SEEDS.

Seeds that sink in rich brown furrows,

Soft with Heaven's gracious rain ;

We are sowing, daily sowing.

Countless seeds of good or ill

Scattered on the level lowland,

Seeds that rest upon the surface

Of the dry, unyielding plain.

Seeds that fall amid the stillness

Of the lowly mountain glen :

Seeds cast out in crowded places,

Trodden under foot of men ;

Flung at random on the air;

Seeds by faithful souls remembered,

Lifeless on the teeming mouid;

When the sower's hand is cold.

By a whisper sow we blessings,

By a breath we scatter strife,

In our words and looks and actions

Lie the seeds of death and life.

Thou who knowset all our weakness

Rid thine angels guard the furrows

Where the precious grain is sown,

Till the fields are crowned with glory,

Filled with mellow ripened ears-

From the seeds we sowed in tears.

Stay the hasty, heedless hands,

Mar our fair and pleasant lands.

Father, help each weak endeavor,

Make each faithful effort blest,

Till Thine harvest shall be garnered,

Miscellaneous Leading.

MAY AND DECEMBER JOIN HANDS.

And we enter into rest

Lest the germs of sin and sorrow

Check the forward thoughts and passions.

Leave us not to sow alone!

Filled with fruit of life eternal

Seeds that live, and grow and flourish

Sown in terrs, and love and prayer.

Seeds that lie unchanged, unquickened,

Seeds by idle hearts forgotten,

Cast upon the windy hill ;
