laws be enforced against those violating them, the outside world will advance rapidly and determinedly in the same direction.

WORTH TRYING.—The following remedy for fever and ague, which appeared in a leading editorial in the Cleveland Herald, won't cost much anyway even if it does fail: "We wish to give a very simple remedy for fever and ague, and wish to emphasize it by saying that it is to our knowledge, proved very efficacious. It is simple common salt. A teaspoonful taken in water, and a teaspoonful deposited inside each stocking, next the foot, just as the chill is coming on." That's all there is of it; but knowing that it has been very efficacious in breaking a chill and perfecting a cure, we put it in our editorial columns, where no humbug remedy shall ever find a place if we know it.

FIRE IN LEWISTOWN.—About ten o'clock on the night of the 1st inst., a fire was discovered in the stable adjoining the Coleman House, in Lewistown. The flames soon extended to the hotel, which was burned to the ground, as was also an adjoining house, owned by Mr. Eisenbise, from whom Mr. Coleman purchased the hotel last spring. Mr. Coleman, previous to his going to Lewistown, kept the Railroad house at Patterson. His property, it is said, was insured for $7,000. The loss is considerably above that. A third house was torn down to stay the progress of the flames. At one time the citizens thought that the home help was not sufficient to extinguish the fire, and a dispatch was sent to Harrisburg for aid. The fire department of that city responded and hurried a number of companies to the railroad to go to Lewistown; but when about embarking, information was received that the danger had passed. The total number of buildings destroyed were the hotel and one residence by fire, and one dwelling house pulled down, and six stables burned. Three horses, two mules, a buggy and wagon belonging to contractor McGovern, were burned in Mr. Coleman's stable. J. C. Moser, of this place, who kept a restaurant in the basement of the Coleman House, lost about $400. He had no insurance. Mr. Moser had his household goods burned by the great fire in Millin last winter.

MARRIED.—READ—SMITH—On the 5th inst., in this place, by E. W. H. Kreider, Esq., Lewis Read and Miss Sarah Smith, both of Martinsburg, Blair county, Pa.

Dr. Crook's
WINE
TAR.
Established
1862.

A remedy which has been tested for ten years, and proved in thousands of cases capable of curing all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs; performing many remarkable cures, such as a trial from all who are suffering from similar affections and vainly seeking relief. Will you let prejudice prevent you from being cured also?
Coughs and Colds.—The Druggists say it cures them all.
Asthma.—The relief and cures of it are marvellous.
Bronchitis.—Every sufferer will find relief and cure.
Throat Affections require only a few doses.
Lung Diseases.—Incurable cases pronounced incurable.
Debility.—It renews and invigorates the system.
Liver Complaint.—Most effective regulator of this organ.
Dyspepsia.—Its healthy action on the stomach cures it.
Aptitude.—It is health giving and appetizing re-energer.
Urinary Organs.—Action on them is marked and prompt.
DR. CROOK'S WINE OF TAR is rich in the medicinal qualities of Tar, combined with vegetable ingredients of endoubted value, which make it unsurpassed, not only for the complaints enumerated, but it rapidly restores exhausted strength, cleanses the stomach, relaxes the liver and puts them to work, causes the food to digest, and makes pure blood, and brings a vivacity appreciated by both sound and sick. If you are afflicted in any way, we know if you try the life-giving tonic properties of Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar, you will send your testimony to its great value in curing every ailment that flesh is heir to. Prepared only by OLIVER CROOK & CO. Sold by Druggists everywhere.
